

FACTS SMOTHERED
IN SUTTON CASE

Washington, July 28.—Formal protest against the ruling of the judge-advocate at the Annapolis court of inquiry into the death of Lieutenant James N. Sutton to the effect that the investigation henceforth would be considered a trial board, was prepared today by attorneys for Mrs. James N. Sutton.

Attorney Myer demanded that the navy department issue an order compelling the court to resume its sessions as an inquest body, instead of as a trial board.

Mrs. Sutton's attorneys characterized the action of the judge-advocate as an outrage, and threatened a naval scandal bigger than the first one opened up in connection with the case. The attorneys alleged that facts regarding Sutton's death are being smothered by the officials.
