

JEFFRIES POSTS FIVE THOUSAND AS FORFEIT

(By the Ringside.)
(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, July 29.—There has been a wonderful increase in the number of native-born Missourians since Jim Jeffries posted $5,000 as a forfeit to bind a match with Jack Johnson. These skeptics will yell "Show me" until the dog is actually dead; that is to say, until they see Jeff and Jack seated in opposite corners of a prize ring. That Jeffries' sincerity should be doubted is not in the least surprising. His actions throughout have been of the press-agent variety. For this, Jeff is not being blamed so much by the eastern critics as is Sam Berger, the big fellow's sparring partner and manager. Sam, it is charged, repeatedly gave the press typewritten statements regarding Jeff's alleged intentions without the least provocation, his sole desire being to keep the boller-maker's name before the public. Jeff's friends, so the story goes, begged Berger to change his tactics, as the continual press-agent campaign without coming through with something that looked like money was creating a strong sentiment against Jeff.

It is even stated that Jeffries and Berger had a hot argument over Berger's work, but this Berger denies. At any rate, the damage was done, Jeffries' popularity went to smash, the box office receipts fell off and the retired champion was hopping mad. According to one story, he had actually made up his mind four weeks ago not to fight, but the criticism that was being heaped upon him got through his hide and, stung to the quick and impelled by the force of public sentiment that Berger's statements aroused, he decided to at least post his forfeit.

This, of course, he can draw down at any time he sees fit. If he does, he will be the most thoroughly despised man that ever went into a ring. If he doesn't and goes through with the fight—Well! Let's wait until the battle's over.

HELP FOR THOSE WHO HAVE STOMACH TROUBLE

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—Samuel Boyer, Folsom, Iowa. Bowel Complaint in Children.

When six months old the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, a well known merchant of Agnewville, Va., had an attack of cholera infantum. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was given and effected a complete cure. This remedy has proven very successful in cases of bowel complaint in children and when given according to the plain printed directions can be relied upon with perfect confidence. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to small children. For sale by all good druggists.
