A NIGHT ON BROADWAY A GOOD HIT

What everybody says must be so. Murray and Mack's "A Night on Broadway" is really a great hit.

The Los Angeles "Rounder" says: That the Murray and Mack company will offer the newest song hits—"right off the Broadway griddle," to quote the press agent—is indicated by the list of numbers that will be interpolated in "A Night on Broadway."

These songs are: "The Stage Door Johnnie," sung by Lillie Suberland and the entire feminine contingent; "Come on Down Town," the big song success in George Cohn's "A Yankee Prince," to be sung by Mr. Murray and Mrs. Mack; "The Yankee Doodle Boys," a lively march song, from Cohn's "The American Idea," to be sung by Bobbie Harrington and the big chorus; "Flowers to the Fair," a new and extremely dainty song to be sung by Bessie Tannehill; "Casey Jones," the prevailing popular song hit of the local season, to be sung for the first time on any stage by Charles Murray; "Over on the Jersey Side," Jack Norworth and Nora Bayes' big song success in "The Follies" of 1908; "Sweetheart Town," a stirring march song to be sung by the Marquis Ellis quartet; "The Red Shawl," Cole and Johnson's newest Indian song, to be sung by George Fields with the entire Murray and Mack company in the background; "The Soul Kiss," the tremendously popular waltz song of F. Ziegfeld operatic production of the same name, to be sung for the first time in this city by Bessie Tannehill; "Able, Take an Example from Your Father," a quaint Hebrew dialect song, to be rendered by Max Bloom; "Liza," Bobbie Harrington's big song and dance number, with the Murray and Mack dancing girls for his assistants; and "The Yama Yama Man," the song that has made Messie McCoy and the Three Twins, the biggest musical comedy hit of the season in New York. There will be a number of choruses in addition to this imposing list of new songs, almost everyone of which will be heard for the first time in the city in "A Night on Broadway" at the Grand Opera house Saturday night, July 31.

Confined to His Bed—J. L. Zupansky, the well-known bookkeeper at the Salem Brewery, and prominent among the brewers of the state, is quite sick, and is confined to his bed at his home on the corner of Mission and Liberty streets.

Mr. Zupansky is a veteran brewer, and has been in the employ of the Salem Brewery Association for many years.

Following his arrest for purloining the reptiles, George Horner fled suit against N. A. Weeden, his partner in a snake exhibiting enterprise, to dissolve the partnership. Pending the sought-for dissolution, Horner requested the court to appoint a receiver. Judge Frater granted the request, and Ellis was appointed the custodian of the poisonous property.

In his complaint Horner states he and Weeden entered into a partnership, by the terms of which he was to furnish the snake charming skill and the labor, while all Weeden was required to furnish was the money. Both delivered the goods. But ten days ago Weeden threw his partner out into the street. Horner went away from there, but he returned during the temporary absence of the bellicose Weeden and carried off the snakes and the gila monster, the sole assets of the firm. His arrest soon followed, and for several days the snakes have had the freedom of the jail, to the great distress of the "drunks" having temporary residence there.

BLOOD WAS IMPOVERISHED

A Well Known Fort Worth Man Tells How He Was Cured.

Anaemia and Threatened Consumption Yield to the Tonic Treatment Which Has Cured So Many Cases Dependent Upon Thin Blood.

"Anaemia" is the doctor's name for lack of blood. It is readily curable by the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as is shown by the experience of Mr. D. S. Landis, of No. 561 Bryan avenue, Fort Worth, Texas. He says:

"My sickness dates as far back as 1895, when an attack of bronchitis followed a severe cold. Another attack came in 1899 and was followed by hemorrhages and all the symptoms incident to anaemia. I had been under the doctor's care for about two years, taking cod-liver oil and other remedies but was not helped. The doctors then advised a change of climate and I came to western Texas and laid aside Doctors' medicine.

"The doctors pronounced my trouble anaemia and my blood was so impoverished that I was threatened with consumption. Hemorrhage of the lungs was present and night sweats were common. I had all the varying symptoms accompanying my disease, such as palpitation of the heart, inactive liver and pressure on the chest. My kidneys also were affected. I suffered with indigestion throughout my sickness. It seemed as though I could never get sufficient air into my lungs and there was a continual pressure about them and my heart.

"I first noticed Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through reading a newspaper and bought some for a trial. Relief was apparent within a few days so far as headache and a general bloating was concerned. My other symptoms gradually grew less pronounced and I took the pills as directed until I felt cured. Even now, when well and strong, I take them as a tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

IS MADE RECEIVER OF STRANGE STOCK

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., July 30.—Vaughan Ellis is today receiver of perhaps the most unique business failure on record. The property placed in charge of Receiver Ellis by order of Judge Frater, consists of one gila monster, a diamond-headed rattlesnake, two "tea" snakes and a bull snake.
