

SOCIETY

TAG Day for Fairmount Park was a decided success, Salem maids and matrons interesting themselves in its behalf, and working untiringly to bring the day to a successful close. Young girls made a thorough canvass of the business section of the city, and those who did not buy a tag or two, just to be "in the swim," could not resist the smiles of the pretty maids. A concert will be held in the park again tomorrow afternoon, and prominent speakers will make short talks on the benefit of the park.

The Chemawa graduating exercises were interesting events of the week, attended by many Salem people; auto, carriage and car parties being made up, and going out each day.

Mrs. A. J. May entertained with a dinner Monday at her home in Hazel Green, in honor of her own birthday and also Mrs. James Hawthorne's, of Polk county. Covers were laid for twenty friends, including several from Salem, and the table decorations were of carnations. The guests were entertained informally during the afternoon.

Miss Lucia Campbell, of Eugene, and Miss Cecile Wilcox, of Independence, are being entertained by Miss Sallie Bush and Miss Aline Thompson. Both are U. of C. girls and are members of Miss Thompson's society.

Miss Frances Nelson, of Albany, and Miss Nancy Zan, of Portland, were guests of Miss Aline Thompson Thursday. Miss Nelson was returning from Portland, where she attended the installation of the new Kappa Alpha Theta chapter, of which she is one of the most popular members.

The members of "The Loyal Daughters" society of the First Christian church gave a very successful "Mystery Supper" at their church Thursday night, nearly two hundred calling during the evening. The money realized will be used to furnish the society's rooms in the church. The table was decorated with Shasta daisies and the menu was served by Miss Helen Mercer, Miss Alva Derby, Miss Adda Flake, Miss Blanche White, Miss Merle Tracy and Miss Beryl Headrick.

The marriage of Mrs. Lillian McElroy Luckey to Mr. Warren J. Hunt took place in Portland Thursday. Both are accomplished musicians and are well known here. Mr. Hunt is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hunt, of New York, and Mrs. Hunt is a sister of Prof. Willis E. McElroy.

Miss Bertha Allen entertained a party of Salem canoe club members and friends Wednesday evening. All went up the river in canoes to the "High Jinks" grounds, where they enjoyed a watermelon spread. Members of the party were Misses Bess Smith, Rae Smith, Della Briggs, Florence Schambrook, Mary Wain, Mabel DeLong, Nellie Hargrove, Francis Smith, Mildred Perkins, Miss Prim and Miss Louden, and Messrs. Willard Wirtz, James Shinnock, Chester Hargrove, Clifford Benson Dan Allen, Oliver Myers, Russell Smith, Austelle Zeigler, Wm. Lord Jr., Donald Yantis, C. N. McArthur and Mr. Holcomb.

The marriage of Miss Hortense Kimball to Mr. Carl Kugel of Buffalo, N. Y., was the occasion of a very pretty house party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Kimball in West Salem. The bridal couple stood up in a bower of Oregon grape and ocean spray. The dining room was handsomely decorated in carnations and cut flowers, all in red. A dinner was served and Mr. and Mrs. Kugel departed amid showers of rice and congratulations for their honeymoon journey over the mountains to Newport on Yaquina bay.

Mrs. Lucas and Miss Lucas of Cleveland, O., and Miss Eula McCully of Hood River were entertained with a broiled chop and watermelon dinner in the open air on Fairmount Heights last night. Those present besides the guests of honor were Hal D. Patton, Carl Gabrielson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, Lawrence and Florence Hofer. The dinner ended with the customary bonfire, and the party saw Salem by moonlight, sunlight, firelight and electric light.

The United Artisans had a fine annual picnic social on Fairmount Heights, which concluded with a splendid supper served on tables with hot coffee and ice cream, and concluded with a band concert. All the Artisans then took a stroll over the proposed park site, led by Mr. Vass and others, who explained the boundaries. The sentiment was unanimous for the acquisition by the city of the wooded hill that is the popular open-air assembly place of the Capital City. Over a hundred attended.

CANADIAN TO FIGHT JIM HILL

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Vancouver, B. C., July 31.—The Canadian Pacific railroad has a new move on hand that is regarded as a direct reply to James J. Hill's invasion of Canadian Pacific territory along the international boundary line on the prairies. The new proposal is that of a short line from Spokane to Vancouver. This will be accomplished by building a line from the town of Midway to Vancouver, affording the Canadian company a continuous route from Spokane to the coast that will be hours shorter than any other. Recently the C. P. R. secured the charter of a road between Midway and Vernon which was newly built four years ago by a company which was unable to carry the deal to completion. With the acquisition of this stretch of road it is expected the Canadian line will have the Spokane cut-off in operation within a little more than a year.

Railroad men believe that by the time the through line is completed the Canadian Pacific will have its own tracks into Seattle and will make a bid for the grain hauling trade between Spokane and Seattle, Tacoma and Portland.

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LNSCOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB.

(Copyright, 1908, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.)

August 1, 1909.

Close of Paul's Missionary Journey. Acts xviii:1-22.

Golden Text.—In the world ye shall have tribulation; be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.—John xvi:33.

Verse 1.—What remarkable thing had immediately preceded Paul's start for Corinth?

There is no record of a vision or any special divine instruction for Paul going to Corinth; but is a good man as much guided by God when he is not conscious of it, as when he is, and why? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.)

Verses 2-3.—What was the attraction between Aquila and Paul?

How do you account for it that there is an affinity between men of the same trade?

Have labor men a perfect right to band themselves together for mutual protection against the undue demands of capital?

Has capital a moral right to protect themselves against undue competition?

Paul worked at his trade as a tent maker for a living; is there any suggestion in this that modern preachers should do a similar thing?

A large proportion of the membership of the present day Christian church have the latent ability to preach; ought not this ability to be developed, thus giving to every local church several preachers, and the work being divided between them, would be better done than at present, and each preacher make his own living?

Verse 4.—Is it the duty and privilege of every adult Christian to be engaged, at least every Sunday, in some specific spiritual work?

Why did Paul, in the beginning in Corinth, confine his work to the Sabbath day and to the Jews?

Verses 5-6.—What effect did the visit of Silas and Timothy have upon Paul?

If a good man is ever so much in earnest may he visit of another earnest man intensify his spirit?

When a man does his very best in preaching and fails to make converts, is he entitled to as much credit as if he had great success?

Did Paul blame himself for his failure, and that the Jews resisted and blasphemed; and ought a man of God always take a similar position in like circumstances?

Verse 7.—Has it ever been in the past, and is it today, sometimes necessary for a good man to leave the church and start a meeting of his own?

Verse 8.—Is belief in Jesus an intellectual effect, or is it spiritual and supernatural?

Verses 9-11.—What method did God take in this instance to talk to Paul?

Why is it that so few Christians have any experience of any special message from God?

Do Christians speak as much as they ought for Christ today, and is there any fear of being hurt by speaking for him?

Verses 12-17.—Can any man expect, even in these days, to be unflinchingly faithful to God, and not make some people angry?

How do you estimate the character of this man Gallo, and what is there in him worthy of imitation?

Verses 18-22.—Sum up the effects of Paul's efforts as revealed in this lesson.

Lesson for Sunday, August 8, 1909, Paul's instructions to the Thessalonians. I Thess. v:12-24.

The valley papers are commenting somewhat caustically on the appointment of Richard Brumfield as deputy game warden for the Alsea country. Ho Cursed Auto but Loved Church.

Eugene, Ore., July 31.—John B. Coleman, a local capitalist, who was arrested and fined $5 in police court a few days ago for swearing at an automobile which came near running into him on the street, has given another brick block, valued at $15,000, to the Eugene Bible University, in addition to a block valued at $20,000, given just a year ago.

The gift is in memory of his wife, who during her life was a devout member of the Christian church.
