SALEM BELONGS TO THEM FOR IT IS WOODMANS DAY GREAT PARADE TONIGHT

One of the greatest events in Salem Woodcraft is the meeting now in progress here.

The big crowd began to arrive in the city at an early hour to participate in the celebration.

The head camp officers, consisting of Hon. I. I. Boak, head consul; Hon. John Pattison, Hon. James Steinhouse, Hon. T. M. Robinson, Hon. F. P. Hawke, Hon. F. E. Lundgrass, Hon. F. B. Tichenor, Hon. J. O. Willson, arrived on the 10:30 train and were met at the Southern Pacific depot by the local reception committee, accompanied by a number of Salem's prominent business men.

The grand street parade composed of the head camp officers and with 3,000 members of the order and of the Women of Woodcraft, together with about 100 candidates to be initiated into the mysteries of perfected Woodcraft, led by the band, will start promptly at 8 o'clock tonight from the corner of State and Church streets and will proceed to Marion Square, corner of Commercial and Marion streets, where an elaborate program will be rendered.

The program is as follows: Band, Address of Welcome, Mayor Geo. F. Rodgers, Music, Selection, Male Quartette, Address, by Hon. I. I. Boak

Head Consul. Music, by Hon. John Pattison Head Manager. Address, by Hon. Jas. Steinhouse Head Manager. Music, by Hon. T. M. Robinson Head Manager. Address, by Hon. F. P. Hawke Head Manager. Music, by Hon. F. E. Lundgrass Head Manager. Address, by Hon. F. B. Tichenor Head Manager. Music, by Hon. J. O. Willson Head Manager.

After the program the officers and members of the order will adjourn to the Woodman hall, corner of State and Liberty streets and proceed to initiate the candidates in a w.a.w. event the head camp officers will fill the various chairs. After all business has been disposed of a sumptuous banquet will be served and a regular old time Woodman greeting will be given to all.

The immense throng of visitors amused themselves during the day in visiting the different state institutions and the various places of amusement as well as attending the different moving picture theatres that were kept open for that special occasion.

It is a matter of regret that it will be impossible for Congressman W. C. Hawley, chairman of the head camp managers, to be present on account of being detained in Washington, D. C. It was the intention of Mr. Hawley to meet the head camp officers in this city and also to fill an important place on the program.

HAS ROYAL BLOOD IN HER VEINS

Diluted a Few Hundred Times But the Elkins Know the Yellow Streak is There.

London, Aug. 6.—Opposition on the part of the royal family of Italy to the marriage of Katherine Elkins and the Duke d'Abuzzi may vanish like the mists of the early morning if the discovery Mrs. Albert Levin Richardson of Baltimore claims to have made is found to be based on fact. In recent delving into ancestries, Mrs. Richardson has learned, she announced today, that the forbears of the family of Senator Davis trace their descent directly to the Italian kings of the first century. Senator Davis is Miss Elkin's uncle. Mrs. Richardson stated that her investigations and the conclusions she drew from them have been substantiated by the heralds college and admit no doubt as to their authenticity. Neither Senator Davis nor Senator Elkins, it is said, are aware of their supposed noble descent.

MISTAKING THE FORD CAUSED HIS DEATH

The Woodburn Independent tells the story of the drowning of Edward Clevenger, T. C. Livesay, who had gone to the assistance of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Clevenger, whose husband was drowned in the Clackamas river near Cazadero July 28, returned home Sunday, the body having been recovered Friday and buried at Lone Fir cemetery the next day after funeral services in Portland. Mr. Livesay was given the account of the sad accident and it is a little different from the dispatch published in this issue. With a saddle horse packhorse and colt, Mr. and Mrs. Clevenger entered the stream from what they supposed was a regular trail, but was only a flash-boat runway. Mrs. Clevenger went first on the saddle horse, to the tail of which was fastened the packhorse, which was accompanied by Mr. Clevenger, the colt following. When in midstream the saddle horse rolled over and the woman went down and came up and grabbed the packhorse. It is supposed that Mr. Clevenger either got excited and let go or went to the assistance of his wife. Mrs. Clevenger lost hold of the packhorse and got hold of the colt, which took her to land. She afterward recrossed the stream and searched for her husband all the remainder of that afternoon and night and in the morning went for help. The body was found close by among rocks with the face down. It was a terrible experience for Mrs. Clevenger and one of great endurance.

INDIAN CHIEF DIED LIKE AN ARISTOCRAT

An old eastern Oregon Indian chief recently purchased a fine automobile. He bet his grandson, a horse jockey, that his machine could beat any horse in a 100-yard dash with a standing start. Result: Collision, horse killed, auto wrecked, and old Ben Hur dies of his hurts. Poor Lo! Too much civilization. With firewater and benzine buggies his troubles are many.

Fined for Swearing.

The Albany Herald of August 4 says: Sig Miller of Crabtree was today fined $5 and costs for using profane and obscene language on the public highway at Crabtree. The complaint was entered by Postmaster W. J. Turabridge. It is said that the two men got into an argument which ended in the use of profane language by Miller. The case was tried at the court house this morning before Justice of the Peace Swab who fined Miller $5 and costs, amounting to about $39.

Famous Band With Ringling Bros. Albert C. Sweet's famous concert band is this season furnishing the incidental music for Ringling Bros. circus. This band is known as one of the best musical organizations in New York city.

The engagement of May Sutton, the tennis champion, proves to have been a huge joke. No love game to it at all.

X-RAYS AND SMILES

Hops 20 cents and still a hopping; 23 for them.

Hogs and auto maniacs are breaking the records in Portland.

The tariff bill is completed and is now a law. It was a Payne-ful thing.

If it is going to be Nesmith and Pacific counties, will it be in Oregon or Slakiyoo?

The legislature that passed the inheritance tax took the auto craze by the forelock.

Alice Longworth wants to go up in a balloon. Nick's power to amuse must be on the wane. He should buy Alice a phonograph.

Porter brothers ought to be in demand at Albany. They might be both whip and spur to Harriman on that road across the mountains.

A townsie is being laid off in the Santiam to be known as Black Eagle. The town may be needed but the name isn't—by the postoffice department.

Mrs. Real was struck and killed by an automobile at Portland yesterday morning. The parties in the auto never stopped to see what damage they had done.

The tragedy in the Josephine caves was inexpressibly sad, but there was that measly unnecessary revolver; and why any one would want a gun in such a place is a mystery.

Now that the tariff is settled and Jeffries sailed for Europe, let us all hope for deliverance from Thaw, Sutton and the idiotic news gatherer who burdens the telegraph wires with that kind of second-hand sheep dip under the name of news.

It is really too bad that law-abiding people can have no amusement or pleasure in an auto, bike or anything of that kind without having to be censured because of the acts of the lawless—but it is the old story of the geese and the cranes.

Putnam, of the Medford Tribune, says: "Grandpa was a fine old man, but he went to bed with a candle, and our achievements should as far outshine his as the electric light we use does the candle of his time." And Putnam is pre-eminently correct.

St. Louis detectives who discovered "suspicious looking trunks" at the depot there say they are surely on the track of the kidnapers of the Viviano children. They broke open the suspected trunks and found they contained clothing.

Disagreeable at Home.

Lots of men and women who are agreeable with others get "cranky" at home. It's not disposition, it's the liver. If you find in yourself that you feel cross around the house little things worry you, just buy a bottle of Ballard's Herbine and put your liver in shape. You and everybody around you will feel better for it. Price 50c per bottle. Sold by all druggists.

Notice of Intention to Improve a Portion of State Street.

Notice is hereby given that the common council of the city of Salem, Oregon, deems it expedient to improve and proposes to improve at the expense of abutting and adjacent property, State street, in said city, from the east line of Twelfth street to the west line of North Mill creek by moving out and establishing the curb lines so the roadway of said portion of State street will be 40 feet in width from curb to curb and by paving the roadway of said portion of said State street full width from curb to curb; provided, however that those portions of said State street which are intersected by other streets shall be paved for a width of 50 feet along the center of said portions of said State street. There is excepted, however, from the proposed improvement a strip seven feet in width extending the full length of the proposed improvement along the center thereof which is to receive the street railway track of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, and to be improved at the expense of said company.

Attention is called to the plans and specifications adopted by the common council and on file in the office of the city recorder, which shall govern as to the making of said improvement.

Remonstrances may be filed against said improvement in the manner and within the time provided in the charter of said city.

Date of the first publication of this notice, the 27th day of July, 1909.

By order of the common council, W. A. MOORES, City Recorder.

BLOOMER'S ADDITION to the City of Newport, Oregon, is now on the market for the first time. The tract is located about half way between Nye Creek and Newport, and consists of some 30 lots, on the rising ground directly above the ocean. Each lot is but a few steps from the beach and commands a view of the ocean or surf for miles north and south. To the north can be seen Jump Off Joe and the Yaquina Head Light. To the south the entrance to Yaquina Bay and the Lifesaving Station. The property is about a five-minute walk from the boat landing in Newport. It is reached by a new six-foot board walk, which runs in a straight line from the Ocean House Hotel in a northwest direction to the lots. This is now the most popular walk in Newport on account of its beautiful surroundings and magnificent view of the Pacific when the end is reached at BLOOMER'S ADDITION. Here before the observer the ocean and the beach stretch for miles and miles.

A WORD ABOUT YAQUINA BAY

You could not find a more interesting location to spend your summer than around this beautiful bay, which is conceded by those who know, to be the most beautiful summer resort, NATURALLY, of any on the Pacific coast, barring none. Hunting and fishing are unexcelled, and the many places of interest close to Newport, such as the Lighthouse, Otter Rock, Seal Rocks, etc., make it an ideal place to own a summer home.

NOW LOOK AT THE MAP

You will see that BLOOMER'S ADDITION is right on the ocean, and yet has the great advantage of being close to the bay and town, with no steep hills to climb to reach it. The beach in front of the property is good for bathing and the gathering of rock oysters. Mr. Bloomer has already built two beautiful cottages on these lots for his own personal use. Mr. Bloomer is a Seattle man, and intends to make this the most popular addition to Newport.
