THE GREAT DRAWING IS BEGUN

Lands of Coeur d'Alene Indians Being Divided Among Their White Brothers Today.

OREGON MAN FIRST

ISADORE SELIG, MYRTLE CREEK, IS FIRST NAME DRAWN FROM BOX—MORE THAN THOUSAND PERSONS SURROUND PLATFORM TO WATCH PROCEEDING.

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, Aug. 9.—Before more than a thousand persons, the drawing for lands of the Coeur d'Alene Indian reservation began here today. Few formalities preceded the drawing and little demonstration attended the announcement of the first name taken from the box by Miss Helen Hamilton, niece of Mayor Hamilton.

The first name drawn was that of Isadore Selig, Myrtle Creek, Or. Then came in order J. H. Hedwark, 23 Main street, Spokane; John E. Hormemell, 402 Mahowk street, Spokane; Herman Newbauer, 5434 Birmingham street, Tacoma; Ella T. Maloney, Spokane; Wm. W. Atkinson, Troy, Idaho.

The drawing was done on a high platform in full view of the crowd. The thousands of application tickets were in sealed boxes, which were opened by Judge Witten and his assistants.

Before the drawing, Judge Witten made a brief speech in which he declared that the drawing was not a lottery and that all would have an equal chance.

"You cannot tell one envelope from another," said the judge. "I will give anyone who desires an opportunity to step forward and pick out his envelope from the box, providing he will forfeit his chance of winning. It cannot be done, and there is no possible chance of favoritism."

After the speech, Miss Hamilton then began drawing the envelopes.

CHINK ATTACKS GIRL AND STABS ESCORT

[United Press Leased Wire.]
San Francisco, Aug. 9.—N. E. Sehn is confined to his home on Schrader street today suffering from an ugly wound on his right arm which was inflicted by a Chinese named Ah Sim, whom Sehn found in a room occupied by Miss Mabel Haven at San Mateo last night when he came in answer to her screams for help.

Sehn and Miss Haven had taken a machine ride to San Mateo and stopped at a hotel for dinner. While waiting for her to come down stairs, Sehn heard her cry out in terror. He dashed to her aid and found the Chinese in the middle of the room while the white-faced girl stood with her back to the wall.

With Sehn's entrance the Oriental turned and drew a knife. Sehn closed with him and the Asiatic stabbed him in the arm, gashing it to the bone. The Chinese is a cook at the hotel. He was arrested.

READING SUTTON LETTERS

Attorneys Clash Over Introduction of Mrs. Sutton's Letters But They Are Admitted.

LIKE WILD BEASTS

SAYS THE "ARMY AND NAVY" SHIELD LOW BRUTES AND THAT "ADAMS, OSTERMAN AND UTLEY'S FACES ALONE ARE ENOUGH TO CONVICT THEM."

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Annapolis, Aug. 9.—Declaring that her son appeared to her in a vision after he was dead, Mrs. Sutton, mother of the late Lieutenant James N. Sutton, today dramatically told the story of the dream that led to the present investigation.

She had been asked why she attacked certain men in her letters to navy officials and she replied: "The love between Jimmie and me was the greatest that could possibly exist between two people. If Jimmie met with an accident, I felt it immediately. The night that those beasts were laying their plans for Jimmie's murder awful fear came over me.

"The next morning Mr. Sutton told me that Jimmie was reported to have killed himself.

"Oh, God! If Jimmie hadn't spoken to me then, I would have died.

"Then Jimmie came to me and said: 'Mother dear, don't believe it, I never killed myself. Adams killed me. They beat me to death and then Adams shot me to hide the crime.'

The remarkable testimony came out when Mrs. Sutton was under cross examination by Attorney Birney, who represents Adams, one of the men who are before the inquiry in the position of defendants.

GOVERNOR HAY SPEAKS

That the lumber tariff is a necessary factor in forest preservation was the argument of Gov. Marlon E. Hay of Washington, at the opening of the seventeenth national irrigation congress today. He said:

"Those who advocate free lumber are unquestionably honest in their attitude and are inspired with a belief that such reduction in the tariff or the removal of it will have the effect of greatly lowering the price of forest products to the consumers. I am convinced that these beliefs are wrong. Possibly for a short period following the reduction of the tariff and consequent admission of Canadian competition, a slight reduction in the cost of forest products to the consumer might take place. This would be but temporary, for the conditions which have been forcing up the price of lumber in this country are rapidly finding a parallel in Canada and British Columbia. The real cause of the rise in prices is to be found in the diminishing forest area. If the tariff is removed or materially reduced the competition that will follow will hasten the depletion of our own forests as well as those of neighboring countries. The price will become prohibitive to the home builder. Congestion in tenement districts will take place and deplorable conditions existing in portions of the old world will follow. Fully three-fourths of the choicest standing timber of the country is owned by corporations and the difference in the price of labor in the United States and Canada would smother the industry in this country.

"The preservation of our forests is the foundation principle of all the valuable objects that we seek to attain," he said, "and that which nothing is more important today to our country's commercial and industrial life."

The object of the congress, he declared, is to marshal the forces that seek the betterment of the country for the overthrow of the elements that seek to destroy it.

"The voice of the people of our entire nation demands," he declared, "that the reclamation fund shall be forthwith supplemented by the creation and sale from time to time of gold bonds in the total sum of $500,000,000 in order that such more rapid work may proceed in reclaiming the nation's arid lands. The same principle finds its application as to the reclaiming of swamp lands and the improvement of rivers.

IRRIGATION CONGRESS IN SESSION

Governor Hay of Washington Makes the Opening Address at 10:30 This Morning.

PINCHOT IS THERE

AND WILL PUT UP BITTER FIGHT AGAINST THE WATER POWER TRUST WHICH IS GRABBING ALL AVAILABLE STREAMS AND FIGHTING PINCHOT'S POLICIES

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Spokane, Aug. 9.—The Roosevelt policy for the irrigation and reclamation of arid lands throughout the country, particularly the west, is expected by the delegates to the seventeenth annual irrigation congress meeting here today, to precipitate a clash between Secretary Ballinger of the interior and Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry bureau under Roosevelt and Taft.

Pinchot stands today the foremost champion of the Rooseveltian policies for the protection of forests and the preservation of waterpower lands from the encroachments of monopolies.

Ballinger, while not opposing the ideas of Roosevelt in general, has changed many of the former president's plans in detail. In this he has met the opposition of Pinchot. Both men will face the congress on the rostrum and adherents of both will fight out the problem on the floor of the congress. Which ever side wins the other side will know there has been a fight. Both sides, however, are determined to place the congress squarely on record in the matter.

Pinchot's attitude is known; that of Ballinger is a matter of conjecture. Interest centers in the attitude of Secretary Ballinger toward the reclamation service and toward the so-called waterpower trust which is said to have obtained valuable lands in the west during the last few months.

IS MISSING

AND THOUGHT TO BE DEAD

Horace W. Logan Lost From Glacier Point Hotel in Yosemite Since Last Friday.

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Yosemite, Cal., Aug. 9.—Horace W. Logan, of 2709 College avenue, Berkeley, Cal., has been missing since Friday afternoon and fears for his safety are expressed.

When last seen he was leaving Glacier Point hotel for Overhanging Rock, where it is feared he lost his balance and fell to a terrible death.

He notified the hotel management that he intended to take the ledge trail down the cliff to Camo Curry, from which place he expected to start the next day for Berkeley to resume his studies at the University of California.

Saturday afternoon the military authorities were notified of his absence and a company of cavalry made a rapid march to Glacier Point and spent yesterday and today in a fruitless search for the lost young man.

The case is strangely similar to that of young Shepherd, who was lost at Glacier Point last June and no trace of him was ever found.

Logan had only a light lunch with him when he disappeared and carried no blankets.

It is feared that he may have stumbled into some unknown chasm and been killed or hurt, or may have died from injuries or slow starvation.

A SAVORY MESS TO BE UNCOVERED

P. F. Morrow, a Real Estate Dealer, Gives Astonishing Recital of Fraud and Bribery.

MONEY FOR JUDGES

SAYS HE SAW MONEY PAID TO EMISSARIES WITH WHICH TO "FIX" SUPREME JUDGES—ONE OF LEGISLATIVE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE IMPLICATED.

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Seattle, Aug. 9.—P. F. Morrow, a real estate dealer, appeared as a witness before the legislative investigation committee this morning and gave an astonishing recital of alleged fraud and corruption, involving members of the supreme court, attorneys of high standing and business men. He testified that he had seen money paid to an emissary who was to "fix" a supreme court judge; that he saw a typewritten copy of an alleged decision before it had been rendered by the supreme court, embodying a precedent by which a later case could be easily "fixed."

Morrow produced original copies of papers showing "agreements" covering the division of certain property which was to be won by arrangement with the supreme court, and gave the names of other witnesses to these alleged transactions, besides making public the identity of the persons who were the alleged "go-betweens."

Among those alleged "go-betweens" mentioned was Mrs. Sarah L. Brown of Seattle, who was subpoenaed this afternoon to appear before the committee. Mrs. Brown, according to the testimony, is said to have been employed to influence E. B. Palmer, who is a member of the investigating committee. Palmer was to "see" Judge Root and use his influence with Root to procure a favorable decision in the claims of Mollie Wilson for the Ballard property included in the Sullivan estate holdings.

Morrow has been employed, he said, by Dr. J. Eugene Jordan to procure witnesses in fighting the claims of Mollie Wilson and the British interests to that portion of the $1,000,000 estate of the late John Sullivan lying in Ballard.

While working on this case, Morrow says he was a witness to many meetings in which people were delegated to "see" members of the supreme court, or to arrange through parties supposedly friendly with members of this court, that future decisions might be rendered giving Jordan and the others in the deal absolute title to the Ballard property.

THREE DROWNED BY LAUNCH CAPSIZING

[United Press Leased Wire.]
Tol do, O., Aug. 9.—Searchers being made today for the bodies of two men and a woman, who were drowned in the Maumee bay when a launch containing a dozen merry-makers was capsized 600 feet off the Casino on the beach.

The dead are Harry Dill, Frank Lahney and Mrs. Mabel Hudson.

Seven others of the party were rescued from the bay only after heroic efforts by persons on the shore who witnessed the accident.

GESANG VEREIN HAS PICNIC ON RIVER

About thirty members of the Salem Gesang Verein went to the island above the city yesterday and had a picnic in the afternoon. They went by gasoline launch and enjoyed a fine time singing the songs of the fatherland, and had refreshments in the afternoon. The next picnic will be on Sunday, August 29 in honor of the Tyrolean centenary of Liberty, 1809, when there will be a literary and musical program at the Savage grove east of the city.
