X-RAYS AND SMILES

Trade street will be the manufacturing and jobbing street of Salem.

Secretary Ballinger leaps into the limelight all over the United States today.

The waterpower trust is the last and gives promise of also being the first.

It looks as if the State street improvement were being up for some time to come.

German soldiers built a bridge across the river Spree recently in 40 minutes, which is the record for getting over a spree.

Rockefeller as a dairy maid will hardly move the spring poet to tuning up his lyre. Spring poets are not that kind of "lyers."

General Corbin's grand-daughter has married a Jap. Her Japanese name is now Mrs. Darhire Wooyeno, but it will soon be Dennis.

The Pasadena Gardeners' association calls Luther Burbank a faker, which is an infringement on the copyright of T. R. now in Africa.

According to the dispatches from Spokane today Secretary Ballinger is almost qualified for a position on the supreme bench of his state.

It sounds good to hear the engine's whistle on the north and west of the telly pulling construction trains. Soon they will be heard east and south.

When Rockefeller invades the market with butter made out of coaloil the jokesmiths can be certain it won't have any of Rocky's hair in it.

Millionaire Brady kicks because the sheriff will not let him have a telephone and other conveniences in his cell in the jail, but he will probably not jump his job for a year anyway.

If property owners are the only ones entitled to vote to bond a city should not the vote be confined to those only who will own property when the bonds fall due? In other words, should not the coming generation do the voting?

President Taft's remark about congress and the tariff bill should set every American voter thinking. He said: "The bill is not all it should be, but it is as much as we can get out of them at this time." "As much as the congressmen will permit the people to have" is a suggestive statement, as to the enslavement of the common people.

The ship subsidy grafters are publishing a monthly pamphlet under the name of "The American Flag" and are trying to graft the American people under the name of patriotism. The principal argument is to call the smaller papers "Daily Punks" to say the editors "don't like the flag" and all that kind of tommyrot.

Anyway, the young man should bear in mind that while some people think he can't vote unless he owns property and pays taxes, these same people are always willing to let him enlist and do the fighting to protect their property in case of riot or in time of war. They are not greedy and would not rob him of all his rights!

Weak women should read my "Book No. 4 for Women." It tells of Dr. Shoop's Night Cure. Tells how these soothing, healing, antiseptic suppositories bring quick and certain help. The book is free. Address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Capital drug-store.

When hot weather gets on the nerves it is more than likely to create a coolness.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Never Known to Fail.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy since it was first introduced to the public in 1872 and have never found one instance where a cure was not speedily effected by its use. I have been a commercial traveler for eighteen years and never start out on a trip without this, my faithful friend," says H. S. Nichols, of Oakland, Ind. Ter. For sale by all good druggists.

Washington Once Gave Up
To three doctors; was kept in bed for five weeks. Blood poison from a spider's bite caused large, deep sores to cover his leg. The doctors failed, then "Bucklen's Arnica Salve" completely cured me," writes John Washington, of Bosqueville, Tex. For eczema, boils, burns and piles it's supreme. 25c at J. C. Perry.

The Secret of Long Life.
A French scientist has discovered the secret of long life. His method deals with the blood. But long ago millions of Americans had proved Electric Bitters prolongs life and makes it worth living. It purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood, rebuilds wasted nerve cells, imparts life and tone to the entire system. It's a godsend to weak, sick and debilitated people. "Kidney trouble had blighted my life for months," writes M. W. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "but Electric Bitters cured me entirely." Only 50c at J. C. Perry.
