Cannery Is Busy—The cannery this week is working mostly on pears. A start will be made on apples and prunes in a small way. The cannery has work ahead for two months.

Try Crystals—For the breath. For sale at: Myer's barber shop, Eckerton's, Water's cigar store, Adolph's cigar store, Dick Madison's, The Spa, Willamette Hotel, The Council, Talkington's, The Court.

Extra Police—Chief of Police Gibson has selected eight extra men as officers on the force to work during fair week. The police report that there is a surprising absence of the criminal and common hobo class in the city this year, and this morning there were only two wanderers in the city jail answering to the charge of drunkenness. Last year, on this date, the city hall was housing 15 men, and not all charged with being intoxicated, either, shows that prospects for a quiet week in police circles are good.
