

"PAID IN FULL" AT THE GRAND

The interest that has been awakened by the announcement that Eugene Walter's celebrated play, "Paid in Full," will be at the Grand opera house Tuesday night, September 14, shows that the local public is appreciative of the foremost American drama of this generation. "Paid in Full" will be welcomed here with all the enthusiasm that is so notable a theatrical offering merits. Its coming has aroused unwonted attention, even among those who seldom go to the play, as well as on the part of those who look to the theater for a large share of their entertainment. "Paid in Full" is a play it is a duty to see. People owe it to themselves to keep abreast of the times in matters artistic and literary, and of these the drama is no small part. In seeing this play there is a happy combination of duty done and pleasure derived, for "Paid in Full" is entertaining to an exceptional degree. It is a live, vital, throbbing story of modern America, and though its scenes are in New York they might with equal fitness be laid in any American city. It is so real, so faithful a picture of the world about us, that it seems as if the author had picked up a home and its occupants from our neighborhood and put them down on the stage that the public might behold them. The realism of the play is startling. It all seems so natural that it is hard to feel it is a play. In producing this effect Mr. Walter has shown himself the most skilled dramatist of the day. His play is a masterpiece. No other in the history of the American stage has won the popularity or the admiration this one has earned, no other has been played with so great a number of companies or seen by so many persons. The cast the Wagonhals & Kemper Company is now sending here in "Paid in Full" comes with a New York reputation, where the play ran for two years.

The waterspouts in the vicinity of Dayville last week did very much damage. They washed every fence out that was in their track and washed drift onto the meadows. John Martin's house was nearly washed away Friday, the water running through the house and leaving about three inches of mud on the floor.—Eastern Oregon Exchange.

Why? From a small beginning the sale and use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Why? Because it has proved especially valuable for coughs and colds. For sale by all good druggists.

Why Druggists Recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

—Dr. Frank C. Harrahan, a prominent druggist of Portsmouth, Va., says: "For the past six years I have sold and recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is a great remedy and one of the best patent medicines on the market. I handle some others for the same purposes that pay me a larger profit, but this remedy is so sure to effect a cure, and my customers so certain to appreciate my recommending it to him, that I give it the preference." For sale by all good druggists.

A Narrow Escape.

Edgar N. Bayliss, a merchant of Robinsonville, Del., wrote: "About two years ago I was thin and sick, and coughed all the time, and if I did not have consumption it was near to it. I commenced using Foley's Honey and Tar, and it stopped my cough, and I am now entirely well, and have gained about 28 pounds, all due to the good results from taking Foley's Honey and Tar. J. C. Perry.

It's a pity when sick ones drag the stomach or stimulate the heart and kidney. That is all wrong. A weak stomach means weak stomach nerves always. And this is also true of the heart and kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping stomach, heart and kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the falling "inside nerves." Anyway test the Restorative 48 hours. It won't cure so soon as that, but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by Capital Drug Store.
