

GRIZZLY DROPPED IN TO SUPPER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Summit, Mont., Sept. 15.—Just as the Great Northern section men here were sitting down to their evening meal yesterday, a large silver tip grizzly bear dropped around informally and announced his presence by scratching at the front door of the house. Peter Mehas, section foreman, opened the door, and, before he could recover from his amazement, brain struck him on the left shoulder with a huge paw, and knocked him the length of the room. Instantly there was a general exodus of Greek laborers through the rear windows of the shack.

After putting the enemy to flight, the bear turned his attention to the supper table, and was calmly helping himself to a large plate of fried ham, when William Morris, a trapper, attracted by the frightened cries of the Greeks, appeared on the scene, and with a shot from his Winchester ended bruin's career. The bear weighed nearly 700 pounds.

Mehasa's wounds were dressed by a local physician, who found it necessary to take 63 stitches in three wounds caused by the bear's claws.

INSANITY MAY SAVE HIM FROM GALLOWS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Sept. 15.—The trial of James Cunningham, the laborer who is charged with having murdered Carolinas Bransch, a clerk in Gray Bros. construction company's offices, was interrupted today and the judge ordered that the self-confessed murderer be taken before the examining board this afternoon and examined for his sanity.

Cameron King, Jr., Cunningham's attorney, took the stand and swore that he believes his client to be insane, basing his belief on the alleged fact that Cunningham can give no coherent story of the shooting.

On King's testimony the order for Cunningham to appear before the board was given up.

STRIKERS ALL GO OUT AGAIN AT PITTSBURG

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Pittsburgh, Pa., Sept. 15.—Practically the entire 5000 striking employees of the Pressed Steel Car Company who returned to work last week, after tying up the plant for more than two months, quit in a body this afternoon.

The men claimed that, instead of the strike-breakers being discharged, as had been promised, many of them had been promoted to bosses. The employees are indignant, and a repetition of the bloody rioting during the first days of the strike is feared, unless the strike-breakers are discharged.

AN IRATE FEMALE HORSEWHIPS JUSTICE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Los Angeles, Sept. 15.—Reverend Justice of the Peace O. S. Bulkley made alleged disparaging remarks about her, Mrs. George Clarke, wife of an Antelope township rancher, publicly horsewhipped the official, according to information that reached this city today. Mrs. Clark, according to the story, purchased a small rawhide whip Saturday evening, and started on a hunt for the justice. She found him Sunday morning at the Lancaster railroad station, where half of the population of the village had gathered, preparatory to accompanying the Lancaster baseball team to a nearby town.

"You're just the man I'm looking for," calmly declared Mrs. Clark, when she discovered Bulkley in the crowd. Then, it is alleged, she belabored him about the head and body with the stinging whip, until she was seized by a deputy constable.

Bulkley has denied that he made any insulting remarks about the women.

SIXTEEN YEARS FOR ONE FISH

Avalon, Catalina Island, Cal., Sept. 15.—A local taxidermist is today mounting a 145-pound leaping tuna that cost A. W. Hooper of Boston $15,000 and the greater part of each summer for sixteen years.

Hooper is a veteran angler, and has fished in almost every popular water on the face of the globe. Sixteen years ago he conceived the ambition of adding a Catalina tuna to his trophies, and year after year he journeyed to Avalon and angled for one of the monster fish without success. His determination to land a tuna finally became an obsession.

Early in the present season, when he tuna run was first reported, Hooper came from Boston. As usual he was unsuccessful and started back.

At Chicago a message reached him from a California friend that the tuna had returned. Hooper doubled on his trail, and yesterday made another cast outside of Avalon bay. His long ambition was realized for after a struggle of nearly an hour he gaffed his fish. He will return to Boston when the carcass is prepared for shipment.

IMMENSE DEPOSIT OF NITRATES

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] New York, Sept. 15.—That San Bernardino, Cal., contains enormous nitre beds that promises to surpass the famous Chilean deposits was the announcement made today by William J. Dinger, a California millionaire, who has located claims aggregating 15,000 acres in the district. The deposit which Dinger asserted is fabulously rich is located near Johannesburg on the Mojave desert.

Dinger stated today that his claims were located after his interest had been enlisted by W. P. Lawton, a prospector. Mining experts were sent to Johannesburg district to investigate and their reports were so favorable that negotiations are said to have entered into with the Southern Pacific railroad for the construction of a branch line into the Lone Willow district, where the claims are located.

According to Dinger, samples of the deposits were analyzed by R. W. Hunt & Co. of San Francisco, who reported that they contained from 25 to 28 per cent pure nitre. He is said to have interested several New York financiers in the development of the claims.

Almost the entire world's supply of nitre at present comes from the Chilean deposits, which are controlled by the Rothschilds. The cost of the product in the South American country is about $40 a ton, to which is added $11 export duty. This duty is one of the largest sources of revenue of the Chilean government.

Do not fancy that you are indispensable. The management may be arranging to dispense with your services.

HALEY'S COMET IS COMING

Has Been Off on a Jaunt for 75 Years and Has Traveled Ten Billions of Miles

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Providence, R. I., Sept. 15.—Haley's comet has been seen again, after an absence of 75 years.

The comet has been observed by Prof. M. F. Wolf, of the observatory at Heidelberg, Germany, according to a telegram received by F. E. Seagrave, of this city.

Since its last appearance, the comet has traveled over ten billions of miles, its average speed is 4 1/2 miles per second.

Seagrave came into international prominence among astronomers of the globe because of the accurate manner by which he calculated the reappearance of the comet.

SANTA ROSA ALSO SURROUNDED BY FIRE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Santa Rosa, Cal., Sept. 15.—The men who have been fighting the forest fires in this region for the past week are now making some headway against the encroaching flames, owing to the abatement of the wind.

The fires are still burning fiercely, but with the great amount of back firing which has been done it is believed today that the situation is well in hand.

Should the wind rise again it is difficult to estimate the damage that would be done by spreading the fire into the forest again.

Thousands of acres of timber have been consumed and a number of ranch houses destroyed, and until each individual loss can be ascertained no estimate of the damage done can be made.

MAKES FIRST SPEECH ON HIS LONG TRIP

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Springfield, Mass., Sept. 15.—President Taft, journeying toward the West, stopped here today for five minutes.

In a brief speech delivered here the President praised Senator Crane and humorously praised Congressman Gillett, when he referred to the appropriation granted by the senate and house for the President's traveling expenses, by saying:

"I believe that even Congressman Gillett permitted himself to vote for it. You have got to make a case mighty plain if you ever want Gillett's vote. He is something of a Yankee when it comes to money matters."

"I tell you the real people who control the nation's pocketbook are the men in the lower house of congress."

DANGEROUS PATIENT ESCAPES FROM ASYLUM

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Spokane, Wash., Sept. 15.—After a sensational escape from the Medical Lake asylum for the insane, Fritz Buck, the insane son of the late Judge Norman Buck, is at large today, and a posse has started in pursuit. Young Buck is possessed of a murderous mania, and it is feared that he may commit murder unless he is captured soon.

Buck escaped from the asylum last night by prying apart the bars of his cell and making a rope of his bed sheets. It appears that the youth was possessed of sufficient strength to rend the steel bars. The cell was on the second floor of the asylum, and Buck had little difficulty in reaching the ground.

Buck is laboring under a delusion that members of the Masonic order are seeking his life. He was committed for attempting to kill John H. Shaw, a Masonic official at Spokane.
