

"NESKOWIN PARK" The Old Salem Camp Grounds AT SLAB CREEK

TILLAMOOK COUNTY, OREGON

IS NOW PLATTED AND OFFERED FOR SALE TO THE BUYING PUBLIC--ALL LOTS ARE 50x100 FEET

NESKOWIN PARK," as the owners now call it, has been a favorite camp ground for the people of the Willamette Valley for the past 25 years (a quarter of a century). The natural advantages of this place as a Summer Resort are well known to the people generally in and around Salem, and it is to them that we are giving THE FIRST OPPORTUNITY TO PURCHASE LOTS at this beach.

The natural beauty of the place, the fairly good roads, which will be further improved in the near future, will make "NESKOWIN" the closest and most accessible resort on the Coast of Oregon for the people of the Valley from Eugene to Portland. At the present time Tillamook County is the only place on the Pacific Coast of the State of Oregon that is easy of access by team or automobile, and "NESKOWIN" is the only beach resort that you can get to with ease and comfort. Conditions for the convenience of summer visitors have improved greatly and the owners are offering a sale contract which assures purchasers many additional improvements. The present hotel will be greatly enlarged at once, means taken to assure visitors with complete provisions and supplies of all kinds at Willamette Valley prices.

Natures Own Work Evident

"NESKOWIN PARK" is truly the handiwork of the Creator, and well has this work been done to make of it the most attractive spot upon the whole Oregon Coast. The beautiful trees, the many cool, shady nooks and quiet retreats, sparkling mountain water, the foam-tossed spray and roar of "Old Ocean," fishing, hunting, bathing, etc., combine to make this an ideal resort. And its accessibility—why, bless you, it is the nearest resort to the people of the Willamette Valley, by far, than any other beach.

The fact that "SLAB CREEK" is not an experiment, but an established resort, and the comparatively low price at which lots are offered give purchasers a reasonable certainty of enhancements in value, combine to assure you that this resort will greatly increase in popularity and that its present summer population of from 200 to 500 persons will multiply in numbers, and this as soon as its accessibility and natural beauties become better known.

PRICES ON LOTS NOW RANGE FROM $150 TO $300, according to location.

THE REPRESENTATIVES AND AGENTS OF THE COMPANY ARE IN SALEM DURING FAIR WEEK.

TO REVIEW PARADE OF LIVE STOCK

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.]
Seattle, Wash., Sept. 15.—President William H. Taft will review the big parade of livestock in the exposition stadium, and will deliver an address to the livestock men of the Northwest October 1. This information was received in a telegram today from the President's secretary to J. W. Clise, director of the livestock department of the exposition. Mr. Taft's address will be delivered in the forenoon. In the afternoon he will go to Tacoma.

The exposition has appropriated $100,000 for the livestock show, and the interest shown by stockmen through the Middle and Western states has made it necessary to increase greatly the number of exhibition stalls.

The Philippine constabulary band, which played at the inauguration of President Taft, and which will lead the parade at the exposition when the President makes his first visit October 30, arrived today by special train. The band is a military organization consisting of 88 members, who have been trained specially as a symphony orchestra.

When President Taft was governor of the Philippines he became greatly interested in the clever musicians, and the handsman have a high regard for "Tio Guillermo," which in Filipino lingo means "Uncle Bill."

The President's Cousin.

Robert Taft, the founder of the Taft family in America, settled at Braintree, Mass., in 1869, and followed the trade of housewright. From his son Robert the president is descended, and from his son Peter, Jonathan Taft, the president's cousin is descended.

Jonathan Taft made as great a name in the professional world as the president has politically. As a noted physician and surgeon of Cincinnati he was one of the founders of the first dental schools in the United States. After the founding of the Ohio College of Dentistry in 1854, Dr. Taft held the chair of presdent for 24 years. For 15 years of Dr. Taft's incumbency he visited and assisted in founding more than 15 colleges annually, and during most of the period also held the chair of oral surgery in the University of Michigan. There is probably no livelier gratitude manifested than that of persons who have been relieved of tooth troubles. Dr. Taft's favorite text was "Prevention by care of the teeth and promoting bodily health by keeping the body's gateway clean and pure." His brilliancy made him the world's greatest benefactor in this cause, and his high medical standing gave his opinions the greatest weight. In 1867 he wrote:

Cincinnati, May 24th, 1867.

Dear Sir: I have used Dr. Lyon's Perfect Tooth Powder prepared by you for some time, and am very much pleased with it and its formula. I regard it as a most efficient and valuable preparation for cleansing and preserving the teeth. It is more pleasant to use than any preparation I have seen.

JONATHAN TAFT, M. D. D. D. S.

PERFECTLY MOULDED FIGURES Another Medical Discovery.

To get out of condition is detrimental to beauty of form as well as health. There is a certain flabbiness which robs a good figure of charm and grace. Those who are beginning to grow fat rapidly are never in the pink of condition.

But here medical science has slipped in with a very wonderful remedy—one which not only restores a perfectly moulded form but renews health and strength. We give the receipt in full for the benefit of our stoutish friends: ½ oz. Marmosin, ½ oz. Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3 ½ oz. Peppermint Water. Any druggist will make up this prescription or supply you with the ingredients, which you can mix yourself. The dose is one teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

The great virtue of this harmless remedy is that whilst the excess fat is being expelled, the person under treatment has a healthy appetite and does not need to study dietetics or go in for tiresome exercises. The whole system is "refreshed" and reinvigorated, the blood renewed and muscular development restored.

A GENTLEMAN FROM MISSISSIPPI FRIDAY

"One solid year in New York" is a familiar slogan of theatrical managers who send a play on the road. As a rule it indicates anything from a run of one week in New York city, in some semi-urban playhouse to a run of at the most six months, in the height of the season. This is not to say that no play runs a whole year in New York, for the last six or seven seasons have developed a number of 12-month hits. "The Merry Widow" was one; "The Man of the Hour" was another; "A Gentleman from Mississippi," which is to be acted here next Friday night in the Grand opera house, is a third. As to the last named, it is far from being through in New York even yet. From September to mid-June in the Bijou theatre and all summer in the beautiful Aerial Gardens on top of the New Amsterdam theatre, did not give New York theatre goers enough of this delightful comedy, so that the number of performances it eventually will have had in New York is not to be computed now.

This comedy of Washington life is the joint work of Harrison Rhodes, the well known novelist, and Thomas A. Wise, the distinguished American actor. As a production it is the venture of William A. Brady and Joseph R. Grismer, two producers whose past offerings to the public of this community have been of a kind to inspire popular assurance of the quality of anything they may ever offer here.

It is a pretty and merry story, prettily and merrily told, of the adventures in Washington, D. C., of a newly elected United States senator. His ignorance of the game, social and official, as it is played at the capital made him a shining mark for the wiles of the unscrupulous, and he owes his eventual extrication from the toils in which his own veridicality has entangled him to the shrewdness and alert wit of a young newspaper reporter who is in love with one of the senator's two beautiful daughters. Messrs. Brady and Grismer send to this city a company of high class players for the interpretation of "A Gentleman from Mississippi." Every man and woman of the cast has been through the New York city run of the brilliant comedy.
