

THE HOP PICKING IS OVER

Prices Range Around 22 Cents, But Market Is Firm and Quiet—Damage by Rain Is Light

The hop picking season is now nearing an end, there remaining but three yards to finish. The Lively yard of 180 acres and the monster yard belonging to Horst brothers in Polk county will send their pickers home probably at the end of the week, while another smaller yard in Polk county belonging to A. Simpson will be finished within a few days. An AI crop will be harvested from these fields this season, providing the picking can be rushed sufficiently to save the hops from spoiling after the hard rain fall of yesterday. It is doubtful, however, if the unfinished crop can be harvested in time, in which case there will be considerable loss.

The market is dormant at present in this city, very few deals of any importance being made between growers and merchants. A little "inside" information has been given out regarding a recent purchase made by Julius Pincus, the well known Salem hop merchant. Mr. Pincus contracted for 15,000 pounds of hops at 10c and upon delivery of this amount the grower over-ran his contract amount 20 pounds, for which the merchant gave him 25c a pound. Whether this would be "boosting the market" in for the hop men themselves to judge, but in any event, Mr. Pincus showed a willingness to have everything in sight.

The opinion of several that pickers would be very scarce this year did not materialize. In speaking to several Salem hop men, familiar with the hop harvesting, both in Marion and Polk counties, it is the general report that there were enough pickers, and all the yards were amply filled with hands in time to care for the crop. Next Saturday will see the finish of the picking.

At the present time the hop market is holding up strongly at 22 cents, and it is the consensus of opinion among the dealers that this price will soar still higher before many more weeks.

THOUSANDS GATHER

them away toward the headquarters of the Bushwick club. Dr. Cook came into his own the moment he boarded the Grand Republic. He was nearly mobbed by his well-wishers. An enthusiastic friend of the physician threw a wreath of white roses about his neck, which remained there until the vessel docked at the Brooklyn pier. Here the crowd that had gathered was even more enthusiastic than that which had welcomed the explorer on the Grand Republic.

A souvenir hunter bore off Mrs. Cook's veil and knocked her hat from her head. The hat was trampled to shreds. The explorer's derby met with the same fate. Shortly after the vessel had left Quarantine Dr. Cook mounted the hurricane deck and delivered a brief address in which he thanked the people for the welcome they had extended to him. The welcome, he said, showed him just where he stood with the people in his controversy with Commander Peary.

After his speech the explorer remained in the cabin surrounded by his wife and children and a few intimate friends. As the Grand Republic was steaming up the harbor it passed three French warships. The sailors of the vessels mounted the rails and gave three cheers for the explorer. This seemed to immensely please Dr. Cook and he went on the deck and bowed and smiled to the Frenchmen.

GOVERNOR JOHNSON FUNERAL THURSDAY

(UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.) St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 21.—Lieutenant-Governor Eberhart, who will fill out the unexpired term of the late Governor Johnson, is a native of Sweden. His name is Adolph Olsen, but as there were so many people of the same name in Minnesota, when he married Miss Eberhart the lieutenant-governor took her name.

A special train bearing the remains of Governor Johnson left Rochester at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and is due to arrive in St. Paul at 5 p. m. The body is being escorted by a detachment of state militia. Chaplain Lawler, of the late governor's staff, will conduct the funeral services, which will be held tomorrow.

The remains will be buried in St. Peter's cemetery Thursday afternoon.

CHILDREN DIE FROM UNKNOWN POISON

(UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.) Bakerfield, Cal., Sept. 21.—As the result of the effects of a mysterious poison, 6-year-old Viola Moore and her baby brother, children of E. H. Moore, a rancher of Grizzly Gulch, are dead today, and an elder brother is in a precarious condition. The three children were taken severely ill last evening. A physician, who was called, was baffled by their condition. The symptoms they exhibited, he stated, were not those of ptomaine, but apparently of some deadlier agent. No other members of the family were affected, and can throw no light on the mystery. Coroner McGinn left today for Grizzly Gulch to take charge of the dead bodies and investigate the case.

wireless station at Pensacola, but up to late this afternoon no reply has been received.

It is believed here from reports already received that there has been a heavy property damage sustained at Pensacola and the surrounding country. Reports from the coast line indicate that there has been a number of fatalities among the fishermen, and it is estimated that probably half a hundred more than the 20 already known to be dead have been drowned during the storm.

Vicksburg, Sept. 21.—Late this afternoon a second dispatch was received at Memphis, which contained the information that Natchez also had suffered heavily by a fire which had broken out following the storm. A number of trains running between New Orleans and Vicksburg, which were due at their destination early this morning, have not been heard from, and no trace of them can be found. The fate of the passengers is unknown.

Late this afternoon Atlanta received a report from New Orleans, which stated that scores of buildings had been demolished in the storm vicinity.

Although it was said at 10 o'clock this morning that the levees were still standing, it is feared that they later gave way to the force of the storm.

where they had sought refuge, and scalded to death by the mob. A Jewish rabbi was murdered and his synagogue wrecked. Hundreds of homes were ransacked, and the furniture carried into the streets and burned.

The leaders of the uprising gave brandy to the mob, and the horrors that they inflicted upon the Jewish people beggars description.

After remaining passive for three days, the authorities this afternoon called out the troops.

THE BARR JEWELRY COMPANY'S STORE

Appreciating the demands of the growing trade enjoyed by this firm for so many years, the John G. Barr Jewelry Company, incorporated, has moved into larger quarters in the Catlin & Linn block, and is receiving many compliments on its fine quarters. The new store is 25x40 feet for the main room, with pale blue walls and a marble white steel ceiling. There is a repair shop at the rear, an optical room overhead, and a workshop connected with a passage way 24x15 in the building further back. The whole stock of valuables is safeguarded by three large safes. The whole equipment is modern and constitutes a perfect gem of a jewelry store. The large salesroom is a perfect glitter of watches, jewelry and articles of cut glass, with over 50 feet of plate glass show window, and illuminated at night with Tungsten drop lights as brilliant as by day. The Christmas stock of cut glass is already in, and sales during the state fair were made right along to Portland visitors, who praised the Salem store as having a stock even superior to anything yet received in that city, and at prices much more reasonable. The new artist in the watch department is Raymond Hartman, one of the highest-priced men in his line, from Ohio, who will be joined in a few days by his father, who is also one of the best watch and jewelry repair men in that state.

Struck a Snag—

Last Sunday afternoon Ray Larson, a young Salem machinist, accompanied by a party of friends, took a trip to Independence in the speedy gasoline launch belonging to Ray Larson's brother, Percy. The party made the trip up the river without accident, and were returning and had reached a point midway down the Eola rapids, when the boat, which was traveling at a fast rate, struck a snag lying a few inches under the water. The launch pitched up in the air and turned completely over when it struck the water again, throwing the occupants in every direction. Ray and another companion clung to the boat, but Chester Heckman, a youngster of 16 years, made for the Polk county shore, and reached it safely. The two boys hanging to the boat, finally anchored it a few rods down the river, and sent word to the city for help. Another launch left and towed the party home. The accident resulted very fortunately, owing to the speed the boat was traveling at being so great that the boys had no chance to grasp life preservers when it struck, and the rapids are swift and very dangerous to even a good swimmer.

ROWLAND CHANGES THE LIST

His Unexpected Resignation Causes Change in Appointments and Selleck Remains Here

Cottage Grove, Sept. 21.—In all the history of Methodist conferences it is doubtful if there ever was a greater shake-up in the list of pastoral assignments at the last minute than occurred here yesterday morning.

Bishop Smith had virtually completed his work, when Rev. B. F. Rowland, for four years superintendent of Salem district, arose, without any previous warning, and asked to be released from his position and the work of the ministry for one year. He gave business as his reason. His request was granted, and, as the northbound train was nearly due, there was scarcely any time in which to work out a system of adjustment to fit all the problems that arose.

Bishop Smith, therefore, retired with his cabinet a few minutes, and then returned and read the assignments. Because of the sudden change brought about by the resignation of Dr. Rowland, Dr. Clarence True Wilson was left at Centenary church, Portland, and Dr. W. H. Selleck was left at First church, Salem. Rev. James Moore, who has been serving at Woodburn, was promoted to the position of superintendent of Salem district, taking Dr. Rowland's place. Owing to the unexpected shift it was necessary for the bishop to make a few other changes.

Bishop Smith did not have time in which to speak to the ministers before reading the assignments, owing to the fact that he had to adjust the list to some extent after Dr. Rowland resigned. The preachers, as a rule, were satisfied with their appointments, although some were not so well pleased.

The following changes were made by the bishop in the list of appointments as published yesterday: Portland District—Centenary church, Dr. Clarence True Wilson; Clinton Kelly Memorial, to be supplied.

Eugene District—Brooks, M. M. Reid; Hillsboro, F. V. Fisher; Hope Chapel, F. M. Jasper; Lincoln, G. G. Oliver; Newberg, W. C. Reuter; North Yamhill, J. W. Price; Pleasant Home, R. J. Bishop; Salem, First church, W. H. Selleck; Silverton, S. H. Dewart; Tualatin and Oswego, J. W. Exon.

Klamath District—Canyonville, G. A. Gray; Jacksonville, T. S. Frey; Ten Mile, B. A. Bristol; Wilderville, F. S. Clemon. Coburg and Harrisburg, G. L. Burbank; Coquille, E. C. Holladay; Corvallis, S. M. Nickle; Crawfordville, B. B. Paul; Dallas, T. L. Jones; Elkton, E. E. Lockett; Gardiner, Sanford Snyder; Halsey, W. M. Erskine; Monroe, Richard Hocking; Shedd, I. V. Parker. Bishop Smith appointed C. T. McPherson to be city missionary in Portland, in addition to the pastorate at Epworth church. This is a significant action. This position is a new one in Portland and its duties are many. The building of new churches and strengthening the work of the church in general in that city falls to the responsibility of the missionary, under the supervision of a board of officers, consisting of the presiding bishop, district superintendent and others.

A Card.

The undersigned wish to thank the members of the Grand Army and friends and neighbors for their great kindness on the occasion of the death and burial of her husband, the late O. B. Veley.

MRS. N. E. VELEY, MRS. GUNN.

A Burglar in Town

His name is "bad cough." He does not care for gold or silver but he will steal your health away. If he appears in your house arrest him at once with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It may mean consumption if you don't. A cure for all coughs, colds and chest troubles. Price 25c. 50c and $1.00 per bottle.

ITCH STOPPED—SKIN COOLED

Itching skin diseases afflict some people as soon as the hot weather comes. There seems to be no preventive; but when the eruption does break out, it is a very simple matter to stop that itch, and to stop it instantly.

Just a few drops of Oil of Wintergreen, properly compounded, washed over the eruption will soothe and smooth the skin instantly, giving that cooling and refreshing sensation.

Try a few drops of this D. D. D. Compound and your itch will be relieved at once, not in half an hour, or ten minutes, but in five seconds. Call at our store and we will tell more about this D. D. D. Compound. J. Perry.

Many sufferers from nasal catarrh say they get splendid results by using an atomizer. For their benefit we prepare Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Except that it is liquid it is in all respects like the healing, helpful, pain-allaying Cream Balm that the public has been familiar with for years. No cocaine nor other dangerous drug in it. The soothing spray is a remedy that relieves at once. All druggists, 75c, including spraying tube, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren street, New York.

TAFT HAS STIRRED UP TROUBLE

Labor Unions in San Francisco Sore, and Pinchot's Friends Cold—Speech Boosts Senator Cummins.

(UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.) Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 21.—President Taft's tariff speech has the unexpected result of causing Senator Cummins' friends to groom him for the Republican presidential nomination 1912.

The Iowa progressive Republicans expect to make a bitter fight for the senator, and hope to carry the entire Middle West for him.

Senator Cummins has refused to make direct reference to President Taft's Winona speech, but stated that he expected to continue the fight for tariff revision.

"A fight must be borne by the people," he stated, "against the robbery by tariff framers in favor of the corporations."

Labor Sore at President.

San Francisco, Sept. 21.—Andrew Gallagher, vice-president of the International Photo Engravers' Union, secretary of the San Francisco Labor Council, and one of the leaders in the labor movements of the Pacific coast, today declined to accept an invitation from Mayor Talbot to attend the banquet to be given President Taft upon his arrival here, because of Taft's utterances regarding labor unions in his Des Moines speech.

In replying to Mayor Taylor's invitation, Gallagher said: "Until President Taft changes his attitude toward the problems with which the organizations of labor have to deal, I shall not feel it consistent with my principles to accept any invitation to meet him at a public banquet, where he is received as the head of the national government."

"President Taft has not investigated the wrongs imposed upon labor as he should, before assuming to speak with authority on how to remedy conditions. He does not know, and he certainly cannot learn the needs of labor until he tries to look sympathetically at our wants. As a labor official and a unionist, I do not care to meet him officially, in view of his record on labor matters."

Expects a Frost Tonight.

Goodland, Kas., Sept. 21.—President Taft today is racing across the prairies to Denver where tonight he will speak at the Denver Auditorium, the place where William Jennings Bryan was nominated as the presidential candidate for the Democratic party in 1908.

When the President arises to address the vast concourse of people he will face an audience made up largely of friends of Gifford Pinchot. As a result his reception will be chilly, as it is expected that he will support the actions of Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, who Taft exonerated of charges brought against him by friends of Pinchot, at the Spokane conservation congress.

Taft's fighting blood is up, and he is determined to express and explain his views, whether the westerners like it or not.

Why?

From a small beginning the sale and use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has extended to all parts of the United States and to many foreign countries. Why? Because it has proved especially valuable for coughs and colds. For sale by all good druggists.

Proposals for Heating Plant for Oregon State Insane Asylum—Notice to Bidders.

The Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum will open sealed bids for the construction and installation of a heating plant at the above named institution on Monday, November 1, 1909, at 2 p. m., at the executive chambers, State Capitol, Salem, Oregon. Plans and specifications for same may be seen at the offices of Josiah C. Moore & Company, Beck building, Portland, Oregon; at the Builders' Exchange, Seattle, Washington; at the Builders' Exchange, San Francisco, California; at the Builders' Exchange, Chicago, Illinois; at the office of the superintendent of the Oregon State Insane Asylum, Salem, Oregon, and at the executive chambers, State Capitol, Salem, Oregon.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check in a sum not less than 10 per cent of the total amount of the bid, and the same should be sealed and addressed to the undersigned, and marked on the outside of the envelope "Bids for Heating Plant, Oregon State Insane Asylum." The Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

C. N. McARTHUR, Clerk of the Board, Salem, Oregon, September 18, 1909. 9-21-11-1

Many people delude themselves by saying: "It will wear away," when they notice symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble. This is a mistake. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy, and stop the drain on the vitality. It cures backache, rheumatism, kidney and bladder trouble, and makes every trace of pain, weakness and urinary trouble disappear. J. C. Perry.

It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the heart and kidney. That is all wrong. A weak stomach, means weak stomach nerves always. And this is also true of the heart and kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr. Hoop's Restorative is promptly helping stomach, heart and kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the falling "inside nerves." Anyway (test the Restorative 48 hours. It won't cure so soon as that, but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by Capital Drug Store.
