

ATTEMPTED TO KILL THE PRESIDENT

Arthur Wright Carrying a Camera Causes Suspicion by His Efforts to Get Near President.

HEAVILY ARMED

WHEN ARRESTED BY A GUAPD A 38-CALIBER SMITH & WESSON REVOLVER AND A POCKETFUL OF CARTRIDGES WERE TAKEN AWAY FROM HIM.

Portland, Oct. 2 .--- Carrying a revolver of heavy caliber and a pocketful of cartridges, Arthur Wright of Lowell Center, Mass., attempted to thrust his way toward President Taft today while the chief executive was passing in a nautomobile, but was disarmed and arrested before he could reach the president.

The affair occurred at the Sixth and Morrison-street corner of the Portland hotel, which is the temporary Taft hostelry.

The parade, in honor of the presi-dent, had reached the corner when a secret service man, accompanied the president saw Wright thrusting ris way through the crowd. Calling to several policemen, the president's guard sprang toward the man.

also carried a score of cartridges in his coat pocket and a camera in his hand. Pinned on his vosi was a spe-FIGH' cial policeman's star, bearing the name "Lowell Center, Mass." At the police station Wright was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and will be held pending an investigation of his character. Police Captain Bailey, who took part in the arrest, said that the suspicious actions of Wright attracted the attention of the president's body guard. Not only was his menner of en-deavoring to reach the forefront of the crowd a cause of alarm, but the captain declared that Wright's nati-portland Politicians at Swords Object to Sacrifice of Lives and tention.

Wright refused to make any state-ment to the police regarding his ac-tion except to say that he wanted to get near the president to take a picture.

The police, however, in view of the circumstances, place little cicdence in this assection and believe that Wright was using the camera as an excuse to get as close to Fresh-dent Taft as possible.

A TRIBUTE TO WORTH OF MARTHA E. WHELAN

A friend, writing of the death of Martha E. Whalen, pays her the following simple but beautiful tribute: Martha E. Whalen was well and most favorably known both in her home community and in Salem, where she passed several years of her life. Though stricken in the very life. bloom of young womanhood, and well knowing that the death angel had marked her for his own, still she hore her affliction through many long months of suffering with a meek ness and fortitude that showed her to be at peace with her God.

We loved her in life, we mourn her most untimely death. We know that her spirit is with its Maker. She leaves her mother, Mrs. M. Whelan, of Salem; two sisters, Mrs.
