GERMAN AMERICANS CELEBRATE

Three Hundred Years Ago the First German Colonists Settled the State of Pennsylvania.

HAVE WORKED SINCE

SETTLING THE COUNTRY FROM ATLANTIC TO THE PACIFIC. ALWAYS PRODUCERS, ALWAYS PATRIOTIC, THE RACE HAS GREATLY IMPRESSED WORLD.

More than 2000 German-Americans attended the celebration held last night in Arion hall, Portland, to commemorate the landing of the first German pilgrims on the shores of this country. The seats of the spacious hall were filled, and standing room was at a premium. Hundreds of the members of the various societies of other Oregon cities attended. Salem sent a delegation of about 60, who left this city on a special car attached to the 3:15 afternoon Southern Pacific train, and perhaps as many more who went down on the Electric.

The evening's program was a very interesting and entertaining one. The songs by the various male choruses, from Portland, Salem and other places, took the audience by storm, really deserving the splendid applause they received. Otto Kleemann, president of the Oregon German societies, presided, and after a short introductory address, setting forth the object of the gathering, introduced Mayor Simon. Mayor Simon is a German by birth, but delivered his address of welcome in English. He referred to the staunch, conservative characteristics of the German citizen in high terms, and in the name of the city of Portland bid all a hearty welcome. Following this the Salem Singing society sang "Das Deutsche Lied," which was so roundly applauded that they had to appear again and sing an encore "Das ist der Tag des Herrn."

Prof. F. G. Schmidt then gave a very scholarly address, setting forth the historical fact relative to the part taken by the early Germans in the building up of this country. Prof. Schmidt is a member of the faculty of the State University at Eugene. His address was listened to with wrapped attention throughout, and received the heartiest of applause. The Turner Singing society, of Portland, then sang two German folks songs.

The most pleasing English address of the evening was that of Dr. Andrew C. Smith. He vividly portrayed the part taken by the German-American in all of the principal events that have made this country great during the past, both in times of war and in times of peace. He showed that 180,000 German born American citizens enlisted in the

BILLY BOY PUTS UP A HARD FIGHT

Shoots Six Horses From Under the Seven Men Who Are in the Posse Pursuing Him.

IS BADLY WOUNDED

DEPUTY SHERIFF ROCHE IS ALSO BADLY WOUNDED—INDIAN IS SURROUNDED AND HAS NO CHANCE OF ESCAPE—HE WILL PROBABLY DIE FIGHTING.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Bernardino, Cal., Oct. 8.—After a desperate fight in which Billy Boy, the Indian murderer, was wounded and Deputy Sheriff Charles Roche was shot and seriously wounded, Billy Boy killed six of the seven horses of the posse which is pursuing him. The Indian has been surrounded in Wells canyon, 55 miles northeast of Whitewater. In response to a telegram from Sheriff Ralphs, sent to Whitewater by messenger, Dr. W. H. Mills left there in a high power automobile to attend the wounded officers.

THE WORLDS CHAMPION BALL GAME

Series to Settle Championship Begins in Pittsburg This Afternoon in Forbes Ball Field.

200,000 WAGERED

EVERY SEAT AND EVERY BIT OF STANDING ROOM SOLD, AND 50,000 TURNED AWAY FROM THE GATES UNABLE TO OBTAIN ADMISSION.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Pittsburg, Oct. 8.—The city is thronged today with thousands of baseball fans who have been unable to obtain tickets for today's game between the Pittsburg Pirates and the Detroit Tigers—the first game of the world's championship series. It is estimated that 50,000 persons have been unable to gain admission to the grounds. Speculators have been able to obtain only a few tickets this year, but those they have secured have been sold at prices ranging from $15 to $20 a piece.

Mullin, the veteran twirler of the Tigers' staff, was selected by Manager Hughey Jennings to open the series. Earlier in the day it was announced that Adams or Willis would be the Pirates' boxman.

The weather could not be more ideal. A gentle wind swept Forbes Field and the recent spell of cold weather and fog was dissipated by bright sunshine.

Greatest Game on Earth.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 8.—The champion Detroit Tigers arrived here yesterday, and are in fine fettle for the first game of the world's championship series with the Pittsburg Pirates, which starts today at Forbes Field.

The national commission is also here, and will inspect the field this afternoon.

The advance sale of seats has been the greatest in the history of the national game. Eighteen thousand reserved seats have been sold for each of the games scheduled for today and tomorrow.

When the umpires call the teams to action it is predicted that no less than 35,000 spectators will be in attendance at each game.

Betting is brisk on the outcome of the series, the Pirates being 2 to 1 favorites. At least $200,000 has been wagered at these odds.

Manager Clark will either send in Camnitz or Adams to twirl the opening game for the Buccaneers, while Manager Jennings will send in either Mullin or Donovan to the firing line.

The probable line up in the opening game follows:

Pittsburg—Byrne 3b, Leach cf, Clark lf, Wagner ss, Miller 2b, Abstein 1b, Wilson rf, Gibson c, Camnitz or Adams p.

Detroit—Jones lf, Bush ss, Crawford cf, Cobb rf, Delahanty 2b, Moriarty 3b, T. Jones 1b, Schmidt c, Mullin or Donovan p.

Baseball fans are pouring into Pittsburg from all the principal cities in the east and middle west, and the hotels are already crowded to their utmost capacity.

A big delegation from the Michigan metropolis also arrived in this city yesterday to root for their players.

After a short rest the Detroit players went out to Forbes Field yesterday, where they indulged in secret practice for three hours.

WILL APPEAL FINCH CASE.

Attorney John Jeffries will appeal Finch's case to the United States supreme court, is the announcement he made today.

WHEAT PRICES GO UP A TRIFLE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Chicago, Oct. 8.—Today's government report on wheat caused considerable short covering here and resulted in a closing $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ c a bushel higher than yesterday.

Report shows a crop of spring wheat totaling 291,148,000 bushels, compared with 244,331,000 bushels, compared with 420,218,000 bushels in 1908. Total crop of wheat in the United States, 714,768,000 bushels, compared with 664,602,000 bushels.

Quality of wheat crop as a whole is given at 90.4 per cent, this being considered very good.

Spring wheat yield averaged 15.9 bushels per acre, while the quality was 90.5 per cent, a fraction better than the winter yield.

Wheat had a good start here at the opening of today's market and advances were shown in the three options. December went to 101 $\frac{1}{4}$ c, compared with 101 $\frac{1}{2}$ c; May, 103 $\frac{1}{4}$ c, compared with 103 $\frac{1}{2}$ c; and July, 98 $\frac{1}{4}$ c, compared with 98 $\frac{1}{2}$ c. December was the strong feature of the day, short covering in this delivery being more active than in others.

Foreign markets were rather slow. Liverpool opened unchanged from yesterday and closed unchanged to $\frac{1}{4}$ d lower.

MAT ARTISTS ARE UNDER ARREST

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Seattle, Oct. 8.—Joe Carroll, well known as a manager of wrestlers, and Bert Warner, a Minneapolis mat artist, are under arrest at the county jail here today on charges of using the United States mails for fraudulent purposes. The men are said to be under indictment by a federal grand jury at Council Bluffs, Iowa, and they are alleged to be connected with the Maybray gang, the leaders of which are already under arrest in the east.

Sheriff Hodge arrested Carroll and Warner, together with a man who gives his name as Harris, and who is said also to be wanted in Iowa, in a cabin near Taunton, in Eastern Washington, where they had gone on a shooting trip. Warrants were placed in the sheriff's hands Saturday and the arrests were made late Monday night.

Carroll had been manager of Dr. B. F. Roller, the local wrestler, for a number of years.

DR. COOK AND HIS HIGH FLYER

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] St. Louis, Oct. 8.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook, the explorer, and Glenn Curtiss, the aviator, rode together in a carriage at the head of a parade in the Centennial celebration here today. The explorer and the aeroplanist were introduced to each other before the parade started.

Dr. Cook, who came here from Kansas City, where he lectured last night, was escorted to his hotel by a battalion of mounted police. Later he was taken to the starting point of the parade in a carriage drawn by four black horses. There Curtiss entered the carriage.

Mounted police surrounded the distinguished men during the parade, which was three hours in passing a given point.

AUTO GETS IN ITS DEADLY WORK

Kenosha, Wis., Oct. 8.—Harvey Gibson, an autoist, was killed; Edward Collier, once famous automobile racer, probably fatally injured; Mrs. Arthur Gardner, wife of a well-known bicycle rider, was seriously hurt today in an automobile accident. The party was going to Antioch to visit Mrs. Gardner's relatives when the automobile turned turtle. The accident occurred on a lonely road 17 miles from here, and it was some time before assistance was rendered.

TAFT EATS CHICKEN OFF THE COB

Enjoys Every Minute of His Visit to Yosemite Away From the "Madding Crowds."

AND ACTS AS UMPIRE

WHILE THE "GARNISHMENTS" PLAY WITH FINE CONES—JOHN MUIR FORGETS HIS OTHER STUNTS WHILE HE STUFFS THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

(By R. H. Hazard, staff correspondent United Press, with President Taft.)

Wawona, Yosemite Valley, Cal., Oct. 8.—President Taft was up before 6 o'clock today and left the hotel three-quarters of an hour later, bound for the Mariposa grove of big trees.

His day's itinerary will bring him back to Wawona for luncheon and in the afternoon will take him up to Glacier Point, where he will have dinner.

The president will stay over night at the Sentinel hotel and on Saturday will start back to civilization via El Portal and Merced.

While in the home-like little hotels of the Yosemite President Taft eats his meals in the public dining rooms and in the evening spends two or three hours chatting with his friends in the comfortable warmth of big log fires.

At both El Portal and Wawona he made the hearts of proprietors glad by signing his name upon the hotel registers. Since reaching the Yosemite, the cold President Taft contracted in Seattle has disappeared entirely and, thanks to a rest, he will be in fine voice when he starts southward Saturday.

Taft Likes Chicken.

Wawona, Yosemite Valley, Cal., Oct. 8.—"Well, this beats speech-making. I wish I could have a month of this." As he spoke, President Taft reached for another leg of chicken and deftly removed the meat with the means provided by nature. Luncheon was being served in the open at Grouse Creek a few feet away.

The coffee-pot was boiling on an improvised cookstove and the tired horses that had brought the party by stage from El Portal were munching their oats near a water trough a few hundred feet down the road.

Gov. Gillette, Congressman Needham, Englebright and McKinley, with old John Muir, the famous naturalist, were seated at a board table with the president.

The way all pitched into the chicken, potato salad, bread and butter, pie and cake was a caution. After luncheon the president acted as umpire while the more active members of the party played a baseball game, using a pine sapling for a bat and cones for balls. Those not playing themselves hunted new cones and Umpire Taft, as well as the spectators, were kept busy dodging flying pieces of pine cones.

President Taft and the Californians had a heart-to-heart interchange of political views at luncheon.

ED GRAHAM KILLED BY EXPLODING GASOLINE

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Everett, Wash., Oct. 8.—Blown back by an explosion into flaming gasoline, Eldon Graham of Ballard was burned to death on a launch near Mukilteo late last night. Gasoline was being transferred from one launch to another when the fumes became ignited from a lighted lantern. J. Everett and Francis Alkyie, companions of Graham, were severely burned, but escaped by leaping overboard and swimming to other craft. The three men are fishermen.
