OVEN SECRETS

as told by Tabby, is an interesting little story that will please old and young. It may be had for this asking at

Tabb yis a very wise cat, and she heard some things from the Oven of the South Bend Malleable Range that thousands of good cooks in the country will testify to be true. An expert Demonstrator from South Bend will be at our store during the week of Oct. 11 to 16 inclusive.

NOTHING IS HEARD OF GEORGE MEYERS

Without the slightest idea as to where George Meyers, the slayer of the late police officer, Tom Eckhart, is at the present time, the sheriff's office here is patiently waiting for some clue, even so slight, to come to hand and give them another opportunity of getting into action. Since Meyers was seen the last time at a place near Jefferson, the authorities have not heard anything, and are completely in the dark as to the fugitive's whereabouts.

Sheriff Minto is as much alive on the case as when the affair first occurred, and he is doing everything in his power to apprehend Meyers. Situated throughout the county are men with personal instructions from the sheriff to keep a close watch in their district, and be as quick as possible in informing the office should Meyers show up at any time.

J. L. Combs has not been heard from by either Sheriff Minto or Milton and Henry Meyers, but it is thought that he is still at Silver Falls. The officers do not think that Meyers is at or near Silver Falls, but there is a possibility of his returning to that place.

The $1000 reward posted by the state and the $100 offered by Salem does not seem to attract the attention of the Portland criminal hunters, although they are keeping a close lookout in and around Portland for Meyers.

Five Burned to Death in Tennessee.

Nashville Tenn., Oct. 8.—Fire which destroyed a grocery, owned by J. S. Brush burned four persons to death and a fifth died in a hospital. It is believed that the fire was of incendiary origin. James Butler and George Harris, negroes, have been arrested on suspicion.

Returned New Indictments—

For the second time indictments were read against women who conduct houses of ill-fame in this city and this morning Attorney Kaiser, who is representing the defendants, entered a plea of not guilty and the first case, that of Hattie McGinnis, was set for trial next Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The first indictment was defective in form and District Attorney McNary dismissed the case and a new indictment was rendered by the grand jury. It is probable that the case against Hattie McGinnis will be made a test case, and the remaining cases against Emma Thomas, Dollie Richie, Julia Downing and Rose Leland will follow the decision in the McGinnis case. The grand jury adjourned yesterday, after finding the indictments in the above cases, but will meet again tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The adjournment was ordered to give the district attorney more time to collect his final testimony in several cases.

Words to Freeze the Soul.

"Your son has Consumption, His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Geo. E. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks' use," writes Mr. Blevens, "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy." Infallible for coughs and colds, its the safest, sweetest cure of desperate lung diseases on earth. 50c and $1.00. J. C. Perry guarantees satisfaction. Trial bottle free.

No Cough Have not coughed once all day? Yet you may cough tomorrow! Better be prepared for it when it comes. Ask your doctor about keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house. Then when the hard cold or cough first appears you have a Do as he says. He knows. J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. doctor's medicine right at hand.
