

FEATURES OF THE BIG ALBANY FAIR

The educational features of the Albany Apple Fair will be of great value to fruit growers of the Willamette valley. The Oregonian of October 6 calls attention, editorially, to the passing of the old order of apple raising in this valley, and the inauguration of the new and intensive plan. In this connection it states that the coming of the new order of things in the development of old Oregon, having brought the apple pests, unknown in the olden time, there comes the necessity of expert knowledge in order to produce the commercial apples demanded by the present generation.

"To promote this knowledge," the Oregonian says, "lectures will be given at the Albany Apple Fair, in which various matters, incident to successful apple growing, will be presented. The apples on exhibition will serve to illustrate these lectures. There will be an address on 'Sprays and Grafting,' one on 'Pruning and Grafting' and one upon the 'General Management of the Orchard,' all of which will tend to make practical apple growers out of the amateurs who will listen to them. This fair should be well attended. No doubt it will be. With others of its kind it will form an index to the new era in apple-growing in the Willamette valley, the result of which will be both gratifying and profitable.

OUR OWN LITTLE BLANCHE BATES

Will Turn Sod Tomorrow in Portland for Big Theater Eight Blocks from Birthplace.

(UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE) Portland, Or., Oct. 13.—Blanche Bates, one of America's foremost actresses, protegee of David Belasco, and heroine of several of his plays, will place a daintily shod foot against a spade tomorrow afternoon, and will turn the first sod in the construction of the new Hellig theater. The mayor, the council, the bondholders of the corporation, and a few hundred followers of the drama and admirers of the actress will be the audience.

Eight blocks away from the place where Miss Bates will perform manual labor, is a small, ramshackle cottage. This was the birthplace of the actress, not very much more than a quarter of a century ago.

Miss Bates, herself, asked for permission to break the ground for the new play house. The digging will be done with no ordinary spade. Portland wood will form the handle. Oregon gold will plate the blade.

Excavation for the theater will begin immediately after the ceremony. The Hellig will be situated at Seventh and Taylor streets, and will cost $150,000.

Swept Over Niagara

This terrible calamity often harringtons are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—dropsy, diabetes or Bright's Disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and all your best feeling return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. Blackenship, of Bell, Tenn. Only 50 cents at J. C. Perry's.

A Portland minister has been found who won't marry everybody just to rattle the sake of the coin. Remarkable fellow.

Proposals for Receiving Ward at Oregon State Insane Asylum—Notice to Bidders.

The Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum will open sealed bids for the construction of Receiving Ward building at that institution on Monday, November 1, 1909, at 2 P. M., at the Executive Chambers, State Capitol, Salem, Oregon. Plans and specifications of same may be seen at the office of Lazarus, Whitehouse & Foulthous, architects, Portland, Oregon; at the office of the Superintendent of the Oregon State Insane Asylum, Salem, Oregon, or at the Executive Chambers, State Capitol, Salem, Oregon.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check in a sum not less than ten per cent of the total amount of the bid, and the same should be sealed and addressed to the undersigned, and marked on the outside of the envelope, "Bid for Receiving Ward, Oregon State Insane Asylum." The Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

C. N. MARTIN, Clerk of Board of Trustees Oregon State Insane Asylum. Salem, Oregon, September 25, 1909. Stand Wed to Nov 1

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

A Reliable Remedy CATARRH
Ely's Cream Balm
is quickly absorbed. Gives relief at once. It cleanses, soothes, heals and protects the diseased membrane resulting from Catarrh and drives away a Cold in the Head quickly. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50 cts.; at Drug-gists or by mail. In liquid form, 75 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

HAY FEVER

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened, and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. J. C. Perry.

The Gazette-Times says Corvallis is going to have a depot similar to Albany's. A fine thing, only Albany's is just about half big enough.

Cold Weather Advice

To all is to beware of coughs and colds on the chest; as neglected they readily lead to pneumonia, consumption or other pulmonary troubles. Just as soon as the cough appears treat it with Ballard's Horehound Syrup, the standard cure of America. Use as directed—perfectly harmless. A cure and preventive for all diseases of the lungs.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by all dealers.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, get reason and not appetite control, and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you will soon be all right again. For sale by all good druggists.

Few Christian people get enough practice at the business.

Never Worry

About a cough—there's no need of worry if you will treat it at its first appearance with Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It will stop the cough at once and put your lungs and throat back into perfectly healthy condition. Sold by all dealers.
