

The Daily Capital Journal

VOL. XIX. SALEM, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1909. NO. 233.

SPAIN IN THROES OF REVOLUTION

Public Greatly Exorcised ver Execution of Prof. Ferrer by Order of King Alfonso.

KING ALSO ANGRY

IS HORRIFIED AT STORM OF PROTEST AND REPRIMANDS MINISTERS BITTERLY FOR ADVISING EXECUTION, BUT DECLINES TO ACCEPT RESIGNATIONS.

Madrid, via Hendaye, Oct. 14.—With many leading papers predicting revolution and King Alfonso storming at the cabinet for advising him to permit the execution of Prof. Ferrer; with the people aroused almost to a mob frenzy and all hope aghast, Spain today is confronted with the most critical situation in its long list of national troubles that have been threatening for the last year to disrupt the nation.

The king is horrified at the storm of protest that has followed the execution of Ferrer yesterday. It is understood that he bitterly reprimanded his ministers for having advised him to permit it. His advisors had kept him ignorant of the true situation and he had no idea of the sentiment throughout Europe.

It is understood that the cabinet officers offered to resign, but the king refused to accept the resignation demanding that the ministers retain their portfolios.

The news of the attempt of the great mob in Paris to attack the Spanish embassy was a great shock to the king. The fury with which the news was received by the populace here and the rigid methods made necessary throughout the country to preserve order have given Alfonso ground for fear.

The threats upon the lives of the royal infants and the lives of the ministry in case the sentence against Ferrer was carried out, are recalled now with greatest anxiety. Guards have been doubled and orders have been given for the utmost measures of protection for the royal infants. The threats against their lives stated that they would be slain within six months. The nature of this threat means that the anxiety of the king and queen is not to be of short duration.

Paris, Oct. 14.—Aroused and bitter over the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer at Barcelona yesterday, the French radicals are determined to goad the Spaniards into open revolution against the Spanish throne.

Mass meetings will be held in every section of France Sunday. The police are preparing to prevent violence as it is expected that the leaders will incite the populace to further rioting.

President Fellerres passed the day at the Juvig aviation meet under heavy guard. The dirigible balloon "Espana," which has just been sold to Spain, was scheduled to make its

(Continued on Page 5.)

STATEHOOD DEPENDS ON CONSTITUTION

Politics Also Thought to Figure Prominently in Question of Admission of Arizona to Union.

HITCHCOCK SILENT

POSTMASTER GENERAL, HOWEVER, IS MAKING QUIET BUT EFFECTIVE INVESTIGATION INTO THE POLITICAL STATUS OF AFFAIRS.

Grand Canyon, Ariz., Oct. 14.—Postmaster General Hitchcock, who is traveling with President Taft through Arizona, has been in the territory for four days and the politicians of both parties are in a fever of speculation over the why and wherefore.

In company with Delegate Cameron and two or three others, the postmaster general has ridden horseback from town to town and it is believed by many that he is on a tour of investigation that will decide the statehood question.

If the postmaster general finds

(Continued on page 8.)

TIGERS WIN FROM THE PIRATES

Teams Are Now Tied for the World's Championship in the National Game of Baseball.

GAME WAS EXCITING

MULLIN'S WORK IN BOX FOR PITTSBURG WAS PARTLY RESPONSIBLE FOR THE RESULT. LITTLE SHORTSTOP FOR TIGERS IS FEATURE OF GAME.

Pittsburg, Oct. 14.—The Detroit Tigers and the Pittsburg Pirates, who are now coming down the home stretch in the finish of the most sensational world's baseball championship race in the history of the national game.

Detroit winning today's game by a score of 5 to 4, the Tigers and Buccaneers are now running neck and neck, each team having won three games.

The deciding game will be played in Detroit Saturday evening.

George Mullin was in the box for Pittsburg, and thereby hangs a tale. After the Wright brothers' exhibition to which the spectators were invited by the big pitcher in the initial session, when these Buccaneers crossed the plate, Mullin was practically invincible until the ninth inning, when the ball and last pitch glided safely over the plate.

Manager Clarke used three pitchers in an effort to stem the tide of defeat, but the thirsty, self-confident Tigers were not to be denied. They put up one of the best defensive and offensive games ever witnessed on a diamond.

Even in the face of overwhelming odds in the ninth inning, when T. Jones, their plucky first baseman, was knocked out by a collision with Wilson, and a Pirate had scampered over the plate, with two men on bases and none out, the game Detroit bunch never wavered.

While Jones was being carried to the club house, Manager Jennings called his men around him and gave them a talk, which seemed to put renewed determination in his players, for they buckled right down to hard work and held the Pirate aggregation for the rest of the inning. It was in this session that even the stoutest heart in the Detroit contingent of the enthusiastic fans quailed, for who ever heard of the Smoky City aggregation getting two men on bases, with none out, and then failing to bring over the needed run? But the Pirates did not face a George Mullin every day, while they were winning the National league championship.

The routers were almost willing to hand the world's championship to the buccaners in the final session when after Miller and Abstein had singled, Miller scored and Abstein went to third on Wilson's safe bunt. It looked as though nothing could stop a Garrison finish for which the Pirate crew is famed. But it was not to be for big George Mullin was to be reckoned with. This plucky twirler, who always is at his best when under fire, took a notch in his belt and grinned. Things loosened up a trifle for him when he made Gibson send a roller to Crawford, who had relieved T. Jones at first, and big Sam caught Abstein, who tried to make home on the play. When Attocicchio went into bat for Philippi and fanned and Wilson went out, Schmidt to Moriarty, in trying to steal third, the agony was over, and Detroit had another chance to figure in the larger share of the proceeds of the first four games.

When the last Pirate was out Mullin deservedly received an ovation, and he had to make a dash for the clubhouse in order to escape from the hands of enthusiastic fans. Bush, the diminutive little shortstop of the Tigers was also one of the bright and scintillating stars of the game. He was everywhere at the right moment and time and time again brought the crowd to its feet by his circus stops.

The close of the game was accompanied by a tremendous demonstration by the Detroit fans, who are looking for even money that Detroit will win the championship.

Detroit, Oct. 14.—The Detroit Tigers and the Pittsburg Pirates, who are putting up a remarkable race for the world's baseball championship, arrived here this morning and are in fine fettle for the sixth game of the series, which will be decided at Bennett field this afternoon. The game will start promptly at 2 o'clock (central time, noon Pacific time).

The standing of the two clubs today is:

Clubs—	W.	L.	Pc.
Pittsburg	3	2	.600
Detroit	2	4	.400

If the Pirates win this afternoon's game they will be hailed as the world baseball champions of 1909 and the percentage of the two teams will be as follows:

Clubs—	W.	L.	Pc.
Pittsburg	4	2	.667
Detroit	2	4	.333

On the other hand, if Detroit wins the two teams will be tied in the race and their standing will be as follows:

Clubs—	W.	L.	Pc.
Pittsburg	3	3	.500
Detroit	3	3	.500

Today's game means much to the two aggregations and it certain to be closely contested.

If Pittsburg wins today's game the National Leaguers will walk away with the world's championship and with 60 per cent of the receipts in which the players share, and 40 per cent of this amount will be divided among the Tigers. However, if the Tigers win it will give the man equal chance with the buccaners to divide the big end of the receipts.

With so much depending on today's game it is very probable that Manager Jennings will send in big George Mullin in the hope that he will repeat his victory of Tuesday when he let the Pirates down without a run. In case Mullin should not be right he will have "Wild Bill" Donovan in reserve.

Manager Clarke most probably will depend either on Camnitz or Maddox to pitch his club to victory.

VIGILANT WATCHMAN ARRESTED

Most Useful Dog in Salem Is Placed Under Arrest on the Complaint of a Local Man.

A long-expected occurrence has at last come to pass, "Bob," the well-known Salem street car watch dog and general care-taker of the P. R. & P. Co's property, was arrested this morning on the complaint of a Salem citizen.

There was a little misunderstanding between the dog and the man, and as the dog was unable to tell his side of the case, he went to jail. His many friends, however, were soon busy and had the money to bail him out and buy his license. The fund, which was raised by the car boys to release the dog, was helped out by contributions from Doc Gibson, chief of police; Al Poland, night policeman; L. J. Zinn and Dr. Fisher. "Bob" has more friends in town than any dog, and is a faithful watchman of the company's property. Next time when a contribution is needed for "Bob" come to The Journal office.

Had Watermelon Feast. Cottage Grove, Or., Oct. 14.—A big feast on luscious watermelons was the unique treat given the members of the local G. A. R. post at the regular meeting on Saturday night with fruit grown upon the land of George W. McReynolds.

CHICAGO ROBBER IS IDENTIFIED

He Proves to Have Been a Former Prominent Attorney of Los Angeles, California.

IDENTITY CONFIRMED

SINGLE-HANDED HOLD-UP OF A BANK IN BROAD DAYLIGHT WAS ONE OF BOLDEST IN HISTORY—PRESENCE OF MIND OF CASHIER SAVES THE CASH.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The robber who committed suicide when cornered by the police yesterday, after he had robbed the D. M. Erskine savings bank of $500, and who was wounded by Marshal Sheehan during the pursuit, was identified today as Lamar H. Harris, an attorney of Los Angeles, Cal., by the police of Highland Park, where the daring robbery occurred.

Harris fled from Los Angeles several weeks ago, after getting into money troubles.

Cashier Duffy, whose quick action in closing the vaults of the institution, because he suspected that Harris was plotting to rob the bank, told the story of the bold hold-up. He said:

"The man first came into the bank and inquired about a Mr. Williams. I said that the only Mr. Williams I knew was at Libertyville. He thanked me and walked away. This was in the forenoon.

"Shortly after 2 o'clock he returned in an automobile, and entered the bank. His companion remained outside. As he approached the counter I asked him if he had found the man he was looking for, but he said not. Harris then walked back to the street and talked to the chauffeur. His actions aroused my suspicions, and I took all of my money trays and locked them in the vault.

"As I entered my cage he pulled out a revolver and made me call Miss Fitzgerald and Richards into my cage. When we were together he helped himself to all the money in sight, which he stuffed into his pockets.

"If any of you try to follow me, I'll kill you," he said, and he backed out of the door. When he was outside I telephoned to the marshal."

When the robber reached the machine, Schwab had allowed the engines to stop, and they could not be started quickly. As a result Marshal Sheehan was enabled to reach the street and begin the pursuit before the robber could make his escape.

The stranger started to run, but was followed by Sheehan and a crowd of excited persons. Both men fired a number of shots at each other, and the robber was struck over the heart by a bullet fired by the official. He staggered slightly, then deliberately ended his life with the last remaining shell in his revolver.

Confirmed From Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Oct. 14.—That the unidentified man who robbed the savings bank of D. M. Erskine & Company, at Highland Park, Ill., and ended his own life when surrounded by a pursuing posse, was Lamar H. Harris, of Los Angeles, is the unanimous opinion of Harris' friends and former business associates in this city.

When shown the telegraphed description of the dead bandit, Glenn Behmyer, Harris' former law partner, declared that there could be little doubt that Harris and the robber were the same man.

Attorney William Freeman, Harris' successor in the Behmyer office, today identified the scars on the

(Continued on page 5.)

A Great Cloak and Suit Sale

500 Cloaks and Suits bought at 50 cents on the dollar now thrown out on the counters for quick selling. We have got instructions from our buyer in New York to sell suits if we make only 50 cents to $1.00 on each garment. We sold fifty garments on Monday and at $1.00 profit you see we are doing well. Remember they are this season's Newest Garments.

Your dollar has double buying value at Chicago Store

Cloaks and Suits

Now going at about half their regular value. The suits we are offering are NOT OLD and shop worn. They are like the cut here represented, all new up-to-date, fashionable garments, made of the newest materials; man-tailored and silk lined, and highly finished throughout.

- Ladies' $7.50 Coats—Now .....$3.75
- Ladies' $12.50 Coats—Now .....$6.75
- Ladies' $18.00 Coats—Now .....$9.99
- Ladies' $18.00 Suits—Now .....$10.50
- Ladies' $22.50 Suits—Now .....$12.50
- Ladies' $25.00 Suits—Now .....$14.99

Wonderful Values in

Millinery

You will do yourself and your pocket book an injustice if you med hats ostrich Hats, Ostrich Plumes, Fancy Wings, etc., elsewhere before you look through our stock and get our prices. We are doing the greatest Millinery business we ever did in the history of our store. You cannot fool the people; they know values when they see them.

- $4.50 Stylish Trimmed Hats, now .....$2.50
- $5.90 Stylish Trimmed Hats, now .....$2.90

SALEM Dress Goods and Silk House

Never offered before such values in these goods. We show the most complete stock of fashionable Dress Goods and Silks in the Willamette valley, and we have the goods here to back this statement up all the time.

- $1.25 Moire Silks, all colors, yard .....85c
- 85c Fine Wool Dress Goods, new, yard .....49c

We show the greatest stock of Men's Women's and Children's Hosiery in Salem.

CHICAGO STORE SALEM, OREGON The Store That Saves You Money

We are Salem agents for the Celebrated

Nemo Corsets

The greatest corset on the market for Style, Comfort and Beauty. We carry all the numbers and we sell them at the same price you have to pay in Chicago or New York.

We're offering great values in MEN'S AND BOYS CLOTHING