GROWERS OF HOPS IN CLOVER

Shortage of Supply Stimulates an Increased Demand and in Consequence the Prices Soar.

(Special to The Capital Journal.) Portland, Or., Oct. 14.—Hop growers are having their innings, with the prevailing quotations for the Oregon crop at 25 cents per pound. The average price last year was 7 cents. In 1907, 7 cents and in 1906, 12 cents. The last high priced year was 1904, when Oregon hops went to 31 cents, and away back in 1882 there were sales as high as $1.25 per pound. In some respects, the market this year resembles that of 1882.

Light crops all over the world are responsible for the prevailing high prices. The Oregon crop is the lightest since 1896. The estimate of 70,000 bales for the year's yield in this state is considered about right, with Washington's crop at 15,000 bales, compared with 17,000 bales last year, and California has about 40,000 bales this year, compared to 68,000 bales last season.

It is expected this year will mark the first of a series of high-priced crops. This year, the next and possibly one or two more will mean large profits to growers. After that, because of high prices, more hops will be grown than are needed, and the price will drop again.

Preliminary arrangements are already being taken up for the big biennial national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, which will meet in Portland July 19-24, next year. This gathering of the A. O. H. is expected to be a notable one, and it is thought that it will bring no less than 20,000 people to Portland. Delegates will be in attendance from all over the country and many visitors beside. The Commercial Club is actively at work in arousing interest in the gathering, and large parties from several states have already announced their intention of visiting Portland at that time and participating in the convention.

A fast mail train between Chicago and Portland that will bring Eastern mail to Oregon in much less time than is now required has just been put on by the Harriman lines. The train will carry no passengers, and will make the run between the two cities in 60 or 62 hours, clipping from 19 to 12 hours from the present schedule. In this way the Harriman lines expect to meet the shortened schedules of the Hill roads which have put in fast trains from St. Paul to Puget Sound.

Ground will be broken early in December for a big cement plant near this city, that is expected to contribute largely to the supply of this building material used in this territory. The new industry will have a capacity of 1500 barrels daily at the start, with provisions for enlarged facilities later. It will cost $1,000,000. The plant will consist of 12 buildings, covering about 12 acres, and will be located at Oregon, a short distance south of the city. It is thought that the field for a cement factory here is unexplored, because of the convenient source of limestone, and the big market for the manufactured product.

Astoria is in the limelight because of a splendid building record during the first nine months of the year. Improvements carried on by the municipal and business interests there during 1909 total over $1,000,000. This is a splendid showing, and with such a spirit being shown Astoria's outlook is very bright.

FORESTERS OF STAYTON ENTERTAIN

An Order that Has Disbursed Over Half a Million in Eight Years in Oregon.

P. E. Struck, chief ranger of the Grand Court of Foresters of Oregon, was in the city yesterday with his wife, after a visit in his official capacity to the court at Stayton on Tuesday night. He was accompanied to Stayton on his official visit by Mr. and Mrs. George Patterson, Mr. Patterson is chairman of the trustees for Oregon. At Stayton the party was entertained with a grand reception at the opera house, where Chief Ranger Struck delivered an address on the principles of Forestry, an order that has over 100 lodges in the state, with nearly 5000 members, and has in the past eight years disbursed over a million dollars to families of the order. The dues in the Foresters are $1 a month and for this the member gets $7 a week in case of sickness or disability, and free medical attendance and medicine. This item alone saves the members and their families, as each local court makes a contract for medical attendance and medicines with a local physician who is a member of the order. A man who gets a salary has no provision, as a rule to meet doctor bills, and the court of foresters comes to his rescue at a critical time in his life. All this was made very clear in Chief Ranger Struck's address at Stayton. The opera house was crowded to standing room, and the program included numbers by the Rose orchestra and singing by Mrs. Hinges, of Salem. After the open public meeting, a banquet was given at Daisy hall to the members of the order present, numbering about 100, and an excellent time was had. Chief Ranger Struck will be at Woodburn Friday night of this week, and is making a tour of the whole state. He is a prominent business man of Portland, being manager of the Acme Planting Mill Company.

BLY'S THEATER GIVES PROMISE OF A SCREAM

The Lena Rivers Company Will Produce 'Turned Up' During the Remainder of the Week.

For the last half of the week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, the Lena Rivers company will present the uproariously funny comedy 'Turned Up' at Bly's theater. This play was for years Nat Goodwin's favorite. It is a scream from the rise and fall of the curtain. It causes people to hold onto their seats to keep from falling out with laughter, and as presented by this clever company should prove a great drawing card.

More Than Enough Is Too Much. C. R. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: 'I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared by complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared and I can now attend to business every day and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed.' STREET CAR COLLIDES WITH TRAIN

The Warren Construction Company Gravel Wagon Is Completely Smashed to Splinters.

An accident occurred at the intersection of Chemeketa and Summer streets at 6:30 last night which came near causing the death of T. Y. Chomlee, a teamster employed by the Warren Construction Company, and serious injury to Walter Thompson, the motorman on one of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company's cars, when the car and the wagon Mr. Chomlee was driving collided.

Mr. Chomlee was driving homeward north on Summer street, after the day's work at the construction company's plant in Yew Park, and when he approached the street car track on Chemeketa street, he failed to notice a westbound Asylum car approaching, notwithstanding the sound of the gong, which was rung continuously by Motorman Thompson, when he first saw the team and wagon driving up. Mr. Chomlee drove his team over the track, and when the wagon was just half across, the street car struck it center, throwing the driver from his seat several feet, and breaking the wagon in twain.

When the car collided with the rig the box was broken to pieces, broke the coupling pole and demolished the tongue, leaving the front gears on the north side of the track and the rear wheels on the other. Glass flew and several small pieces struck Motorman Thompson's face and neck, cutting his nose considerably, but not dangerously. After rearranging things and taking an invoice of the destruction, it was found that neither Mr. Chomlee, Motorman Thompson or the team were injured, and, with the exception of a slight jolting up, the passengers suffered no injury. The collision was considered purely accidental, and all parties concerned were thankful that no more serious results occurred through the wreck.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured. By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine out of ten cases are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY, Toledo, O.

I have administered it to a great many traveling men who were suffering from troubles for which it is recommended, and have never failed to relieve them,' says J. C. Jenkins of Glasgow, Ky. This remedy is for sale by all good druggists.

CRANE TALKS HIS OWN HEAD OFF

Grand Canyon, Ariz., Oct. 14.—President Taft arose early to see the sunrise on the wonderful colorings of the Grand Canyon. His train arrived several hours ahead of time from Ash Fork in order to give the president a longer stay on the brink of the gigantic chasm. In company with Governor Sloane and two or three other territorial celebrities the president had breakfast on his train and was then taken in a cage to various points of interest along the edge of the canyon. The president will remain here until 8:30 p. m., when he will leave for Albuquerque, N. M. Mr. Taft absolutely refused to discuss any phase of the Crane incident for publication, but it is understood he regards the matter as finally closed. He believes that Crane was indiscreet in talking about diplomatic matters and thinks that he is therefore not suited for the place of minister to China or any other billet in the diplomatic service.

Danderine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. It at once imparts a sparkling brilliancy and velvety softness to the hair, and a few weeks use will cause new hair to sprout all over the scalp. Use it every day for a short time, after which two or three times a week will be sufficient to complete whatever growth you desire.

A lady from St. Paul writes in substance, as follows: 'When I began using Danderine my hair would not come to my shoulders and now it is away below my hips.'

Another from Newark, N. J. 'I have been using Danderine regularly. When I first started to use it I had very little hair, now I have the most beautiful long and thick hair anyone would want to have.'

NOW at all druggists in three sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle

Danderine enjoys a greater sale than any other one preparation regardless of kind or brand, and it has a much greater sale than all of the other hair preparations in the world combined.
