

Umbrellas

SPECIALLY PRICED

We're offering the best umbrella bargain in town because we made an extra good purchase from an Eastern house that was overstocked on high-grade umbrellas. We have promised not to tell the maker's name because these same umbrellas are selling in other towns all around us for $10.00 and $12.50. They have an all silk cover, steel rod and frame, bulb runner, fine selection of gold and silver handles, inlaid with pearls to choose from and when you come and choose one you have made the best buy you will ever have offered to you this winter. Only one to a customer. None sold to dealers.

If You Are Wearing an Out-of-Date Suit or Coat

It's not our fault because we are giving the best suit and coat values in this town. Visit our large cloak and suit section and see what an enormous showing we have placed on special racks at reduced prices. One lady made a special trip to this store to thank the management for the perfect fit and cordial treatment she received when she bought her suit, and we have hundreds of that kind of customers, and that's why we sell more suits than any other store in this town—because we have more style, better tailoring and fabrics and cost less money.

To Improve Asylum Avenue—

E. M. Branson, a resident along the county road east of the state insane asylum, called on the county judge yesterday and applied for a small donation toward helping the improvements along now proposed for the Asylum road. STATEHOOD DEPENDS

That Arizona will be in the republican column they say the statehood craft will slide down the ways as if greased. If, on the other hand, Mr. Hitchcock concludes after his conferences with the leading business men and politicians of the territory that the democrats are likely to capture the two senators whom the new state would be entitled to have, the launching will certainly not take place next winter and perhaps not for several congressional winters to come. When Mr. Hitchcock was asked about his mission in Arizona he changed the subject and talked about the weather.

President Taft is making the definite promise to the people of Arizona that he will do all in his power to secure statehood for them, but is warning them that they must not frame a constitution like the Oklahoma instrument. If they do, he hints, they will cut out an enormous amount of trouble for themselves.

It is believed by some of the business men with whom Hitchcock has conferred that the postmaster general is quite as much concerned in discovering what sort of a constitution is likely to be framed as he is over the probable political complexion of the new state.

"The president is quite right in warning the people against repeating the Oklahoma constitution," said Dwight B. Heard, a prominent business man and republican of Phoenix, yesterday. "A very strong element in the territory is in favor of state bank guaranty and it is almost certain that even a stronger element would insist on curbing the railroad power in the constitution itself."

Both Boys Saved.

Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar also lately cured my boy of a severe cough and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." Nothing else is as safe and certain in results. J. C. Perry.

GRIEF-STRICKEN MOTHER SUICIDES

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.] San Francisco, Oct. 14.—With a bullet through her heart, the body of a poorly-dressed woman was found today lying in front of a weed-covered little grave in Laurel Hill cemetery. The board over the little mound bore the single word "Willie." The woman had evidently been dead for about ten hours. A .38-caliber revolver was found by her side. Nothing was found upon her person that could give a clue as to her identity. The only property found on her well-worn clothes was a five-cent piece.

Goes for Rabbit, Kills Himself.

[UNITED PRESS LEARNED WIRE.] Pendleton, Ore., Oct. 14.—While trying to shoot a rabbit, John Hubben of Lewiston, Idaho, became the victim of his own carelessness and is dead.

The accident happened three miles west of Echo, just before noon today, and details are lacking. It is reported, however, that he seized the gun by the muzzle and pulled it toward him in taking it from a wagon. The weapon was discharged and the bullet pierced the left breast. He was rushed to the office of a physician in Echo, but died almost as soon as he reached there.

In company with three brothers, the youth was enroute from Lewiston to California with wagon and team.

Neglected, the cold may grow into catarrh, and the air passages be so inflamed that you have to fight for every breath. It is true that Ely's Cream Balm masters catarrh promptly. But you know the old saying about an ounce of prevention. Therefore use Cream Balm when the cold in the head shows itself. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.
