JUDGE GOT THE BOX OF GRAPES

But "Shorty" Minto and Gaunt Journal Reporter Divided, Leaving Him the Box of Fruit.

The honorable county court of Marion county was the recipient of a gift this morning from the Benedictine Fathers at Mt. Angel which far surpasses anything yet tending to arouse the desire of that pudicary department's sweet tooth. The gift is in the shape of a generously large box of luscious grapes directly from the rich vineyards of Mt. Angel. Judge Bushey received the box while he was setting in his office with feet piled high on the desk thinking of what to get for dinner, but when that likely looking box was laid at his feet by the expressman, the honorable judge put this appendage under the table and took notice. After taking a look about, the judge started back toward his sanctum when a Journal reporter chanced to call him with the old, old story: "Anything doing, judge?" "Yasser," says Judge Bushey, and with a knowing wink the father of Marion county went stealthily back to the office closely tagged by the festive reporter. With the same skittish actions, Judge Bushey lifted the precious box under his arm, getting a good hold, galloped off up in the upper story of the court house. When the top of the last stairway was reached Judge Bushey grew pale about the collar, as there, standing with feet wide apart and eyeing him suspiciously, was "Cushion Foot" Harry Minto, who also said, "Howdy, judge," and followed him into the vacant surveyor's office. Judge Bushey motioned Minto to bring the ax sticking up in the woodbox, and enter. Soon there was exposed some of the finest grapes ever grown on a vine. What's the answer? Yum!

and then stole second; Wilson bunted safely; Schmidt tried vainly to get Abstein at third; Gibson popped to Bush; Adams walked, filling the bases, making Donovan's fourth pass to first; Hyatt filed to Crawford, Abstein scoring on the throw-in; Leach was given four balls and walked; Donovan, wilder than ever, seemed to lose his control altogether; he let Clarke walk and as the bases were full, Wilson was forced home; Walker filed to Cobb. Two runs, one hit, no errors.

Second, Detroit—Crawford went out to Abstein, unassisted; Delehanty walked; Moriarty doubled to right, Delehanty going to third; Moriarty was limping from his collision and Leary ran for him; T. Jones filed to Wagner; Schmidt went out, Gibson to Abstein. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third, Pittsburgh—O'Leary succeeded Moriarty at third; Miller singled to center; Abstein doubled to left, putting Miller on third. A peculiar mix-up ensued when Wilson rolled to Bush. Abstein crowded Miller off third and Miller was put out, O'Leary to Schmidt. Then Abstein started back to second and was caught, Bush to Delehanty. Wilson then was almost caught off first, but managed to get back safely by sliding. Gibson forced Wilson. Bush to Delehanty. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Fourth, Detroit—Mullin batted for Donovan, showing that "Wild Bill" had been relieved; Mullin lined to Miller; Davy Jones bunted safely; Adams threw Bush out at first; the young Pirate pitcher threw Cobb out the same way. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fourth, Pittsburgh—Mullin went in the box, succeeding Donovan; Adams filed to Davy Jones; Hyatt walked; Leach singled to left; Clarke sacrificed, Mullin to T. Jones; Mullin let Wagner walk and it appeared that he did so purposely; Miller singled to right, scoring Hyatt and Leach; Miller stole second; Abstein fanned. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Fourth, Detroit—Crawford went out, Leach to Abstein; Delehanty singled to right; O'Leary popped to Wagner; Tom Jones singled to right; Schmidt forced Delehanty at third to Leach, unassisted. No runs, two hits, no errors.

Fifth, Pittsburgh—Wilson lined to Crawford; Bush made a sensational throw, catching Gibson at first; Adams went out, Delehanty to T. Jones. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth, Detroit—Leach threw Mullin out at first; Davy Jones fanned; snow began to fall as Bush walked up to the plate; Wagner threw Bush out at first. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth, Pittsburgh—Hyatt went out, Delehanty to T. Jones; Leach doubled to left; Clarke walked; Wagner landed on the ball for a three-bagger, scoring Leach and Clarke; Wagner then cored on a bad throw by Davy Jones; Miller filed to Crawford; Abstein popped to Bush. Three runs, two hits, one error.

Sixth, Detroit—Cobb went out, Adams to Abstein; Crawford filed to Clarke; Delehanty fouled to Leach. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh, Pittsburgh—Wilson filed to Davy Jones; Gibson doubled to center; Adams went out, O'Leary to Bush to T. Jones; Hyatt went out, Delehanty to T. Jones. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Seventh, Detroit—O'Leary fouled to Gibson; T. Jones went out, Wagner to Abstein; Schmidt doubled to left; Mullin lined to Clarke. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Eighth, Pittsburgh—Leach went out Mullin to T. Jones; Clarke walked; Clarke stole second; Wagner filed to Crawford, who muffed Miller's fly, Clarke scoring on the error; T. Jones caught Abstein's fly. One run, no hits, one error.

Eighth, Detroit—Davy Jones popped to Miller; Bush fouled to Wagner; Cobb filed to Clarke. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth, Pittsburgh—Wilson popped to O'Leary; Gibson singled to short; Adams sacrificed to T. Jones, unassisted; Hyatt fouled to Schmidt. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ninth, Detroit—Crawford out, Wagner to Abstein; Delehanty doubled to left; O'Leary fouled to Leach; T. Jones filed to Clarke. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Old John Brown captured the United States arsenal at Harpers' Ferry just 50 years ago tonight. There has been things doing in Uncle Sam's dominions since that time, that would astonish John if he could come to life for a few minutes.

Wouldn't it have been worth going miles to hear if Roosevelt, instead of Taft, had met Diaz—to hear and always remember that—'Dee-lighted!'

President Diaz was bejeweled like an emperor, says a dispatch. Well, why not; he is in most respects greater than any emperor.

The Seattle fair ends tonight, the old dog is dead, but, unfortunately, leaves a healthy pup, with the Seattle spirit, who will try to fatten his gaunt ribs at the public expense for six weeks longer. Let us sincerely hope there will be no grand pups.

Those convicts seemed "to take things easy."

Whatever else we may have coming to us, let us all be at least thankful that the A. Y. P., the Seattle fair ends tonight.

Well Known Hotel Keeper Uses and Recommends Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"I take pleasure in saying that I have kept Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family medicine chest for about fifteen years, and have always had satisfactory results from its use. I have administered it to a great many traveling men who were suffering from troubles for which it is recommended, and have never failed to relieve them," says J. C. Jenkins of Glasgow, Ky. This remedy is for sale by all good druggists.
