HOSS KEPT HIS MONEY IN SHOP

Supposed to Be Poor, But
Money and Securities
Worth $35,000 Found
In His Safe.

Spokane, Wash., Oct. 20.—Tucked away in an old lard pail in the safe of Frederick Hoss, a Colville, Wash., shoemaker, who died at that place several days ago, was today found $4500 in gold, currency to the amount of $2500, a deposit book showing a credit of $400 in the First National bank of Colville and city and county warrants and other securities aggregating $35,000.

Hoss, who has been regarded by many as a recluse, was thought to be almost in poverty. The old man's wealth was discovered when a committee of citizens visited the little shop following Hoss' death and opened the safe.

peal to the people until the tariff is revised according to his notions.

"In this campaign to be waged by Senator Cummins the issue appears to be whether the seven senators and 20 members of the house who voted against the tariff bill constitute the Republican party, or whether the majority of the Republican members of congress and the president make up the Republican party.

"These people, under the leadership of Senators Cummins and La Follette, call themselves Republicans, but if they are, then I am something else."

More Than Enough Is Too Much.

C. R. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared by complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared and I can now attend to business every day and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed." J. C. Perry.

It is said that the jack rabbits stood up like exclamation points when our president crossed the plains, after having endorsed the policies of "Nelson Aldrich" and "Joe Cannon."

I'd Rather Die, Doctor,

Than have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight toes) if you don't," said all doctors. Instead he used Puckler's Arnica Salve till wholly cured. Its cures of eczema, fever sores, boils, burns and piles astound the world. 25c at J. C. Perry's.
