THE SUNNY SIDE OF BROADWAY

Pretty Girls and Catchy Music, Beautiful Costumes, and the Latest Thing Gowns.

Which is the title of the attraction offered by Boyle Woolfolk could easily have been called the "Funny Side of Broadway," with the same appropriateness, as it is nothing but fun, intermingled with catchy songs from start to finish.

The first act shows Columbus Circle in New York, with beautiful Central Park in the background, and the second act depicts the beautiful Yale campus, at New Haven, Conn. In addition to elaborate stage settings the production is equipped with more novelties and electrical effects than any company on the road.

Some of the effects in the show that cause much praise to be bestowed upon them are "The Motor Boat Effect," "The Devil Effect," while novelties like the "Original Horse Dance," "Circus Number" and "Nursery Rhymes," sung by six "Baby Dolls," with large building blocks, are distinctive hits in themselves.

Anyone who has ever heard Boyle Woolfolk's music knows that catchier melodies have never been written.

The attraction will be at the Grand tonight.

STATE OFFICIAL BRINGS HOME WIFE

James T. Clincock, chief clerk of the state water board, arrived in the city this evening with his bride, a charming Baker City girl, Miss Grace Rodney.

The Rodney-Clincock marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents at Baker City, Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 3 p. m., by Rev. Booser of the First Presbyterian church. The bride was assisted by Scene in "The Sunny Side of Broadway."

Miss Rachel King as maid, a young lady well known at Salem.

The young couple will make their home at Salem, where the groom has been employed since March. He is a law graduate of the University of Minnesota and was for two years in the law office of Judge Samuel White of Baker City. The bride is a talented young woman, who will be cordially welcomed at the capital city.

WANTS TO DAM THE RIO GRANDE

Would Irrigate Ten Million Acres, But as the River Is Boundary Mexico Has a Say.

Gregory, Tex., Oct. 21.—To dam the Rio Grande and transform Southern Texas and Northern Mexico into an agricultural paradise, is the plan laid before President Taft today by L. E. Bennett, of Mission, Tex.

Before the river may be dammed, however, the co-operation of the government must be obtained, and the memorial Bennett brought to Gregory to show President Taft, begins with the suggestion that negotiations be started for that purpose. At least 10,000,000 acres of desert land could be reclaimed.

The famous river, which is now not navigable, and serves no useful purpose, will be made to supply a population as large as New York, Pennsylvania and New England combined. President Taft played golf today with Colonel Connelly, the champion of Texas.

Governor Campbell, of Texas, and his staff and a large party bound for Corpus Christi, arrived here today.

FRANK ASHBY IS KILLED IN WRECK

Burlington, Wis., Oct. 21.—With grim death sitting at the wheel, the automobile of James E. Reynolds crashed into a tree near Troy Center and four of the occupants received injuries that are confining them to their beds today.

While Reynolds was driving his car along a country road it suddenly swerved into a ditch and crashed into a tree. Reynolds was dead when he was removed from the wreckage and physicians who were called stated that death had occurred some time before the accident occurred. According to the doctors, he had died from heart failure, and with his lifeless hands clutching the steering wheel had remained upright in his seat until the car jumped the road.

Mrs. George Meadows, her sister-in-law, Miss Meadows, and her two children, who were Reynolds' guests, on a pleasure spin, were painfully injured.

Richard Croker's oft-quoted opinion that New York is the best governed city in the world has not tempted him to live there.

SMITH IS DECLARED "GUILTY"

Jury Was Out Five Hours and in Finding the Verdict Asked Clemency for the Prisoner.

A verdict of guilty was returned by the jury in the circuit court late yesterday afternoon in the case of State vs. A. B. Smith. The jury went out at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and at 7 o'clock the verdict was returned. A recommendation was included in the verdict for the court to exercise clemency in Smith's case.

When the clerk of the court read the verdict last evening, Smith was noticeably affected. He moaned anxiously when the word "guilty" was read, and murmured something "about the jury failing to consider some testimony."
