

PASSING OF A FAMOUS CHARACTER

William M. Gleason, Friend of Booth, Jefferson and Forrest, Dies in City of San Francisco.

Oakland, Cal., Oct. 21.—The funeral of William M. Gleason, veteran comedian and stage director, friend of Edwin Booth, Joseph Jefferson, Edwin Forrest, Lawrence Barrett and other famous actors, who died in a sanatorium in Freitvale yesterday following an operation, will be held Friday afternoon. The body will be cremated.

Although Gleason had been in poor health for several years he kept steadily at his work until a few weeks before his death. Besides his widow, Mina Crolius Gleason, who also is a famous character actress, Gleason is survived by a son, James, who is playing in the east.

Shortly after Gleason was born in Ireland in 1850 his parents came to this country and located in Cincinnati. When the civil war was at its height, Gleason, at the age of 13, ran away from his home, joined the Tenth Ohio regiment, went to the front and was engaged in several battles.

His theatrical career also started in Cincinnati, where at the age of 17 he made his first appearance before the limelight with James O'Neil, who entered the profession the same year.

In the early eighties he played in the Wallack stock theater in New York and later was retained by Daniel Frohman as stage director. He came to the Pacific coast in 1894, owing to falling health, and took the position of stage director of the Grand opera house in San Francisco. As stage director for Nance O'Neil he traveled for two years and then joined the Baker Stock company at Portland, Ore. Later Gleason took charge of the directing at Ye Liberty theater in Oakland, but soon returned to the stage again in Portland. This was in 1906. There he remained until his illness forced him to quit active work. In Portland he was affectionately known as "Daddy" among the theater-goers.

TOO FREQUENT WITH OTHER THINGS

Farmers in the vicinity are on the lookout for a stranger who has been making himself too handy with other people's property and tearing things up in general in that locality. Yesterday the Jennings household was disturbed by the unusual actions of the stranger. While Thomas Jennings and his family were eating dinner a man climbed over the fence and walking into the barn brought out a colt belonging to the place and hitching him up to a tree a short distance away went off in the brush. Mr. Jennings returned the colt to the barn when the man called again and took the mother of the colt out and hitched it to a tree and went away again in the same mysterious manner.

Mr. Jennings notified Sheriff Grant of Polk county of his visitor and the queer manner he had of conducting himself while at his place. The sheriff went in search of the man who is thought to be insane, but up to a late hour this afternoon no trace could be found of him.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supply energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control, and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and you will soon be all right again. For sale by all good druggists.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

Served as coffee, the new coffee substitute known to grocers everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee will trick even a coffee expert. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Pure, healthful, toasted grains, malt, nuts, etc., have been so cleverly blended as to give a wonderfully satisfying coffee taste and flavor. And it is "made in a minute" too! No tedious 20 to 30 minutes' boiling. Test it and see Dr. Shoop created health coffee that the people might have a genuine coffee substitute, and one that would be thoroughly satisfying in every possible respect. Sold by J. W. Harritt.

The tariff experts are to receive $7,500 a year each, with clerks, allowances, and the etceteras which go with soft snaps. And they aren't very expert, either, to tell the truth.
