

$3,000 Given Away In Prizes

TO THE

Ladies' of Salem and Surrounding Country

One Ford Automobile, Model T, 1910, Five Passenger, Three Beautiful Upright Pianos, Three Beautiful $100.00 Diamond Rings, Three Scholarships — Business College, Three Ladies' Gold Watches

The Capital Journal offers for the next two months one of the up-to-date popular voting contests which will eclipse anything of the kind ever conducted in this city. The grand prize will be a 1909 Ford Automobile. The person winning this will never regret a little work. Anyone in Salem or the surrounding territory has the privilege of participating in this contest. All old and new subscribers paying or prepaying their subscriptions to the Capital Journal are given votes which they can cast for their favorite candidates, according to the table of votes published in this announcement. The winners of these prizes will be the women of greatest energy, most extensive acquaintance, the best organizing and hustling abilities. Ask some friends to send in your nomination at once. Costs you absolutely nothing. Thousands of people work years to save what you can win in a few weeks' time. The sooner you act the better your chance of success. Names of all candidates nominated will be published in a few days.

Who May Enter This Contest

Any white woman is eligible, provided conditions set forth below are complied with.

Candidates must reside in the district or territory from which nominated. No candidate will be permitted to transfer votes to another after receiving them for herself.

The right is reserved to withdraw the offer in any district where only one candidate is nominated or voted for.

Ballots sent in for names not properly nominated will be destroyed uncounted.

A ballot will be printed every day. The ballot will count ten votes. All ballots will be dated, and will be void unless received at the Capital Journal office on or before the expiration date as printed. All ballots must be sent direct to the Contest Department of the Capital Journal, postage fully prepaid. No employee of the Capital Journal or member of his family is eligible as a candidate.

In accepting nominations all candidates must accept and agree to abide by above conditions.

In case of a tie prize of equal value will be given each of the contestants tied.

Districts Are Divided as Follows:

DISTRICT No. 1 will include all territory in the City of Salem.

DISTRICT No. 2 will include all Marion County.

DISTRICT No. 3 will include all territory outside of Marion County.

How Prizes Will Be Distributed

THE CAPITAL PRIZE—The lady receiving the highest number of votes in all districts will receive the Five Passenger Automobile.

THE GRAND PRIZES—Three high-grade Pianos will be presented to the three ladies receiving the greatest number of votes in three districts.

THE THREE DIAMOND RINGS will go to the ladies receiving the next greatest number of votes in their respective districts.

THE THREE GOLD WATCHES will go to the ladies receiving the next greatest number of votes in their respective districts.

THE THREE SCHOLARSHIPS in the Business College will go to the ladies receiving the fourth greatest number of votes in their respective districts.

Each district will receive one piano, one diamond ring, one gold watch, one scholarship, regardless of the number of votes cast in the other districts. However, no contestant will receive more than one prize. One of the districts will receive the automobile.

The winning of these magnificent prizes is not a question of money. It is the result of extensive acquaintance, loyal friendship and enthusiastic co-operation. Hundreds of young ladies have many warm friends who will unite in an effort to win the automobile or one of those beautiful pianos for them. The time is short—in seven weeks from the first publication of names of candidates prizes will be won. Be a winner. You risk nothing and gain much. Think how much it is worth to win the automobile or one of the grand pianos, and solely as the result of votes of admiring friends. You can, if you will, be one of the fortunate winners.

Nomination Blank
