AMERICANS WEARY OF TWO-CENTURY-OLD METHODS AND PREPARE TO HAND THE BIG "SUCKER" OVER TO HISTORY AND PUNISHMENT.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Chicago, Oct. 30.—Between thirty and forty "regular" republican congressmen are ready to announce their candidacy for reelection on a platform which includes a speaker for the house of representatives other than Joseph Cannon of Illinois, according to a special to the Tribune from Bayou Sara, Louisiana.

The special says: "Congressmen have reached the point of discussing men available for the candidacy and from information obtained on the presidential fleet a definite program will be prepared before the coming session of congress convenes."

"The names of the tentative candidates would astound the Cannon coterie if they were published." One of the prospective candidates for the speakership is from New England; another from a state nearby; two others are from sister states in the upper Mississippi valley; the fifth is from Nebraska, and the sixth candidate is a congressman from the Pacific coast, who has been prominently identified with the existing organization, but is now ready to break away.

SAYS STAND ON YOUR FEET, AS THOUGH ANYONE EVER GOT ON HIS KNEES TO THE MODERN GIRL—HE REALLY NEEDS MENTAL PATCHING.

Los Angeles, Oct. 30.—The Rev. G. Bancroft, D.D., of Los Angeles, believes that all bachelors who have reached the age of 35 years should contribute to the support of widows and orphans. He is of the opinion that $25 per capita should be the annual assessment levied upon the pursuers of single blessedness. In a lecture delivered last evening in the auditorium of the Los Angeles Y. M. C. A. Dr. Bancroft discussed "Divorce Causes" to young men contemplating matrimony. He said: "When you propose, do it like a man. Stand on your two feet and say what you have to say; never grovel on your knees. "Marry your equal in mind, purse and body. Extremes should never marry extremes. In such marriages, based on financial consideration which I have investigated, I have yet to find one that ended in a happy union."

ber kings of Western Oregon. The Spaulding Lumber Company owns its own timber lands, railroads, steamboats, sawmills, planing mills, logging camps, and has its own engineers and architects. The new offices are finished throughout in selected flat grained fir, natural finish, and there is no wood in the world that will compare with it for color, beauty or practical value as building material, and every bit of it, including the most elaborate panels and mouldings, were turned out of the raw material at their own mills. The counting room has beamed ceilings, is well lighted and ventilated and has all modern conveniences, including a big rest bench. The logging department 24x40, with same finish, and there are offices down stairs for the yard foreman. There is a concrete basement under the whole building, 60x150, for the large stock of lime, cement, papers and plaster, with a railroad track alongside. The upper floor of the same size carries the largest stock of sash, doors, mouldings and finishings in the Northwest, outside of Portland. Retail lumber sheds are being built on a large scale, an account of which will appear later. The Spaulding people certainly have done themselves proud, and conferred great credit on our city by fitting up such elegant offices and a warehouse on such liberal proportions to accommodate the local trade. The demand for building material has been so large at Salem that no yard could begin to meet the demand, and their new equipment, when fully stocked up, will come nearer doing it than anything the city has ever had.

CHARITY BALL IS A GREAT SUCCESS

The net receipts of the charity ball given at the rink last night will be about $300. The ladies who have interested themselves in the ball are very well satisfied with the result of their labors. The music furnished by the McElroy orchestra gave the greatest satisfaction.

There were very many beautiful gowns worn, and, while not a strictly formal affair, Salem's 400 was well represented. The patronesses were: Mrs. Frank W. Benson, Mrs. J. A. Carson, Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. A. N. Gilbert, Mrs. W. J. Ball, Mrs. T. C. Smith, Mrs. E. Y. Chase, Mrs. B. O. Schucking and Mrs. Z. F. Moody.

The grand march was led by Mrs. Frank Benson and Mr. H. C. McAllister.

SALEM HIGH SECONDS DEFEAT WOODBURN HIGH

Patrick Kirk took the Salem High seconds down to Woodburn Friday afternoon, and they defeated the Woodburn Highs at football 40 to 0. It was a snappy, muddy game, but the boys enjoyed it immensely, and came home on the 6 o'clock train. This is the first scalp taken by the seconds. Charles Eyre was referee.

LIKE RATS IN TRAP

BLAZE SWEEPED THROUGH BUILDING AND STAIRWAYS BECAME GREAT CHIMNEYS THROUGH WHICH THE BLAZE FOUND ITS DEATH-DEALING WAY.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] St. Johnsbury, Vt., Oct. 30.—At least nine persons were burned to death or killed in attempting to escape today when the Citizens' Savings bank building here burned, destroying the bank and several other establishments which were located in the structure. A dozen or more seriously injured, who may not recover, have been taken to hospitals for treatment.

The known dead: CHARLES RANLETT, a printer, 35, jumped from window.

L. A. DARLING, MRS. ROSE MASSEY, STEPHEN CUSHMAN AND WIFE, BURINO CUSHMAN, 9-year-old daughter of Stephen Cushman, HERMAN TANNER AND WIFE, MRS. MAY STEEPER.

The fire spread so rapidly through the structure, blocking the stairways and filling the building with dense smoke, that it was difficult for anyone to escape and rescue work was practically impossible. Most of those who did make their way to the street were almost overcome by the flames and were badly burned.

Swiped Dad's Trousers

The home of W. C. Bealy, at 285 North Capital street, was robbed this morning between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock, the thief making good his escape with Mr. Bealy's trousers, with suspenders attached, which were lying over a chair near the bed in the sleeping room, and a gold watch which he took from the bureau top. The family was at home when the robbery occurred. The first indications noticed was that at 3 o'clock one of the family got up and closed the dining room door, which had come open, but of which nothing was thought at the time. The next thing noticed happened at the sleeping room window when a hand was seen to reach through the window, but before the occupants of the room could arouse themselves, the hand had disappeared, along with a pair of trousers. It was discovered later that a box had been set alongside the house, and the outside screen had been removed. The burglar, in order to reach the window, climbed upon the box, raised the window and took the pair of trousers from a chair standing close to the bed and ran away. His foot prints could be seen plainly where he had crossed the walk and over the lawn. It is also evident that the robber was, or had been, in the residence and had entered through the dining room door which stood open at 3 o'clock, and it is believed it was at this time that he stole the watch from the dresser top.

ELEGANT FIR OFFICES AND WAREHOUSES

The Chas. K. Spaulding Logging Co. Has Moved Into Its New and Modern Retail Quarters.

"We have aimed to fit up the finest retail offices and the largest and best warehouse for the retail lumber and building material trade in the Willamette valley," said a salesman at the C. K. Spaulding saw mill and planing plant on Front street this afternoon. The elegant new quarters are being occupied, all but the private office of the head of the institution, of which this city is justly proud. Charles K. Spaulding will have a perfect little palace of an office, fit for one of the lum-
