During the past few days nominations in the Journal's great voting contest have been received by the contest editor in a steady stream. From all over the districts in which the contest is being held candidates are entering the contest and the great interest that is being manifested on all sides will make this the greatest contest ever held in the state of Oregon.

The candidates, whose names are announced to the voters in the different districts for the first time, are a representative class of young women. In the majority of cases the nominations have been made by friends, and this in itself is proof of their popularity. Others have nominated themselves upon the solicitation of acquaintances, and so the list has grown and will still grow.

The Capital Journal's patrons will decide who of the large list of candidates will be honored by receiving the magnificent prizes. It will cost the patrons nothing to give their vote to the young lady they select as their favorite candidate. The votes are free and the nominee who receives the largest number will win the grand prize.

Great Interest Manifested.
In the city of Salem and all the territory over which this great contest extends the patrons of the Capital Journal are showing keen interest and frequently letters and telephone messages are received, asking if some person is a candidate, for the patron would be pleased to assist some friends by votes which are free.

As industry and popularity are the points that will count in the contest, the contest will certainly be a pretty race and one in which it will be an honor and a pleasure to participate. Other nominations will be received.

as soon as the patrons learn that their favorite has not yet been put up as a candidate for one of the splendid prizes.

If you have been remembered by your friends and your name is included in the list below, it gives you an opportunity to win one of the beautiful prizes offered by the Capital Journal.

Above all things do not get discouraged because some one else has a few more votes than you have. Pledge your friends to your assistance, organize your territory, and your chances for becoming a winner are greatly enhanced.

Contestants should remember one thing:

In each of the three districts we will give absolutely free on $425 Eiler piano, one gold watch, one $100 diamond ring, one six months' course in the Holmes Business College of Portland. Better still, some young lady will win the Journal's five-passenger touring car.

These prizes will be given absolutely free to the young ladies of Salem and other districts. All that is necessary to be a winner is to be one of the first four in your district when the votes are counted. The ladies to receive these prizes will be determined by popular vote, as explained elsewhere in this paper.

If there is anything concerning the contest you do not understand, write the Journal. There will be a short write-up in the paper each day from now on until the close of the contest, and those interested can keep in close touch with the contest and competing candidates. Certain it is that thirteen ladies of Salem and surrounding country are going to get one each of these magnificent rewards.

Summary of Prizes Offered.

The grand prize five-passenger automobile will go to the young lady who receives more votes than any other girl in the contest, no matter which district she resides in.

In each of the three districts we will give absolutely free one $425 Eiler upright piano, one $100 diamond ring, one beautiful gold watch, one six-months' course in the Holmes Business College, of Portland.

These prizes will be given absolutely free to the young ladies of Salem and other districts. All that is necessary to be a winner is to be one of the first four in your district when the votes are counted. The ladies to receive these prizes will be determined by popular vote, as explained elsewhere in this paper.

Read the big ad in today's paper giving a description of the prizes.

Write for Information.

If you do not fully understand the proposition or if there is any information you desire about the details write to or call on the contest manager. He will take pleasure in giving you the data you desire, and if you will file the nomination of yourself or some friend he will send the candidate the necessary blanks and forms with which to conduct the canvass for free votes.

The following list, which is divided into districts, is not complete in every respect, as some nominations have been received by late mails that have not been classified into their districts and entered on the list.

Unpaid Subscriptions Count.

All subscribers to the Journal who are in arrears on their subscription account and who settle same are entitled to votes according to the amount paid. When you pay your subscription be sure you receive the votes to which you are entitled.

How Votes Are Secured.

Votes are secured by subscribing to the Capital Journal. The ballots secured by subscribing to the Capital Journal may be held as long as desired and voted at any time up to the close of the contest, but coupons cut from the Journal are only good for ten days from publication and will not be counted if voted after the date printed on the ballot.

Persons living in one district are not confined to voting for ladies in their own particular district, but may vote for anybody in the race.

This offer affords the young women of Salem and outside districts an excellent opportunity to receive valuable presents and receive a business education at the expense of the Capital Journal.

How to Win.

Any young lady who desires to enter this contest and win one of the magnificent prizes offered should see that her name is sent to the contest department. All that is necessary to win a prize is to receive the largest number of votes according to the conditions mentioned elsewhere in this announcement.

Candidates should at once interest their friends in the contest, and by united and energetic action induce as many people as possible to vote for them. Each nomination coupon cut from The Journal will count 20 votes for a candidate.

The nomination coupons will only appear for a few days, and only a limited number of nominations will be accepted. Cut the nomination blank from this issue and send it to The Capital Journal with your name or the name and address of your favorite candidate. A subscription is not necessary, but a good start means much. The name of the person making the nomination will not be divulged, if so requested.

Orders for the prizes will be given the successful contestants at the close of the contest; same may be used by the contestant herself or disposed of in any manner she may see fit.

Any lady residing in the territory hereafter mentioned is eligible to compete in this contest.

After the first announcement of candidates the votes will be counted each day at 12:30 p. m. and the result printed in the next afternoon's issue of the Capital Journal.

How Territory Will Be Divided.

District No. 1 will include territory in the city of Salem.

District No. 2 will include all territory outside city in Marion county, Salem R. D. routes included.
