ABOUT THE OLD MAN'S PROPERTY

Of Course the Heirs Think He Was Decidedly Off If He Did Not Leave It All to Them.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Nov. 5.—It is reported here on good authority that Walter Pulitzer, of New York, author and poet, is preparing to contest the will of his father, Albert Pulitzer, author, publisher and millionaire, who killed himself in Vienna last month.

It is said that agents of the young man are now in this city gathering information regarding the erratic conduct of the late publisher when he was in San Francisco recently, with the view of attempting to prove that Pulitzer was in San Francisco when he made the will which cuts his son off with $60,000.

Gertrude Atherton, the California novelist, according to persistent rumors, will be drawn into the case and efforts will be made to secure her affidavit concerning an odd experience she had with the millionaire in the tavern on Mount Tamalpais, where both were staying for some time this spring.

It is understood also, that his barber, hotel attendants and former valet, George Schindler, of 560 Tenth street, Oakland, will be called upon to pass opinion in regard to the mental condition of the dead man.

Pulitzer invested the major portion of his fortune in Europe. It is estimated that he left several millions.

WHY FIRED A POOR LITTLE GIRL FOOL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] El Paso, Tex., Nov. 5.—Senorita Andrea Villereal, sister of Senorita Villereal, who recently was released from prison in Torreon, Mexico, was discharged today from the store where she had taken employment, to enable her to remain in this country to assist the exiled Mexican liberals.

Last evening Damon Lomeli, Mexican consul in El Paso, visited the proprietor of the store. Today Andrea was dismissed.

Friends of the young woman believe that the action of the Mexican consul was the first step of a plan on the part of the Mexican government to make her a prisoner. Local socialists today are raising a fund to defend her should she be arrested on American soil.

THE EAST SALEM DEVELOPMENT CLUB TONIGHT

The East Salem Development club meets this evening in the Central Congregational church at 8 p. m. Some may have forgotten what the club and its members accomplished last winter. We will mention a few that come to mind: Willamette addition was drained in the low part; Marion street was opened from 21st to 24th streets without any wrangling as to damages, and a petition is now out to have it improved; Chemeketa street has been widened; 21st thrown open from Asylum avenue north to Englewood; Chemeketa street will soon be opened from 21st to 24th streets; State street will be paved from 21st street to C. M. Eppley's grocery, corner of 19th and State. These references are enough to convince the most non-interested that we can do a great work toward improving and enhancing the value of Salem property.

You are wanted to come out this evening and earnestly invited to make up your mind to join with the rest of us.

Croup Cured and a Child's Life Saved.

"It affords me great pleasure to add my testimony to that of the thousands who have been benefited by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My child, Andrew, when only three years old, was taken with a severe attack of croup, and, thanks to the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy his life was saved and today he is a robust and healthy boy," says Mrs. A. Coy, Jr., of San Antonio, Texas. This remedy has been in use for many years. Thousands of mothers keep it at hand, and it has never been known to fail. For sale by all good druggists.

The Indian Medicine Man

Can produce roots and herbs for every ailment, and cure diseases that baffle our most skilled physicians, who have spent years in the study of drugs. From the roots and herbs of the field originated Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for thirty years has proved more potent and efficacious in curing female ills than any combination of drugs known.

What Would You Do?

In case of a burn or scold what would you do to relieve the pain? Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a very severe one will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar.
