

DO YOU WANT THAT FORD AUTOMOBILE?

YOU MAY OWN IT IF YOU WILL JUST SEE YOUR FRIENDS AND TELL THEM HOW THEY CAN ASSIST YOU TO THE DESIRED END.

TODAY IS THE LAST DAY OF THE SPECIAL OFFER

The Special Offer for New Subscribers closes This Evening at 11:00 p. m. The contest closes Dec. 18, 1909, at 11 p. m. Do not get these dates confused.

THE PRIZES

- * Capital Prize—One Five-Passenger, 30-h. p. Automobile. On display at Salem Auto Garage.
- * Grand Prizes—Three $425 Eiler Pianos.
- * Three $100 Diamond Rings, bought and on display at C. H. Hinges' Jewelry Store.
- * Three Beautiful Gold Watches.
- * Three Six Months' Scholarship in the Holmes Business College.

Commission Paid—All candidates not winning prizes will be paid 5 per cent of all money turned in by them during the contest.

"Count the day last whose sun, descending fast, Views from thy hand and no bunch of ballots cast." From the Lyrics of the Contest Manager.

The great special offer made to contestants closes tonight at 11 o'clock p. m. In order to have subscriptions count on this offer all subscriptions must be received at the Capital Journal office by this hour.

In order to give the girls in the territory outside of the city the same amount of time to work as those in the city the management will accept all subscriptions sent them that are mailed before 11 o'clock tonight, but the envelope or package in which subscriptions are sent must bear the postmark of the date and hour mailed together with the postmaster's name and the hour mailed at his office on outside of envelope.

Sixty months' new business for the Capital Journal will entitle you to a special ballot of 50,000 votes. Each and every month over the sixty you may be able to secure, will entitle you to the proper proportion of another 50,000; in other words, the larger the number of new months, the larger your special offer ballot will be.

Each and every nomination blank that is cut from the Capital Journal counts twenty votes, and a girl can be nominated as many times as she can get blanks. With the passing of each day the interest in the contest is spreading more and more and the enthusiasm of the contestants is reaching a higher pitch. From the impetus given the work of gathering the free poll it is an assured fact that the project will be one of the greatest successes ever conducted by any newspaper.

Both in the city and in the territory outside of the city over which the contest extends, there is the element of activity that bespeaks favorably for some great things during the next few weeks or even days. Every day many votes are received from the candidates or their friends which completely changes the aspect of the contest in certain districts.

Without doubt the contest now in progress and by which the winners of the grand prizes will be decided, will become the greatest and most gigantic ever attempted by any newspaper before it is brought to a close Dec. 18, 1909. The votes that will decide who will be the winners are free to patrons.

Votes are allowed to patrons upon payment for subscriptions, for new subscriptions and also by coupons printed in the paper daily. No increase in the price of subscription is made; to the contrary, there is a saving by paying in advance, and it is therefore a pleasure for the candidates to go among their friends and solicit their votes in the contest that will prove the ability of the young woman in the counties over which the contest extends.

False Rumors. Do not believe all you hear. Some one will try to discourage every good thing. False rumors of all sorts will be going around and the contestant should not allow any one to discourage her by telling different things they have heard. Kindly remember they are not in a position to judge the contest as well as you. The contest manager has been through many contests and he knows what is most liable to happen in any big contest. Remember this, the girl who works well.

Friends Who Help. Friends who subscribe for the paper for a term are not really donating anything from their pockets, since they subscribe to the Journal which will be sent to any address to which the subscription is paid. The Journal will not only maintain its present standard of a clean and newsy, reliable family paper, but will go on improving its columns and so far as possible perfecting its delivery service so that there will be no regrets at having subscribed to help some deserving contestants.

A difference of a few thousand votes is not a very large margin, as it means but a year or six months' subscription to The Journal, and those who are behind by such a small number should not lose heart by any means, but keep on with the race with renewed vigor. A race is never ended until the time for the last competitor to win out. Keep up with the contest and make it your determination to win and you will be successful.

As industry and popularity are the points that will count in the contest the contest will certainly be a pretty race and one which it will be an honor and a pleasure to participate. Other nominations will be received as soon as the patrons learn that their favorite has not as yet been put up as a candidate for one of the splendid prizes.

If you have been remembered by your friends and your name is included in the list below, it gives you an opportunity to win one of the prizes offered by the Capital Journal. Above all things do not get discouraged because some one else has a few more votes than you have. Pledge your friends to your assistance, organize your territory, and your success is sure.

Magnitude of Contest. The contest, by this distribution of such a great number of prizes and the value attached thereto, becomes one of state wide interest. Thousands of people will watch closely the standing of the various candidates and for that reason the standing of the candidates and the number of votes to their credit will be published daily. All will then know just where each one stands and can work accordingly.

Open Evenings. For the benefit of those who are not able to get to this office during business hours the contest department will be open every evening until nine o'clock.
