

OVERSTOCKED SALE

Ladies' and Misses' Suits and Coats at
The Vogue Millinery Shop, 270 Commercial St.

As advertised Friday, on account of the deluged opening of the Standard Suit Co. of Portland, I find I'm compelled to slaughter the stock on account of the vast quantity of suits and coats that have been arriving daily from New York. You can buy yourself a suit or coat from me at what they absolutely cost. That means a saving of $10.00 to $15.00 on every suit or coat. Besides All Alterations Free.

They are the Newest Weaves
They are the Latest Shades
They are the Newest Cut

The people of Salem have responded nobly. They have appreciated our bargains and our stock is materially reduced. Remember this opportunity to get a suit at a dealer's price ends Saturday, December 4, 1909.

$25.00 to $30.00 Suits, sale price	$15.75
$30.00 to $35.00 Suits, sale price	$19.50
$35.00 to $40.00 Suits, sale price	$24.85
$45.00 to $50.00 Suits, sale price	$29.50
Up to $75.00 Suits, sale price	$35.75
Coats.....$7.85 to $28.50	A Few Capes; a Few Dresses
Raincoats, $17.50 to $20.00 sale price	$12.50

Remember, All Alterations Free. We Guarantee to Fit You Perfectly.

Mrs. E. H. White, at The Vogue Millinery Shop, 270 Commercial St.

CLAIMED BY GRIM REAPER

Miss Inez Bollier Finally Succumbs to the Ravages of Dread Malady.

Miss Inez Bollier, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bollier, and one of Salem's most popular young ladies, passed away at her home on South Thirteenth street Saturday, November 27, 1909, after a short illness of typhoid fever.

The untimely death of Miss Bollier comes as a shock of sincere sorrow and grief, both to her parents and friends, the latter of which are many. Inez was 21 years of age and an exceptionally intelligent young woman. She was respected and loved by all who knew her, and to strangers she displayed an attitude of respect which won the friendship of all with whom she came in contact, both in a business and social way.

Miss Bollier was a trusted employee of the county clerk's office, which is a the county clerk's office, which will be missed tomorrow out of respect for the death of a valued member of the county clerk's force. The poor girl experienced the first symptoms of fever while working in the office about two weeks ago, and was compelled to discontinue her work, and, despite the combined efforts of some of the best medical talent of the city, she finally succumbed to the ravages of the dread malady.

At present the father of Miss Bollier is in Montana, and funeral arrangements will be postponed until his arrival.

The funeral of Inez Bollier will be held from the Presbyterian church at 1:30 tomorrow. Interment will be in the city View cemetery.

Try a Journal want ad.

TO HOLD SPECIAL SESSION

The county court will hold a special session tomorrow, at which time they will take up matters concerning the replacing of several county bridges which were washed out by the high water and regarding the proposed purchase of cement filling and blocks for drainage purposes. All the county bridges and crossings were damaged more or less by the high water of last week, with the exception of the Santiam bridge at Stayton. That structure withstood the great rush of water well, and it stands as solid as ever. A monstrous tree was hurled against one corner of the structural work underneath, and a small piece torn away, but no material damage was done.

BODY OF NUDE WOMAN DISCOVERED IN A WELL

(United Press Leased Wire)
Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 29.—A nude human body, presumably that of a young woman, with the right side of the skull fractured and the jaw broken, was discovered at the bottom of an old well on the Crinklaw ranch, in Coyote Pass, just out of the city limits last night, and will be brought to the surface today.

Every indication points to foul play. The body, stripped of its clothes, had been dumped into the slush of the well. A board jammed against it had kept the body from rising to the surface of the brackish water until the formation of gases lifted it.

WOULDN'T PAY BILLS IS REMANDED TO JAIL

Denver, Colo., Nov. 29.—Because she refused to pay her husband's funeral expenses, Mrs. May McClure today was sentenced to serve six months in jail at Cripple Creek.

WORKING TO SAVE ITS LOGS

The Spaulding Logging Company of this city is taking advantage of the high water and is placing its towing steamers on the regular log delivering route. Yesterday the City of Eugene towed a large boom of logs to the local mills, and returned to the company's camp on the upper river this morning for another tow. The Spaulding Company was fortunate during the freshet, in that it did not lose a log, notwithstanding the river rose quick and unexpectedly. The Spaulding Company is continually on the alert for unseasonable floods, and its holdings are generally made secure against loss.

ARKANSAS GIRLS ENGAGE IN DUEL

(United Press Leased Wire)
Bradford, Ark., Nov. 29.—Miss Nora Owens is dead and Miss Stella Belk is under arrest today as the result of a knife duel the young women fought in the main street of the village of Allela, near this city.

The quarrel, which resulted in the death of Miss Owens, is said to have been of long standing. Its nature was not made public.

Miss Owens received four severe slashes on her left arm and shoulder. A thrust over her left breast, which severed an artery, proved fatal. Miss Belk was arrested immediately.

What Would You Do?
In case of a burn or scold what would you do to relieve the pain?

Such injuries are liable to occur in any family and everyone should be prepared for them. Chamberlain's Salve applied on a soft cloth will relieve the pain almost instantly, and one will cause the parts to heal without leaving a scar. For sale by all good druggists. unless the injury is a very severe

Bishop's Ready Tailored Clothes $10 to $35.00

Includes every model of advance fashion, in guaranteed worsteds and woolens of newest exclusive weaves. Get your suit or overcoat now for the holidays : : : :

Salem Woolen Mill Store