SQUARE DEAL

THE GREATEST SALE EVER HELD IN SALEM One=Half One=Half One=Half

Think of it! Right in the midst of the season, on high-class Suits, Dresses, Coats, Skirts. Your choice, less one-half.

Remember

Our stock consists of the best New York styles, the fabrics are the choice of experts, and are the best materials and patterns produced on two continents.

Don't Be Deceived

We buy direct from the maker, thus eliminating the middleman's profit and when we cut such high-grade merchandise right square in two, it's time for everyone to sit up and take notice.

Are Warned

Against old stocks brought here and thrown on the market; also fake sales. Stick to the old reliable store and help make Salem's greatest store the GOOD GOODS store bigger and better. All garments are marked in plain figures: Children can figure the prices-divide by two.

What This Means

It means that we are sacrificing one of the finest stocks of merchandise in the northwest to protect our customers and as many others who wish to partake from being doped into buying second-grade, yes, third-grade merchandise and paying fancy prices. Believe us and we will more than deliver value with every dollar spent.

GLAD TO SET

Captain Snyder and Nine Other Survivors of the Wrecked Argo Reach Astoria.

ited States lighthouse tender Manzanita arrived in port at noon today with Captain Snyder and nine other survivors of the wrecken steamer Argo, who have been marooned on the lightship at the mouth of the Columbia river since last Saturday morning. Captain Sny der reports that none of the men who left the sinking Argo in the lifeboat with him was lost. All were elated to reach shore again after their terrible experience at sea, and they were heartily greeted by mariners at this port. Captain Snyder at once sent messages to his wife, in Portland, and to the owners of the vessel The names of the nine who arrived with Captain Snyder are: Purser W. W. Simpson.. Chief Engineer J. H. Snyder. First Asisstant Engineer Thomas

Offer Mangus Peterson. Fireman Carl Frederickson. Seaman John Multhouse. Seaman Amick Leberge. Steward Charles Graves.

Passenger G. Hickley, of Astoria. Captain Snyder was averse to disussing the cause of the wreck, though he intimated that it was not he result of faulty seamanship. Other members of the crew, however stated that the wreek followed the breaking of the starboard propeller.

ABE RUEF APPEALS

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] San Francisco, Nov. 30 .- Claiming that his heart and lungs are affected. and that he cannot live unless he is removed to a more comfortable place of abode than the county jail, Abe Ruef, the convicted boodling boss of San Francisco, today filed a petition in the superior court for admission

The application was filed by Ruef's attorney, George Keane, and is sup-ported by the statement of a number of physicians, who examined the prisoner, and all of whom say that his health is endangered by imprison-
