

An Opportunity to Make a Great Record

EXTRA PRIZES HAVE BEEN PLACED ON DISPLAY

MANY CANDIDATES PUTTING FORTH EVERY EFFORT TO WIN ONE OF THE HIGH GRADE PRIZES WE ARE OFFERING

NOW IS THE TIME FOR YOU TO GET BUSY

This special offer made to the contestants for the next twelve days seems to have met with the approval of all candidates and all are working with renewed energy to secure one of the special offer prizes. It is a great opportunity for all, and should be taken advantage of by all candidates who expect to win one of the Capital Journal grand prizes. This special offer is a very short one and those who expect to receive a special ballot must get busy at once. It is not necessary to hold back your subscriptions and turn in five at one time, as the contest manager will keep an accurate account of every new subscription turned in for each candidate during these twelve days, at the end of which we will mail each girl the special ballot to which she is entitled. The regular ballots given on subscriptions will be issued as in the past, and can be held as a reserve or voted.

Every one can win a ballot if she tries. There will be plenty of time to get in new subscriptions if a little effort is displayed. The extra votes may win the auto or one of the four prizes and as another offer of this kind will not be made it would be a good idea to take advantage of this one while the opportunity is presented.

No contestant is restricted as to the size of her ballot. If she is able to secure ten yearly subscriptions during these twelve days she can do so, and will receive a ballot for 100,000 votes, or in proportion to the number turned in.

In no part of this country are the people on the same terms of friendly interest as in this vicinity and for this reason the Capital Journal contest is infinitely more interesting than contests of like character in the east. Here every young woman with public spirit and the sort of energy that counts in the returns, is something of an unconscious politician, or has friends with political genius. Practically all of the Capital Journal contestants have been brought into the contest through enthusiasm of their friends. But the spirit of ambition—a disposition not to be beaten—keeps them going and makes success a matter of personal pride.

One given in each district; were bought and are on display at Barr Jewelry Store, Genuine Elgin Works, Hunting Case.

The winners of the principal prizes

Three of these Beautiful Gold Watch.

In this contest will have demonstrated the possession of elements of personal ambition that would carry them to almost any extent if they were running for office. This is the more marked in the contest for the fact that the friends and partisans who are doing the hustling and piling up the votes for their favorites have no hope of future reward—except the knowledge that they have done their best for a friend.

The friendly rivalry that has been inspired already has taken hold on communities as well as individuals. The returns, for instance, show that that some of the smaller towns are getting into the game for their candidates and are likely to astonish some very much larger communities by the size of the votes they will cast before the contest closes. And the vote shows on the fact of it that none of the leaders in the various classes are sitting easy. New candidates of great promise are coming in every day and candidates who have not ranked high in the returns made so far are turning in windfalls of votes that lend an air of sustained interest to the contest in all the communities. The contestant who is far from the top in the returns today is likely to turn up tomorrow with a large bunch of votes that will change the face of the returns tremendously. Local pride is being stimulated in nearly every town in all districts, and the short candidate of yesterday may be the favorite the day after tomorrow.

Practically every reader of the Capital Journal has some friend entered as a candidate in one of the districts, and it is worth everybody's while to read the terms of the contest, and the manner of voting as indicated on this page.

Friends Who Help.

Friends who subscribe for the paper for a term are really not donating anything from their pockets, since they subscribe to the Journal, which will be sent to any address to which the subscription is paid. The Journal will not only maintain its present standard of a clean and new, reliable family paper, but will go on improving its columns and so far as possible perfecting its delivery service so that there will be no regrets at having subscribed to help some deserving contestant.

A difference of a few thousand votes is not a very large margin, as it means but a year or six months' subscription to the Journal and those who are behind by such a small number should not lose heart by any means, but keep on with the race with renewed vigor. A race is never ended until time for the last competitor to win out. Keep up with the contest and make it your determination to win and you will be successful.

As industry and popularity are the points that will count in the contest, the contest will certainly be a pretty race and one in which it will be an honor and a pleasure to participate. Other nominations will be received as soon as the patrons learn that their favorite has not as yet been put up as a candidate for one of the splendid prizes.

If you have been remembered by your friends and your name is included in the list below, it gives you an opportunity to win one of the beautiful prizes offered by the Capital Journal.

Above all things do not get discouraged because someone else has a few more votes than you have. Pledge your friends to your assistance, organize your territory, and your success is sure.

The Capital Prize Has Arrived.

The 1910 Ford has arrived and will be on exhibition in front of the Journal office each day, those who have already seen this fine car are more than praising it in many different ways. Many people have come to the office purposely to see the auto as this is one of the first 1910 automobiles to arrive in Salem of any of the hundred makes which are sold by local dealers. It was the prompt work of the Standard Motor Car Company of Portland that secured one of the first of the new improved cars that was shipped from the large Ford factory. This fact is appreciated by the many candidates in the great contest, and they will work all the harder to become the proud owner of the car. Another fact worthy of mention in regard to the Ford automobiles is that there are over 25,000 of this well known cars in use today. This speaks alone for the Ford.

How Ballots Are Secured.

In all cases where ballots are issued, subscriptions must be paid or prepaid. The full amount of money must be sent direct by mail or brought to the Journal office.

One of the 1100 Diamond Rings, Given one in Each Contest. False Rumor.

Do not believe all you hear. Some one will try to discourage every good thing. False rumors of all sorts will be going around and the contestant should not allow anyone to discourage her by telling different things they have heard. Kindly remember they are not in a position to judge the contest as well as you.

The contest manager has been through many different contests and he knows what is most liable to happen in any big contest—Remember this, the girl who works will win.

Second Payments.

A great many people do not understand, and for their information we wish to say that anyone starting to take the paper since the contest started will always be considered a new subscriber during the life of the contest and votes given accordingly. If you start the paper now pay something in advance and wish to pay more later during the contest you will still be considered a new subscriber and votes will be issued accordingly.

Small Payments.

Candidates that have taken subscriptions for one, two or three months at the beginning of the contest should get these subscribers to pay the rest of the year as they are still considered new.

For example, a person who subscribed for the paper and paid 50 cents, received 700 votes, by getting them to pay $5.50 more you will give them 15,000 votes, less the 700 votes you have already received on the 50 cent payment, or 14,300 votes on $5.50 payment. This ruling also applies to any second payment you may secure. The price by mail and at suburban stores is $4.00 per year, or 35 cents per month. Second payments made at this rate count the same number of votes, but in all cases six months or more must be added to entitle you to the second payment. When turning in such payments, kindly mark your stub "second payment."

Open Evenings.

For the benefit of those who are not able to get to the office during business hours the contest department will be open every evening until nine o'clock.

GREAT SPECIAL OFFER

For twelve days, beginning Monday, November 29, at 8 a. m., and ending December 11, 1909, at 11 a. m., sharp, in addition to the above schedule of votes we make the following offer:

We will give to each and every contestant an extra ballot of 50,000 votes who turns into the Capital Journal office five new 12-month daily subscriptions between November 29 and December 11, 1909. We will also give each contestant an extra ballot of 25,000 votes who turns in five new 6-months daily subscriptions between these dates.

How Special Offer Prizes Are Awarded

To the candidate who earns the largest Special Offer Ballot during this offer, we will present this beautiful $60 Solid Brass Bed. To the candidate who earns the next largest ballot will be presented the $25 Princess Dressing Table. Nothing less than a 6-months' daily subscription will apply on this offer. These records will be given to the judges, who will have full charge of the counting of votes and they will decide the winners of these two special offer prizes.

THIS IS THE CHANCE TO CATH THE LEADERS—BESIDES WIN AN EXTRA PRIZE.

Do not hold subscriptions back but send them as you receive them. The contest manager will keep an accurate account of subscriptions from each contestant and will, at the expiration of this offer, mail the Special Offer Ballots to those entitled to same.
