

FASHION GOSSIP FROM NEW YORK

Simple Evening Frocks—Dancing Gowns—Black and Gray of the Miment—Draped Effects.

Dame Fashion is a lady of many moods and while some of her designs are costly and over elaborate, others are simple and chic in the extreme.

Very many of the newest evening gowns have short skirts. The narrow train of last summer is out of date and rounder lines prevail.

A charming new idea in evening coats has just been introduced in New York that will most certainly delight the heart of the girl whose last year's coat needs freshening a little to bring it up to date.

There is a perfect craze for black in the fashionable world at present. Street frocks, evening gowns, hats and furs are all extremely modish in this sable hue.

The designers of some of the new...

est frocks seem to have gone mad over draperies. These naturally do not appear in tailor gowns but run riot in drowsy frocks of soft sheer materials.

The drapery on this frock was very slight yet the effect was much better and the costume much more serviceable than some of the over elaborate effects.

Fashionable Dress Accessories. The yokes and vests on nearly all the fashionable frocks this season show a complete absence of tucking, lace or net stretched perfectly plain is the very newest mode.

Many artificial flowers are used with evening gowns. These garnitures are worn at the decollete or waist line.

Long hair pins and combs made of shell and imitations of tortoise and amber with square tops are seen in the modish culture.

The feed chopper is not a weather prophet, nor does he have to be to suggest that this winter is beginning much as did that severe and snowy one of 1886-7.
