A TE THEIR MOCCASINS AND MUCKLUCKS

JUDGE MAY EXTERMINATE CHINATOWN

Even at the Cost of Trouble With the Yellow Skinned Celestial Empire.

CHINESE MURDERER IS DENIED BAIL

Judge Frank Dunne, of California, Favors the Wiping Out of San Francisco's China Town if It Would Tend to Restore Peace in the Community.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
San Francisco, Dec. 24.—That he would exterminate San Francisco's Chinatown at the cost of trouble with China, if the action would result in the preservation of peace in the community, was the statement made on the bench today by Judge Frank Dunne, of the California superior court.

In denying the motion for bail for Tong King Chong, charged with the murder of Yee Fung Woo on November 2, during the height of the long war that has been raging in the state for two months, Judge Dunne said:

"I consider it my duty to preserve order in the community. I would favor a movement to wipe out Chinatown if such a proceeding would help to preserve order, even though it cost international complications.

WILL CONTRACT HIS HOPS FOR THIRTY YEARS

John Walling, one of the pioneer farmers of Polk county, was doing Christmas shopping in the city yesterday. Mr. Walling has a 77-acre farm of bottom land about seven miles north of the city, 40 of which is in hops and the balance is devoted to raising hay, fruit and garden truck. In speaking of the hop situation this year Mr. Walling stated that he was willing to contract the half of his yearly production, which is approximately 65,000 pounds for a term of 30 years at 15 cents per pound.

Goes to Meet Santa Claus

Mr. H. B. Shofner, one of the proprietors of the Oregon Art Tile Co., the largest tile contracting firm in the Northwest, who has been in the city overseeing the tile work in the U. S. National Bank building, left this afternoon for his home in Portland to spend Christmas.

FORTY-SEVEN DAYS FROM FT. M'PHERSON TO DAWSON

Food Gave Out and the Men Experienced Hardship Far Worse Than Those of Peary.

MUSHED IN THE BLINDING FOG FOR TWENTY-FIVE DAYS

Experience of Bishop L. O. Stringer, of the Church of England, Yukon Diocese, and Missionary Charles F. Johnson. Stumble Into An Indian Camp and Are Saved.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Dawson, Y. T., Dec. 24.—Bishop L. O. Stringer, of the Church of England, Yukon diocese, has arrived here 47 days from Fort McPherson, at the mouth of the McKenzie river, bringing the first advices since summer from that region. The bishop and Missionary Charles F. Johnson started from Fort McPherson September 1, hoping to cross the head of the Porcupine river in time to reach the Yukon river last fall with a canoe. The head of Bell river, emptying into the Porcupine river, was partly frozen, so they had to walk back to Fort McPherson. For 25 days they munched in the blinding fogs of Arctic storms with little food. Supplies finally gave out and the men experienced hardships worse than those of Peary. For many days there was only a handful of food for each man daily. Finally the party was compelled to take their moccasins and muckluks from their feet and eat them. They were able then to walk only five or ten miles a day, when they stumbled into an Indian camp where there were plenty of supplies. Their moccasins and muckluks had kept them alive for several days.

Each man lost 50 pounds in weight. Johnson remained at Fort McPherson. After the rivers froze solid the bishop, with two Indians, started for Dawson via Rampart and Fort McPherson and came through with no further difficulty.

WILL GIVE OVERALL A BONUS OF $500

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Chicago, Dec. 24.—President Murphy of the Chicago club announced today that he has promised a $500 bonus to Orval Overall if the big right hander wins 30 games next season.

Overall drew down an extra check for his work last season, and President Murphy promised him another if 30 games fall to the Cubs through "Big Jeff's" efforts.

Inasmuch as few of the Cubs are worked for 30 games, sports here do not believe Overall will rest contented with $500, and look for him to demand a larger bonus.

DISBARRED LAWYER IS IN JAIL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 24.—W. J. Danford, who was recently disbarred from the practice of law by the superior court, is in jail, charged with having forged a telegram in an effort to obtain a loan of $1,000.

He was taken to the county jail late last night. Danford strenuously denied that he was guilty of any offense. He declared that he was attempting to secure a loan for a client, whose name he refused to divulge.

According to C. J. O'Keefe, who swore to the warrant, Danford solicited a loan of $1,000 from him and as security offered a $5,000 bond purporting to be issued by the San Miguel Gas Light & Power company of Telluride, Colo. Danford stated, according to O'Keefe, that the bonds matured in May, 1910.

O'Keefe insisted on telegraphing to the company and the message was written and delivered to a messenger. Then he alleges Danford called up the telegraph company, regained possession if the message before it had been transmitted, then forged a reply to the effect that the bonds matured in May, which he gave to O'Keefe. O'Keefe made inquiries and learned, so he alleges, that no telegram had been sent or received. Then he had Danford arrested.

REVIEW OF JANUARY EDISON RECORDS

To the lover of light and popular songs and music, as well as to those who discriminate in favor of the higher grade selections, the Edison Phonographic Amberol and Standard Record lists for January will alike appeal. The Amberol list includes such well-known selections as "Washington Post and the High School Cadets March," (one record) by Sousa's Band; "Redhead," sung by Ada Jones; "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," by Manuel Roman; "Ring o' Roses," the popular duet from "The Dollar Princess," by Wheeler and Anthony, who also sing the beautiful "Gobble Duet, from 'The Mascot'; "Monte Cristo Waltz," by the famous Jorda-Rocabruna Quintette, and "Berceuse De Jocelyn," a cello solo by Jean Schwiller. In the Amberol list there are also found two vocal numbers in Hebrew and three in Italian, the best known of the latter being the popular Italian folk song, "Cibiribibi," by Maria Avezza and Francesco Daddi.

In the Standard list are found "The Summer Girl," by Sousa's Band; "Oriental March," by Victor Herbert's Orchestra; Beasie Wynn, in a comic song; "Ma L'il Sweet Sump-beam," a delightful mammy song by Mabel McKinley; "Wild Cherries--Coony, Spooky, Rag," by Edward Meeker; Jack Pleasants, a unique English comedian, in an entirely novel song, "I Said 'Hooray';" as well as a variety of solos, duets, quartet vocal selections and the usual quota of instrumental numbers.

BAD CHECK GETS HIM IN TROUBLE

Governor Benson received a message today from the deputy sheriff of Spokane county, who recently arrested E. H. Overman, at the Dalles on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses in the city of Spokane, and advised him that requisition papers from Governor Hay, of Washington, asking that Overman be returned to the state of Washington to stand trial, were being forwarded to him by mail.

Overman recently started, or purchased, a paper in the town of Dufur, and was arrested several days ago on complaint made against him by parties in the city of Spokane, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses, by passing a check without funds in the bank with which to pay it. An effort was made at the time to have the case dismissed by the payment of the money which the check called for, but this the Spokane parties would not agree to do, and it seems that then Overman declined to return to the state of Washington without the necessary extradition papers. The papers are expected to arrive this evening or early tomorrow morning, when they will be considered and acted upon by the governor. Overman had but recently located in Dufur, and had just moved his family to the place, when the arrest was made.

Arrested for Non-Support—
A complaint was filed in the county court against E. H. Simon, charging him with non-support of his wife, Nancy M. Simon, and the two minor children. Mrs. Simon is the private prosecutor.

MYSTERIOUS FLYING MACHINE

Makes Night Trip From Worcester, Mass., to New York and Return.

INVENTOR SAID TO BE BACKED BY J. D. GOUGH

The Aeroplane Is Supposed to Be the Invention of a Worcester Man and Can Maintain a Speed of 100 Miles An Hour—Holds Top Rank on All Airships.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Worcester, Mass., Dec. 24.—It is believed that the home of the mysterious airship, which sailed over this city Wednesday night, and is believed by many to be the most wonderful air craft ever set afloat, was found today by a staff correspondent of the United Press on the estate of John B. Gough, six miles from here.

The correspondent discovered a shed over 100 feet long concealed in a dense woods. Fourteen men in the employ of the Morgan Telephone Company, of this city, were at work on some secret occupation.

The aeroplane was not seen, as the correspondent was captured and hauled before a justice of the peace, by whom he was fined for trespassing.

Paul B. Morgan, head of the telephone company, is a close friend of Wallace E. Tillinghast, who is supposed to be the inventor of the mysterious flying machine.

Morgan has been interested in aviation for several years, and two years ago he spent $15,000 trying to perfect a machine invented by a Swedish aviator. The Swedish invention, however, proved unsatisfactory, and was abandoned.

John D. Gough, on whose estate the shed was found, is an old-time temperance lecturer, and is friendly with Tillinghast and Morgan. His place is near West Boylston.

Though Tillinghast himself is believed to have been in this city last night, it is thought very probable that one of his mechanics made a flight last night, and that it was his machine that was reported sailing over a dozen Massachusetts villages.

In his interviews given out at the time he announced the flight to New York and return, Tillinghast said that the mechanics in his employ were experts, and that they could operate the machine without his assistance or direction.

Reports of last night's flight come from various directions. Many of those who saw the craft declare that they could make out the outlines of two men seated in the frame of the ship. Others say that only one person was aboard. All agree, however, that the framework of the machine could be plainly discerned.

The machine was seen at Northboro, Popedale, Grafton, North Grafton, Upton, Marlboro, South Farmington and also was reported to have been seen from Boston Common.

Tillinghast remained silent today and refused to discuss his airship in any way. The belief that he is the inventor of one of the most remarkable airships the world has known has grown here into almost a certainty in the minds of the townspeople.

If Tillinghast's statements, that he made the trip from here to New York; from there to Boston, and from Boston back to Worcester without a light, and that his machine will maintain a speed of 120 miles an hour, are true, the aviation world
