> Just as we go to press a jury was empaneled in the case of Geo. Meyers, charged with the murder of Night Patrolman Thomas Eckhart, and, after a brief statement of the case for the state by District Attorney McNary, and a statement of the facts to be proved by the defense by Attorney D'Arcy, the taking of evidence was commenced.

Arthur Meyers, a brother of the defendant, was the first witness called by the state, and his evidence was with relation to the trouble experienced between he and the defendant on the night preceding the tragedy. He testified that on that n'ght, at about 12 o'clock, when he entered the room over the Zinn confectionery store he found it occupied by the defendant; that he had his feet on some cushions presented to him by his mother, and that he had asked him to take them down. and when he refused that a quarrel followed, and he went for an officer, and the defendant's arrest followed. un cros-examination he admitted that the defenant had a right to be in the room.

Peter Graber was the second witness called by the state.
