

ALBANY IS WORKING FOR AN ARMORY

Box of Oregon Apples Sell for Three Dollars a Piece at Auction.

Albany, Ore., Jan. 5.—Gen Frazier has just announced that Albany has been named as one of the three cities of the state which has the opportunity of securing an armory.

Under the act of February 4, 1909, the state will pay half the expenses of a $20,000 armory the other half to be made up by the city.

The citizens of Albany are already making arrangements for the raising of their share, as a modern armory is one of Albany's greatest needs.

J. M. Hawkins, a local abstract man, has just returned from Paris, Ills. While there he auctioned off a box of Albany apples which he had taken with him, and the beauties netted three dollars a piece. The proceeds was used to buy Christmas presents for the poor children of that city.

OREGON STATE FAIR BOARD MEETS JAN 17

Albany Man Appointed a Member of the State Fair Board by Governor.

Albany, Ore., Jan. 5.—The Delta Pi Society of Albany College, which gave one of the swellest balls of the season on New Year's night, have just turned over $50 towards the building of the city park. This sum was the net sum of the dance.

Gov. Benson has just appointed Mark Hulbert of this city as a member of the Oregon State Fair Board. Mr. Hulbert had just completed a four-year membership and his re-appointment was one of good judgment, as Mr. Hulbert has proved himself the best stockraiser in the Willamette valley. The annual meeting of the board takes place on January 17th.

FAVORS GIVING HIS CONGREGATION A REST

Rev. J. R. N. Bell, former editor of The Review, now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Corvallis, arrived in Roseburg Monday evening and left this morning for Southern California and Mexico. He expects to be gone six weeks, and during part of that time he will attend special lectures at Berkeley and Stanford. Enroute on his return home, Dr. Bell will spend several days in Roseburg. "I'm not taking this trip for my health," said Dr. Bell this morning. "I'm going to give my congregation a rest. If other preachers would do the same thing it would be a grand thing for their parishioners."—Roseburg Review.

LEE MATLOCK CASE COMES UP MONDAY

Judge Burnett Will Pass Sentence on Gamblers at 9 o'Clock Tomorrow.

Tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock is the hour set by Judge Burnett for the pronouncing of sentence in several cases where the defendants have plead guilty to the charge preferred against them in the indictments found by the grand jury.

At this time sentence will be imposed on Emory James, Sam Morgan and Charles Pellette, who have plead guilty to violating the state gambling law; and also Fred Hardman, who was indicted as A. H. Miller on the charge of stealing a bicycle, and who has also plead guilty to the charge.

Matlock Case Monday.
 From now until Monday the court will be occupied with the hearing of civil cases in the trial of which a jury is necessary, and on the morning of that day the case of the State of Oregon against Lee Matlock, charged with statutory rape, will come up for trial. The state will be represented by District Attorney McNary, and the law firm of Carson & Brown will appear for the defendant.

The State of Oregon against Jos. J. Buhlight, charged with extortion, will follow on Thursday. The defendant appeared in court this morning with Attorney Brown, of Carson & Brown, and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge. These are all of the criminal cases which have been set for trial, and probably all which will be tried during the term.

The case of R. R. Ryan against Eliza Coleman and James R. Coleman is being heard today in the circuit court. The action is brought by the plaintiff for the purpose of recovering a real estate commission alleged to be due from the defendants. Cary F. Martin is appearing for the plaintiff, and defendants are represented by John H. and C. L. McNary.

There is no Quinine, nothing whatever harsh or sickening in Preventics. These little Candy Cold Cure Tablets act as magic. A few hours—and your threatening cold is broken. Candy-like in taste. Preventics please the children—and they break the feverishness, always. And least of all is the economy. A large box—48 Preventics—25 cents. Ask your druggist. He knows! Sold by Capital Drug Store Co.

Cured of a Severe Attack of Bronchitis by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"On October 18th, last, my little three year old daughter contracted a severe cold which resulted in a bad case of bronchitis," says Mrs. W. G. Gibson, Lexington, Ky. "She lost the power of speech completely and was a very sick child. Fortunately we had a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and gave it to her according to the printed directions. On the second day she was a great deal better, and on the fifth day, October 23rd, she was entirely well of her cold and bronchitis, which I attribute to this splendid medicine. I recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy unreservedly as I have found it the surest, safest and quickest cure for colds, both for children and adults, of any I have ever used." For sale by all good druggists.
