MUSLIN UNDERWEAR
At Clearance Sale Prices

Beautiful, to say the least; snowywhite undermuslins, the buds from the best producers made up to fashion's ideal wants; every piece a work of art. At this sale they are melting away just like so much snow. Women seem dazed when they are told the prices. It seems awful to quote such low prices on such goods of merit. We advise early shopping before the best is gone. Reduced

PROVED TO BE CROTON OIL

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.]
Payette, Ida., Jan. 14.—Twenty-five women who partook of a banquet given by the Royal Neighbors lodge are in a serious condition today from poison. Although no fatalities resulted, many of the women required the services of physicians and are still very sick. A number became ill before the banquet was over and all were in agony before the night passed.

At first it was believed that the symptoms pointed to croton oil. A rigid investigation will be made.

Inquiry at a local drugstore revealed the fact that a girl who was present at the banquet had purchased a quantity of croton oil yesterday without the knowledge of her parents. Her mother was one of the victims.

OREGON PERSONALS FROM LOS ANGELES

Howard H. Markel, formerly a student of Willamette University, recently underwent an operation in San Francisco for appendicitis. Mr. Markel has recovered sufficiently from the effects of the operation to resume his studies in the medical department of the University of California.

Mrs. Albert Salg, who has been visiting relatives in Portland for the past several weeks, has gone to Los Angeles, where she will join her husband. Mr. and Mrs. Salg formerly resided in this city, where they conducted a photograph studio.

A special dispatch to the Examiner from Los Angeles of Jan. 10, says: Mrs. Feltha Cumi Shorridge, mother of Mrs. Clara Shorridge Foltz of Los Angeles, Samuel M. Shorridge of San Francisco and Charles M. Shorridge of San Jose, died tonight at the home of Mrs. Foltz, 1729 West Picostreet. She was 58 years old. She had just returned from a two months' visit with her sons. Mrs. Shorridge was a native of Indiana and came to California in 1873. Funeral services will be held in San Jose and the body interred in the family burial plot.

The Shorridge family formerly resided in Salem and will be remembered by many of the pioneers of this vicinity.

PERSONAL MENTION

From One Extreme to the Other.
The weather forecaster was in a fluke frame of mind last night when he brought a rain-storm down on the unsuspecting heads of Salem people and then turned off the water and change the climate to a dry freeze. The thermometer did not get below 30 degrees however, and was just the right gauge to dry up the water and dampness.

Came Near Choking to Death.

A little boy, the son of Chris D. Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had we not given him this remedy." For sale by all good druggists.
