

MAY CALL GENERAL STRIKE

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 26.—Anti-administration delegates to the convention of the United Mine Workers in convention in this city today are urging the calling of a general strike of all coal miners affected by the wage scale which expires March 31, unless a new agreement is effected before that date.

The radicals have set April 1 as the day for the strike to go into effect. They favor delivering an ultimatum at the joint conference with mine owners that will be held in Toledo, February 1, stating that unless an agreement is reached the strike will be called.

This declaration of policy on the part of insurgents of the Mine Workers is the result of a proposition advanced by President Lewis to the effect that miners continue work after March 31 pending the signing of a new agreement or the breaking off of negotiations.

PLEASURE SEEKERS FAIL TO RETURN

Everett, Wash., Jan. 26.—Much anxiety is felt here today for the safety of a party of five young people of this city who set sail on a pleasure trip yesterday in a 16-foot sloop, and who have not been heard of since.

Search is being made today, but no trace has been found of them, and as last night was very stormy, it is thought that the sloop may have foundered.

In the party were the following persons:

Goldie Hall, Bert Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hall and Roy Hall.

Although the missing men and women strided they intended to sail to Mukilteo, the boat was seen heading in the opposite direction.

No preparation had been made for an extended stay any place.

Congress is fussing about changing the date of inaugurating the president. What do the people care, so he's a good man.

Rev. I. W. Williams Testifies

Rev. I. W. Williams, Huntington, W. Va., writes us as follows: "This is to certify that I used Foley's Kidney Remedy for nervous exhaustion and kidney trouble and am free to say that Foley's Kidney Remedy will do all that you claim for it." Sold by J. C. Perry.

An Oregon City man was given a divorce last Monday on the ground that his wife went automobiling at all hours of the night, and taking joy rides with other men.

Fever Sores.

Fever sores and old chronic sores should not be healed entirely, but should be kept in healthy condition. This can be done by applying Chamberlain's salve. This salve has no superior for this purpose. It is also most excellent for chapped hands, sore nipples, burns and diseases of the skin. For sale by all good druggists.

Milk inspectors will make places for parasites to get salaries.

Simple Remedy for LaGrippe.

LaGrippe coughs are dangerous, as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Sold by J. C. Perry.

PROSECUTION STILL HAMMERING AWAY

Prosecutor F. J. Heney has been striving to establish the fact that Hermann knew of the frauds in school lands during the past two or three days of the trial. Yesterday he introduced a mass of correspondence that had passed between Mitchell and Hermann, in regard to the Hyde-Benson claims, which Mitchell was pushing, and intends to use this as showing that Binger had all three lists of lands and other data before him when abriskie, of Tucson, Ariz., asked for information, and offered to aid the commissioner in ferreting out the workings of the Hyde-Benson gang.

Heney did not make good his promise that he would close his case at noon today. He is apparently still far from the end of the road, having the cross-examination of McVan, the direct and cross-examination of Prof. Roth and the direct and cross-examination of Col. A. R. Greene to finish before he can get all of his cases into the record.

It is only a matter of some 200,000 acres. The state will benefit by the transaction, as well as a few men, and these men are our friends and are Oregonians.

This in substance is the conversation of Hermann with Callahan, as told by Callahan, both at the present trial and at the Jones-Mays trial. He continued by saying that Hermann had mentioned Mays and W. H. Odell as being two of the Oregon men who were to benefit by the creation of the reserve.

TABERNACLE THAT WILL SEAT THREE THOUSAND

The churches of this city have united in an organization to put on a big revival meeting at a tabernacle that will seat three thousand people, the meetings to begin about March first. The old Oregon Nursery Company packing sheds will be utilized and cleaned up and fitted with a speaking stand and choir gallery for about three hundred voices. It is not yet known what evangelist will be secured but the committee of Salem ministers in charge will engage a man of first-class ability. It is planned to make the revival the biggest thing of the kind ever pulled off in the Capital City.

ANTI-WHITE SLAVE BILL PASSES HOUSE

Washington, Jan. 26.—The house this afternoon passed the anti-white slave bill, prohibiting traffic in women, which resulted from the sensational exposure made recently in the report of an investigation by immigration authorities.

The measure was urged by President Taft in a message to congress, and, as the investigation showed that the traffic had reached such an alarming proportion that rates for the sale of slaves were actually quoted in Seattle, Chicago, New York and other cities by the traders, it met with practically no opposition.

SCHUYLEMANN LIBEL CASE.

Company received no rentals from this source whatever, instead of $100 per month for each equipment for battleships and revenue cutters, as had been represented to me; that the number of men employed in their factory was about eight, instead of 300, and that the preferred stock had no guarantee of any interest, except upon the condition and in the event that the company earned a surplus over and above the salaries and operating expenses.

"I had been acting as general manager for California for some time. C. C. Wilson, the president of the United Wireless knew that on account of many misrepresentations made to me by Geo. H. Parker, of Seattle, considerable ill-feeling had been created, so I was offered the management of Chicago, together with six or eight states about the lakes. The company offered to double my commission, and I received the personal assurance of C. C. Wilson, the president of the company, that I could 'clean up' at least $75,000 in two years' time.

"I took the matter under advisement, and concluded that I could have nothing to do with a get-rich-quick scheme of this character. "On the contrary, I immediately wrote to all who had invested in this stock upon my solicitation, which represented many thousands of dollars, and urged them to unload their stock at once.

"To offset my exposure regarding the actual condition and earnings of the company, Parker has been obliged to buy up a good deal of this stock at prices ranging from $10 to $14 a share, which I am informed he again sells through his agents at $35 to $40.

"The United Wireless have five or six small stations in Oregon, which are maintained at an average cost of $100 a month, several of which I am reliably informed earn not to exceed $10 to $15, leaving a monthly loss of $75 to $90.

"I understand that conditions in Washington and California and elsewhere, as far as their land business is concerned, is no better. Also that nine-tenths of the stations are maintained at an average monthly loss of at least $50.

"When you consider that the United Wireless are capitalized for two million (2,000,000) shares which they are now attempting to sell to an uninformed public at $40 a share, a selling basis of eighty million ($80,000,000) dollars; in view of the facts above set forth the audacity of such promoters as Fred S. Stewart, and Geo. H. Parker, is without parallel.

"The United States Investor figures out taking the company's own financial statement as a basis that there is a value of $1.45 to every share of United Wireless stock. Even this estimate, says the Financial World, 'is inflated.'"

Mr. Schuyleman says that his arrest on the ground of libel by Stewart is simply due to the fact that Stewart has a grievance against him.

PIONEER DIED IN CLACKAMAS COUNTY

Mr. Eli Williams died at his home in Oregon City this morning at the age of 63 years. He was an Oregon pioneer and a cousin of Richard and George H. Williams, and was at one time assessor of Clackamas county. He leaves a daughter in this city, Mrs. C. D. Tilson, and his body will be brought here for burial.

It is anything to create a new job on the taxpayer these days.

COUNTRY LIFE TO BE PROTECTED

C. E. Whistler, of Medford; E. H. Shepherd, of Hood River; Edwin Mays, of Antelope; L. T. Reynolds, of Salem, and George A. Dorris, of Eugene, are the Oregon Country Life Commission, and met at Salem today.

This commission was appointed by Governor Benson, and held its first meeting at Salem and perfected its organization. Mr. Whistler is on his way from Washington, D. C., and the Norfolk convention of commission merchants. The commission met with Governor Benson and heard suggestions from him as to betterment of conditions under which farm life and farm labor can be carried on.

Mr. Whistler says Oregon has the call and will get a large immigration of the best Eastern people. He says the state stands for quality, and will get quality in the character of its new citizenship.

SECOND ANNUAL COMMONWEALTH CONFERENCE

The second annual Commonwealth Conference, a movement started last year on the semi-centennial of the admission of Oregon into the Union, will be held at the University of Oregon February 11th and 12th. Prominent men from various parts of Oregon and from the faculty of the University will be speakers on the occasion, and the subjects for discussion will be the leading problems now before the state. The sessions last year were pronounced most profitable by all present, and this plan to unite science and the arts of practical life in Oregon was recognized as one of greatest promise for the best up-
