Numerous new and valuable improvements are embodied in this organ, making it at once one of the best and most durable organs manufactured in the United States.

X-RAYS AND SMILES

Good evening, Woodburn. The Smiles man is bothered with a beautiful brown ladies' glove lying on his desk. It has been advertised, but the lady has not come. The glove is awaiting her small and beautiful hand, and if she ever can take it out of the dishpan long enough to come and get her kid, the Smiles man will sleep better.

The Journal's sermons are in demand from coast to coast. They are broad and are not political. They are religious, and if some of our pulpit friends would drop politics and get a little religion into their courses once in a while they would have larger congregations.

Salem business men will rejoice with Woodburn this evening on the first special train over the Oregon Electric that goes into that city.

February 12 is Lincoln's birthday. Salem Young Republicans will celebrate with a banquet.

Salem business men meet Woodburn, Mt. Angel, Silverton and Monitor business men at the Oregon Electric celebration this evening.

Salem streets are again bright with the white light of progress and prosperity streaming from 10,000 incandescents.

Tonight the street car men dance the new year in, and not one of them will even think of going on a strike until morning.

HAS LARGE LOT OF EARLY ROSE POTATOES

Joe Bressler, at Crosston, has several thousand bushels of fine Early Rose potatoes that he has raised for seed. They are a choice lot, and those who intend planting had better renegade early.

Life on Panama Canal has had one frightful drawback—malaria trouble—that has brought suffering and death to thousands. The germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malaria troubles. "Three bottles completely cured me of a very severe attack of malaria," write Wm. A. Fretwell of Lucama, N. C., "and I've had good health ever since." Cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles, and prevent typhoid. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry.
