TO EXTEND CITY LIMITS

Petitions Will Be Circulated Today Asking for an Election.

"My idea is to inaugurate a 20,000 campaign so as to insure for the city of Salem a 20,000 population when the census has been taken by the enumerators" said Mayor Rodgers this morning when interviewed by a representative of the Capital Journal with relation to the movement started this morning for the purpose of bringing certain territory lying north, east and south of the city within its corporate limits. "It is true," he continued, "that the city limits now are very extensive but the fact that so much of the acreage within the limits have no population upon it and the fact that there is so much acreage left out which is platted and has a population upon it, the situation becomes such that a census return showing the acreage and population would scarcely do the city justice. My idea is therefore to take into the corporate limits the populous centers lying north, south and east of the city and which when annexed will add to the city's population fully 3,000 people.

Circulate Petitions Today.

"We have no charter provision upon this subject and therefore must proceed under the state law. The law provides that petitions must be circulated calling for a special election on the subject and that they must be signed by 20 per cent of the legal voters who participated in the last general election. The petitions will not require many signers as the vote at the last election was light owing to the fact that there was no contest. The petitions will then be presented to the council and an election called and a notice of the election published in a paper of general circulation and also posted in the city and in the territory proposed to be annexed. The circulation of the petitions was commenced this morning and there will be one for each tract of territory proposed to be annexed so that if one should fail it will have no effect upon the others in the field.

"The council will meet on the first Monday after the election and canvass the votes of the election. It is necessary that a majority vote be cast both by the voters inside of the corporate limits and also by those in the territory to be annexed."

Election Be Held in March.

"I expect to have the petitions all signed up and ready so that I can submit the question to the council next Monday. After action is taken upon it by that body it will require four weeks for the giving of notices and the election should be held not later than the latter part of March.

Matter of Enterprise.

It is the only opportunity that the city has had of taking in this adjacent territory and it must take quick action as the census will commence April 15, and the time is now ripe for this action to be taken. Other towns are doing the same thing and Salem by following the precedent set by them will establish a name for enterprise.
