

SUGGESTIVE QUESTIONS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON BY REV. DR. LINSOTT FOR THE INTERNATIONAL NEWSPAPER BIBLE STUDY CLUB.

(Copyright, 1909, by Rev. T. S. Linscott, D. D.) February 6, 1910. Almsgiving and Prayer. Matt. 6: 1-15.

Golden Text. Take heed that ye do not your righteousness before men, to be seen of them. Matt. 6: 1-15. Verses 1-4.—What definition would you give of an hypocrite? If a man is really trying to be a true Christian, but loves to have his good works acknowledged by the church and the world, and takes pains to have that done, how would you characterize him? If a man gives more to religion and charity when the fact is published, than he does when it is not known, in what class would you place him? If one gives with the motive of helping his fellows, and to glorify God, will the fact that his beneficence is published displease God? Why? Verses 5, 6.—Give reasons for opinion as to whether there are those today who act as if they were religious, in the matter of going to church, etc., but who are not actually true to God? How would you describe a man who goes to church, or prayer meeting, chiefly to help his business or profession? If a man prays longer in public than he does in private, is he necessarily a hypocrite? Why does Jesus so strongly recommend private prayer, and what are its advantages? Verse 7.—What can you say for, or against, long or short private prayers? In what class would you put those private prayers which consist only of reading, or reciting, set prayers, and in repeating a form of words?

Verses 8.—As God certainly knows what things we have need of before we ask him, what is the use in praying for them? (This question must be answered in writing by members of the club.) Verse 9.—Did Jesus give the "Lord's Prayer" as a form to be used, or as a model for comprehensiveness and brevity, or for both, or for some other reason? What was the chief thing in the life and personal testimony of Jesus, which also should, and may, be the chief thing in the life of every man? Verse 10.—What should we long and pray for more than for all else? What would turn earth and its sorrows in Heaven with all its blessedness? Verse 11.—Have Christians a right to expect that God will supply all the necessities of life, and does he always do so? Is God under obligation to supply us with daily bread? Verse 12.—On what grounds does God forgive us our sins? Does Jesus mean here that God will forgive us exactly as we forgive others, or is there a difference? Verse 13.—In what way does God lead us into temptation? Verses 14, 15.—If we forgive our fellows, is God under obligation to forgive us? Lesson for Sunday, February 13, 1910. Worldliness and Trust. Matt. 6: 19-34.
