

JUNIOR LAW CLASS HOLDS BANQUET

The Junior law class banquet which was held at the Cottage Hotel last Saturday evening was one of the most successful social events that has been pulled off in university circles for many days. There were twenty persons present: Chief Justice Moore, the guest of honor, Dean McNary, Messrs. Winslow and Heltzel and eighteen members of the class. All present did justice to the splendid menu that was served. Sweet strains of music accompanied the devouring process and added greatly to the enjoyment of all. The artists who furnished the music were Miss Farrington, violinist, and Miss Moore, accompanist.

Dean McNary responded to the toast "College Bred" in a few well chosen words and made plain that while the college course was a great asset, it was no absolute guarantee of success. He complimented the class on their display of college spirit. Mr. Upjohn then told why he studied law, emphasizing the freedom of the profession and its possibilities as he saw them. Mr. Winslow in a very forceful manner told of the necessity of a good foundation in the study of law, saying that a knowledge of the various lines of business and professional life were needed for the successful practice of law. Mr. Heltzel gave some encouraging words concerning the alumni of Willamette and what they were doing. Mr. Crawford gave a very thoughtful talk on the subject of "Impressions." Miss Byrd brought the assembly to a high pitch of enthusiasm when she responded to the toast "Law and the Woman." Every unmarried man present then and there resolved to have his best girl study law next year. If any woman has her cap set for one of this class, she had better study law. Mr. Smith then told of the aspirations of a number of the class and if these are realized the class will be heard from.

The toast of the evening was given by Chief Justice Moore, "Lincoln as a Lawyer." He spoke in a way that gripped the attention of his hearers and made them feel the spirit of the great Lincoln. He told of the great number of cases which Lincoln had before the supreme court of Illinois and the large per cent of them which he won. The speaker emphasized the honesty and integrity, his attention to those in need and those qualities which made his a success in the profession. The class was highly honored in having Justice Moore with them.

Robert Eakin, president of the class, acted as toast master to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Who Wants a Piano?

We'll Send One Free

A great special sale and advertising test at the same time.

Dozens of the Finest New Pianos to be Delivered to So Many Homes Within Three Weeks

No cash payment required—A most extraordinary undertaking. The greatest distribution of fine pianos ever witnessed in Salem.

We've recently received the greatest single shipment of pianos ever brought to Salem. It was the largest order yet placed by us and the factories from whom we purchased agreed, on account of the size of the order, to make us a particularly low price on these instruments. This saving we're going to pass on to our patrons. We're constantly on the lookout for bargains and we saw in this an opportunity to secure these pianos and in turn sell them to retail buyers at practically wholesale cost. In fact, many small dealers cannot purchase pianos at wholesale at as low prices as we are offering you right on our own floor—quality considered.

We're going to secure dozens of loyal friends during this sale and at the same time we are going to try to gather some valuable statistics.

A modern piano business must be well advertised. Not only must it offer the best in musical instrument manufacture upon most advantageous terms of purchase, but it must make itself known. A piano, a good piano of Wenger & Cherrington, lasts a lifetime. New buyers must be found, and particularly in this growing west it is necessary for a business such as high-class piano selling to keep itself constantly before the public.

In disposing of this large stock we see an opportunity to find out definitely as to which method of advertising is most effective, such as the use of newspaper space, circulars, personal letters or weekly or periodical publications.

For this reason we publish an advertising test certificate. It calls for $30.00. It is good for so much actual cash. It will be accepted by us as the first payment for any piano in this sale. Select your piano now, present your certificate, arrange for payment of balance as best suits your convenience, and the piano is yours.

But even this is not all the inducements we now have to offer. If you choose to make a further payment when you select your piano, we pay a premium of $1 for every dollar up to the amount of the certificate that you pay us at the time you select your instrument. We publish below the certificate a schedule showing exactly what these certificates will amount to.

CUT THIS OUT—WORTH $30.

Daily Capital Journal.

Bring this Advertising Test Certificate with you—select any piano in our stock. We will accept this certificate as first payment on the piano. You make your next payment one month later.

$2.00 for $1.00

Should you desire to pay any cash, in addition to this certificate, we will give you a receipt for $2 for every dollar you pay up to $30.

Present this Certificate and pay $30 in cash and get a receipt for.....	$90.00

Bear in mind that the piano prices are reduced to about wholesale.

Bear in mind that you need no cash payment other than an advertising test certificate when you select your piano.

Bear in mind, too, that the balance remaining unpaid, can be settled in monthly payments of $12, $10, $8, yes, even $6.

All instruments in this sale will be plainly marked at the reduced lowest cash price. Those buying on time will secure the same cash prices, but will pay simple interest on deferred payments. Bear in mind that these pianos are the latest, choicest, brand new, especially selected instruments from the foremost greatest and most trustworthy American piano makers. Each and every instrument is unconditionally warranted in every respect.

Included are such well known makes as Crown, the famous Kimball, Eilers, Hallet & Davis, Lester, Kohler & Campbell, Whitney, Schilling, Autopiano and other well known and thoroughly desirable makes.

No more beautiful pianos have ever been received in Salem, no greater assortment has ever been shown at any one time anywhere than we present.

We want the least possible delay in disposing of this large shipment of pianos, and we want thereby to secure that many additional enthusiastic and loyal friends for Wenger & Cherrington.

For $148 you will secure pianos which have never been sold for less than $215 heretofore; $167 and $198 will secure such grades as are never to be obtained elsewhere for less than $250 and $300.

Ask particularly to see some magnificent $400 styles now $274, and the plainer cases, same make, $225; $8 a month buys them, while the less expensive styles go at $6 and $5 a month.

Sale prices on the very fanciest of $450 and $500 style, are now $298, $307 and $328. Terms as best suits your convenience.

Again we repeat, no cash payment is necessary; cut out the coupon, which will be taken at its face value as the first payment.

Remember, sale began this morning, February 14. If you have no piano, come at once. We have been able in the past to present money-saving opportunities to the piano buyer, but never heretofore have such tremendous reductions been possible. First come, first served, of course, so it's to your interest to come in as soon as possible.

FAILED TO

that Meldrum's testimony regarding the Hermann visit to his office and the meeting there with Mrs. Mays was corroborated in all its important details by the testimony of Hermann himself, which would not have been true had Hermann not taken the stand in his own defense.

Binger Hermann was indicted on the thirteenth day of the month, and thirteen ballots were taken in an attempt to decide whether he was guilty or innocent of the crime charged against him.

Those of the jury for conviction were C. F. Pearson, J. B. Thompson, Wm. Myers, the foreman; Ben. F. Skolfield, Friend D. Simmons, Smith Stephens, Henry B. Stone, Chas. Wrisley, J. C. Smoek, Wesley Houck, Albertus H. Metcalf. George Selkirk stood out for acquittal. He held that he could convict the defendant under the law, but not under the evidence, and that his conscience would not permit of his disregarding the one phase of the case for the support of the other.

Prosecutor F. J. Heney immediately moved that a new trial be commenced on Monday next, and meeting with the objection of the court that the jury panel had been excused until a week from Monday, substituted that date. Here he met with the objection of John M. Gearin, who stated that Colonel Worthington had been compelled to return to Washington and could not return for some time, whereupon the date of the next trial was allowed to stand open, subject to the agreement of the counsel on both sides.

A POPULAR VERDICT.

Based on Evidence of Salem People.

Grateful thousands tell it—
How weak backs were made strong—
Weak kidneys made well—
Urinary disorders corrected.
Salem people add their testimony. They gladly praise Doan's Kidney Pills.
For quick relief and lasting cures.

Salem evidence is now complete. Salem testimony is confirmed;

Reports of early relief substantiated.

Cures doubly proved by test of time.

Let a Salem citizen speak.

A. J. Wood, 733 N. Front St., Salem, Ore., says: "About two months ago I began to suffer from kidney and bladder trouble. The kidney secretions were too frequent and painful in passage, causing me much annoyance. I had often heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended and thinking they might prove of benefit, I procured a box at Dr. Stone's Drug Store. I can truthfully say that the use of one box freed me of every symptom of kidney complaint. I strongly advise other kidney sufferers to give this remedy a trial.

The above statement was given Jan. 30, 1906 and was confirmed on Nov. 20, 1909, by Mr. Wood. He said: "The statement I gave in 1906, publicly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. This remedy cured me of kidney trouble and I have had no return attack."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
