"HYPOCRITES ALL OF YOU"

[United Press Leased Wire.]
 Seattle, Wash., Feb. 25.—For breaking up a prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian church G. V.
 Kesterson is in the city jail today.
 His sanity will be investigated.
 "Hypocrites, all of you," shouted Kesterson, while the weekly prayer meeting in Dr. Matthews' church was in session last night. He had been sitting quietly in his seat up to this time. He poured forth a volley of scriptural quotations, boasted of his political strength, and denounced Presbyterians in general.
 William Dresback, Dr. Frank Horsfall, Robert J. McClure and Major R. J. Case, all prominent Seattle men, undertook to put the man out.
 They had their hands full, but won the first fall, and were sitting on his prostrate figure when the police arrived, and Kesterson was shouting:
 "Take off your glasses, you hypocrites."
