Santa Barbara, Cal., March 16.— "The railroads are between the devil and the deep sea, declared President E. P. Ripley, of the Santa Fe system today, discussing the impending strike that may affect 48 railroads of the West and South.

'In almost every other line of activity." he went on "employers can raise prices to meet the increased cost of production, or maintenance of their establishments. We can't do We are not permitted to raise freight rates to meet wage increases. Do you see what our position is?"

Ripley discussed the threatened strike of the railway firemen, while he prepared for the golf links at the Santa Barbara Club
