Corset Demonstration

Tomorrow and Saturday, Miss Crandall, representing the W. B. Corset Co., will demonstrate and fit Corsets to every woman in Salem. Much depends upon the fit of the Corsets how the new spring costume or suit will look. We especially urge the women to take advantage of this golden opportunity, as Miss Crandall is an expert corsetiere, and will fit the ladies to models becoming their forms, 1st floor.

COLLINS' WIRELESS TELEPHONE ATTRACTS LARGE CROWDS

Large crowds witnessed the demonstration today of the Collins' wireless telephone, which are conducted from Rutherford Bros.' office to the opposite side of the street. While many who witnessed the demonstration were "from Missouri," they expressed themselves as being convinced that wireless telephone is a reality.

Get in With the Crowd— And go Sunday and see Eastmoreland.

Eastmoreland Flat— (Oil painting) is on display in Meyer and Bell's window, 347 State St. 3-17-2t

Ask for more information— And literature on Eastmoreland at Myers & Bell. See Mr. Graves.

Why Pay Regular Prices— When lace curtains are being sold here at a discount. Buren & Hamilton, 3-16-3t

Fancy Stock Potatoes— In one or more sack lots 50c a bushel. Farringtons, 426 State St. 3-16-2t

Be one of the Salem Men— Who are buying a block in Eastmoreland.

You Want Good Groceries— These days, and you can get them by phoning your order to J. M. Lawrence's, corner Court and Ferry streets. Phone 311.

The Shamrock! the Shamrock! The green, immortal Shamrock! The chosen leaf of bard and chief. Old Erin's native Shamrock.

As the Sun Went Down— "As the Sun Went Down," which showed here Monday night, was one of the best shows of that class ever seen in Salem, and the company is really a very strong one. Those who missed it will go to many others before finding so good a one. The trouble is, it was a western play, and plays, like prophets, are without honor in their own country. It is the cows far off that wear long horns, and far-fetched pleases the ladies.

Kangaroo Court— An excellent program. Something new and good, at Woodman of the World Hall, Friday evening. Bring your friends. Admission free.

50 Per Cent of the Population of the United States live in rural districts remote from physicians or drug stores, and they are obliged to depend upon proprietary medicines to a very great extent.

To the women in these homes such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetables Compound come as a boon and a blessing. Records show that it has cured more women of those dread feminine ills than any other remedy.
