HAD A RED, YELLOW AND GREEN TAIL AND MANY THOUGHT HALLEY'S COMET HAD RUN AWAY.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WITE.] a Francisco, March 19.—The local newspaper offices were swamped by innumerable telephone calls today from people who wanted to "know where the meteor struck."

The brilliant wanderer shot across the southern skies shortly before 10 o'clock last night, and disappeared near the Farrallone Islands, 20 miles to sea.

According to numerous witnesses the meteor emitted red, yellow and green light, and was tailed like a comet. This led many to believe Washington, March 19.—Accord- that Halley's comet had taken a

What mother is not proud of her "little boy." Nothing within her reach is too good for him. She is particular about his dress---wants the very best her purse will allow. Now let us remind you that you haven't seen all the GOOD little suits in town if you haven't seen ours. Let's emphasize especially that when you buy here you pay for YOUR boy's suit only, and none other, for which reason, if no other, we can assure you the very best values obtainable for the money expended.

Our line of two-piece suits this spring is the most complete we ever had (getting better all the time). The cloth patterns and the style of the garments will surely please the mother who wishes to see her boy at his best, and the wear that's in them---well, only the hard and long service the boy will put them to will prove that there are none better for the money.

JUDGING BY APPEARANCES-

Of course everybody does that, and Laundry Work can't be judged any other way. Everything subjected to our artistic treatment comes out as clean as a polished surface, as clear as crystal and as bright as a summer's day. Articles washed properly last twice as long and look twenty times better than goods badly laundried. We make cheap fabric masquerade for something better.
