MAY FORM A LOCAL COMPANY

Property owners in the city who are interested in the subject of street pavement met Saturday evening in the city hall with Mayor Rodgers and Councilman Stolts, chairman of the committee on streets, for the purpose of conferring with relation to the formation of a street improvement company.

The movement was inaugurated because of the fact that there has generally been delay in the securing of crushed rock for pavement and it has also been held at a high price, and it was to do away with these matters that the property-owners have decided to take matters in their own hands.

The paving situation was thoroughly gone over, and in the course of the discussion it developed that the county, instead of the city, should quarry and thereby become independent of companies in the matter of rock material. The suggestion was made that the company incorporate, purchase the necessary machinery for the grading, and a committee was appointed to secure data on the proposition, and it will report back to a meeting to be held during the week.

The salaries of the sheriff, recorder and assessor include the salaries of their deputies. The county clerk in addition to his salary is allowed by statute three deputies. CANOE CLUB TO INCORPORATE

After electing officers and also appointing a committee to take the steps necessary to the forming of the club into a corporation, the Canoe Club, which met Saturday evening, adjourned to meet again on April 4.

The club has for some time contemplated the erection of a commodious clubhouse and, looking at that end, it has been negotiating for a site on the banks of the Willamette river near the Salem Flouring Mills. The subject was discussed at length at the meeting and the plan, as outlined, was to supply the clubhouse with baths and complete gymnasium equipment, but the matter did not go further than a discussion as prior to proceeding it will be necessary for the club to incorporate. A committee was appointed to take the steps necessary for incorporation and when it reports back to the club at the next meeting some definite action will probably be taken as to the clubhouse.

The officers elected are: Chester Cox, president; Dan Allen, vice-president, and Russell Smith, secretary and treasurer.

WOODBURN GOOD ROADS MEETING

There was a good attendance at the Woodburn Good Road meeting last Saturday. E. P. Morecom presided in a very graceful manner and introduced Col. E. Hofer as the first speaker, who advocated state highways built out of an appropriation with convict labor, if the county puts up a part of the expense—say 25 per cent.

Judge Webster advocated the county bonding plan to amend the constitution so as to allow counties to issue bonds for the construction of permanent highways. He was asked at the close whether Multnomah county would ever make use of the bonding proposition and admitted to Col. Hofer such was not the intention, as that county could build all the roads it needed without any bond issues.

County Judge Bushey spoke of the dilemma the county court had to contend with in road matters, and how they were working it out in Marion county without running the county in debt. There is pretty strong backing here for County Commissioner Goulet to become a candidate for re-election this fall and he has consented to be a candidate if the people want him.

He that sows wild oats of any variety should remember that sure will be the harvest be.

here Wednesday, and a dandy good saint, too.

Having had Col. E. Hofer duly run over by a street car when he was 50 miles away, safely stowed away in St. Vincent's hospital and slowly recovering from his mutilations and injuries, it is to be hoped the Oregonian is satisfied.

Mrs. G. Lake of Seattle has adopted the calling of "counselor in domestic affairs." It isn't a new trade, for nearly every woman delights in trying her hand at it—for her neighbors. The chances are Mrs. Lake has been through the divorce mill.

It is said Eugene paid Oliver, the evangelist, $300 a week for five weeks; but then it was glad to get rid of him at any old price.

Chiariglion is Not Irish. But recently my muse broke forth in song

Lugubrious and lachrymose, and—wrong. Tears in her voice, as in her eyes, I ween,

'Cause in the dust trailed Erin's well-loved green. When the "Far Baby," colored imp of sin

And pet of Boston, got the best of Flynn. The dusky idol of the Hub's "Back Bay" Plucked Ireland's shamrock on St. Patrick's Day.

Today she sings, but with a joyous flight. With bubbling laughter, jolly, gay and—right.

It was no Irishman that fell; no, sir! Flynn, be it known, was but a name "de guerre."

From Greece, or Spain, or maybe country Stygian. Came he who bore it, and his name Chiariglion.

No stretch of fancy, such a name as that Could fasten on an honest, pug-nosed Pat.

Ods death! Ods bodkins! Likewise, also, psshaw! No nigger fingers touched an Irish jaw.

So a ne, my muse, as joyous as a burro: Cress-ecdo! Hyas! Shookum! Chiariglion!

Bravura! Hip-his! Bully! That's the chance! French, English, Irish, Dutch, or what you please Just so your song leaves not a shade of doubt

That 'twas no Irishman went down and out.

Cold air is quite a different thing from pure air. Be sure the cold air is pure.

A falling tiny nerve—no larger than the finest silken thread—takes from the heart its impulse, its power, its regularity. The stomach also has its hidden, or inside nerve. It was Dr. Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or failing stomach, heart or kidneys. His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed for the cause of these ailments—these weak and faltering inside nerves. This, no doubt, clearly explains why the Restorative has of late grown so rapidly in popularity. Druggists say that those who test the Restorative even for a few days, soon become fully convinced of its wonderful merit. Anyway, don't drug the organ. Treating the cause of sickness is the only sensible and successful way. Sold by Capital Drug Store.
