DEPOSITS INCREASE IN FIVE YEARS TWO-THIRDS OF A MILLION OF DOLLARS—A MILLION NEXT YEAR IS PROBABLE.

The annual statements made by the United States National bank of this city tell a remarkable story of growth, and one of which its officers and directors may justly feel the utmost pride in. It shows the implicit confidence the people generally have in them and is the best possible endorsement of the bank's solidity. It is flattering indeed, to all the officers from highest to lowest, because it shows tact, politeness and kindness in all their dealings, for nothing short of these could cause the steady and rapid growth that in five years has run its deposits up from less than $100,000 to nearly three-quarters of a million. # SEATTLE MAKES WAR ON HAT PINS

Seattle, Wash., April 4.—An ordinance regulating the length of hatpins, barring those which protrude more than two inches beyond the crown, and providing fine and imprisonment for violation, will be introduced in the city council tonight by Councilman Revelle.

Corporation Counsel Calhoun, who prepared the bill, believes that it is fully within the police power of the city to regulate the length of the feminine hatpin.

Seattle is following in the footsteps of Chicago in this case, the city council there passing an ordinance last month providing a fine of $50 for violation of the short hatpin rule.

"A hatpin doesn't need to be two feet long to be a weapon of defense for a woman," said Councilman Revelle today. "The smallest pins sold is a dangerous weapon and fully efficient for a weapon to ward off the advances of any man."

Girl Swept Through Flume.

Spokane, Wash., April 4.—Carried 300 yards through a covered flume, Audrey, the seven-year-old daughter of Mrs. Samuel H. Hughes of Kellogg, Idaho, is none the worse for her experience today. The child, with Eva Lynch, was playing along the Bunker Hill flume near the Old Stenwinder mill yesterday when she slipped into the race and was carried down 300 yards. Her playmate ran down the grade calling for help and two men came to the rescue dragging the child out. That she had a heavy bearskin coat on, accounts for the fact that she was carried so far without sinking. The flume is several feet deep and was full at the time.

HE BARELY ESCAPED LYNCHING

Los Angeles, Cal., April 4.—The fact that Ramon Ragoza is in the city jail today, and not in the morgue, the victim of an angry mob, he owes to the timely arrival of a patrol wagon loaded with bluecoats. The officers rescued him from a mob that might have put him to a violent death because of the assault he was alleged to have made upon 15-year-old Elsie Atmur.

The little girl was on her way to a concert with her mother. As she stepped under the approach of the Macy-street bridge, Ragoza seized her and attempted to carry her down the bank toward the river.

The little girl's terrified screams brought several men to the scene. They pursued Ragoza, and captured him two blocks from the bridge. He was being roughly handled by a big mob when the officers arrived.

Dozens of howling men and boys cried "Lynch him!" "Hang him!"

For at least an hour they filled the streets near the station, until they were driven away by a squad of police. Ragoza was charged with assault and placed in a cell at the city jail.

TOTAL RESULT OF THE GREAT CAMPAIGN BY EVANGELIST TAYLOR AND THE MINISTERS OF THE CITY.

The closing service of the great revival meetings was held at the University tabernacle last evening. The big building was crowded to the doors. The choir and orchestra were out in full force, the ladies of the choir in white, and they made music worth going a good many miles to hear. The preachers' quartet sang, and sang well. The orchestra had some fine special music. Mr. Wenger sang a solo with great power and feeling.

Mr. Taylor spoke from the text: "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved." Jeremiah 8:20. He said in effect, that while Whittier had said that the saddest words of tongue or pen were "it might have been," that saddest yet were the words of the text. The opportunity past, the harvest over, too late. An artist painted a picture called the "Game of Life," representing a chess game between the devil and a man, the devil has the best of the game, and has the man cornered, and now leans back and says, "it is your move." If you move over to Jesus Christ you can win out over all the devils in hell. A minute makes the difference between safety and destruction in things in this life. Many lives have been lost because some one was too late. Many souls have been lost because they have put off the day of salvation beyond God's time. Don't let this be true of you.

Nearly 50 people responded to the appeal of the evangelist at the close of the sermon, making a grand total of 1247 who have responded to the work of the evangelist and the pastors of the city during the past five weeks.

The service yesterday afternoon was attended by a large crowd. A feature of the afternoon was a whistling solo by Miss Clark. This was a rare treat, and the audience insisted on a recall. Mr. Wenger sang "Somebody Knows." Mr. Taylor gave his parting advice to the churches and to those who have made a start during these meetings. A number responded to the invitation in the afternoon.

While the meetings closed with the service last evening, there will be a jubilee meeting at the tabernacle this evening, to which all are invited. The pastors of the city will be called upon for short speeches. Mr. Taylor will speak. The choir will be present and furnish good music, and some surprises are promised. Mr. Taylor and the evangelistic company will go to Woodburn this week, where they will be engaged for a time in a tabernacle campaign.

GENERAL BOOTH SALVATIONIST IS DANGEROUSLY ILL

London, April 4.—General William Booth, the head of the Salvation Army is seriously ill and under the constant care of physicians today. Yesterday he fainted on the street.

As a result of his illness, all engagements have been cancelled.

General Booth is 81 years old. For the past six months he has suffered from ill health. Recently he was compelled to submit to an operation for the removal of a cataract in his right eye which had nearly blinded him.

THE "IRISH BRIGADE VICTORIOUS

San Francisco, April 4.—Many battles in world's history have been won by an "Irish brigade" and it was the combined fighting ability of Bohland, Bigelow, Gallagher, Hagheney, Quinn, Fowle and Brady, regulars of the city police, that put to rout 250 soldiers and a detachment of 100 embryo sailors in the Barbary coast early today.

The soldiers, recently from Texas garrisons, and now on route for Manila, aided by apprentices from the training ship Pensacola, attempted to "clean out" a Barbary coast resort because of alleged ill treatment of some of their number night before last.

The soldiers gathered at the Thalia where they concertedly ordered drinks and refused to pay for them. The Thalias bouncers were merrier harried and harassed and the soldiers were wrecking the place when Chief Martin's Irish Brigade arrived.

The soldiers and sailors endeavored to form a flying column but the 10 policemen saluted in with their maces and soon the allies were in flight.

A wagon load of men in blue and khaki uniforms was taken to the city prison; a temporary stop on the way being made at the Harbor hospital for repairs to the prisoners.

EDUCATING THE WOMEN PRISONERS

Los Angeles, Calif., April 4.—More than a score of women prisoners at the Los Angeles city jail went to school today, many of them for the first time in their lives.

The new school at the jail embraces in its curriculum the domestic sciences, cooking, sewing and housekeeping, and a training school for nurses also has been established.

Instruction in these branches will be given under the supervision of Chief of Police Galloway and Matron Aletha Gilbert. The plan originated with Mrs. Gilbert.

"I know that when many of our prisoners leave the jail they will have a knowledge of things they never knew existed. I'll wager three in every ten of the women who come here don't know that stockings can be darned, or that persons who are ill can be taken care of in a way that will help them to get well quickly," Mrs. Gilbert said. "If we can teach one woman in 10 something that will help to make her life easier and better when she leaves it will be sufficient. At any rate they will have something to do while they serve their terms."

If Mrs. Gilbert's plan is successful, it is probable that it will give on a fair trial in the county prison.

SAVED BY KEEN SCENT OF HIS DOG

Seward, Alaska, April 4.—The keen scent of his dog saved the life of St. Clair McClary, a miner buried deep in a snowslide, according to news which has just reached here from the Haughan copper property.

The snowslide swept down the hillside March 28. The four men at work on the property were caught and buried. Two managed to escape without serious injury.

The slide was so deep, however, that the other two had completely disappeared. Finally the dog led the searchers to a place several yards distant and began scratching at the debris and barking excitedly. After hard digging they came upon the men who had been buried for eight hours. Thomas Coates was already dead. McClary was almost dead but he is now expected to recover.

FOUR YOUR HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

When Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do as above stated, it is not strange that we have such great faith in it and that we claim it will prevent baldness when used in time. It acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and see it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at our store.—J. C. Perry.
