

The past week has been very dull in a social way. Only a few tiny affairs have transpired at the Capital City. The revival meetings have faded away and people are resuming interest in world affairs. At the First Congregational church Thursday night 52 new members were taken into fellowship socially and a big dinner was served by the ladies at which covers were laid for 115, and a very enjoyable social time followed. Rev. and Mrs. Bauer believe in keeping alive the social side of their church work and are very much liked for their efforts in this direction. In a church organization without social life it is hard to maintain the interest of the younger portions of the membership.

Homer Davenport is coming to Salem to lecture next week—Thursday and Friday evenings. He will give one lecture on cartooning and one on his travels in Arabia. He is quite certain of a warm welcome at Salem, as his family resided here when Mr. Davenport was state land commissioner. His father, Hon. T. L. Davenport, resides at the old family home at Silverton. Three of the daughters are at home and "Tim" is happy with some of his grand-children around him. Homer has some very warm friends at Salem and will be treated to the best the people here have to offer.

Two young Salem society ladies, Miss Kliffie Harbord and Miss Emily Jeffrey are touring the countries on the Mediterranean, and while you are reading this they are sojourning amid the ruins of Pompeii. The Oregonians will add to the enjoyment of these columns when the mails arrive.

James Crawford, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Attorney General Crawford, is spending a few weeks in Southern Oregon visiting friends of the family.

The people who frequent Leslie church of South Salem are planning some improvements on their church building and will have a social at some time in the near future to raise funds.

A bright little girl from the Lincoln school sends the Society editor this item of important social news: "Mrs. De Courtney Molleygraw had a very delightful setting-up party this week at which some new-hatched social chicks were present. It was held in the summer kitchen and the woodbox was decorated with fresh eggs on the half-shell and cabbage leaves. If you will not put it in the paper about us girls sitting down the school house banisters, I will send you some more social news."

Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Krause attended the horse show and are over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Albert.

Mrs. E. W. Dent and daughter, Miss Tessa Dent are spending a week at Salem at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer on South Commercial street, while the latter are at Berkeley, Calif., attending the regatta between Stanford and University of California, in which Lawrence Hofer pulls an oar in the Stanford Varsity shell.

Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett entertained a number of friends Thursday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. Huelaf, who has been her guest and has returned to her home at Portland.

Mrs. Homer Smith entertained the Junior Guild of the Episcopal church on Tuesday afternoon at their pretty home on Liberty and Center streets.

Mrs. Will R. King entertained the Pricilla club at her spacious home on East State street, Thursday afternoon, and it can be added that Mrs. King was voted one of the club's best entertainers.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Krause, of Portland, attended the Salem horse show and are over-Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Brown.

Mrs. M. W. Gill and children, of Portland, were guests for the past week at the paternal home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Morland on East State street.

McGregor, Ia., Times: Fifty years ago, Mr. and Mrs. William Crooks were married, and their golden wedding anniversary was celebrated at their home, 1202 Duff avenue, Ames. They came to Iowa in 1892 and have lived in Ames for 10 years. Fifty guests were present at the celebration, and a big dinner served at noon. Of the 21 grandchildren and five great grandchildren in the family, eleven of the former were present, and all five of the great grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs.

Crooks are parents of seven children and all were present at the celebration with the exception of Robert Crooks, who lives in Illinois. The other six sons and daughters who were present were: Mrs. B. H. White of Pierre, S. D.; Mrs. F. E. Whiteman, Nevada; Mrs. R. Siddal, Salem, Ore.; Andrew Crooks, Ames; Ira Crooks, Nevada, and Charley Crooks, who lives at home.

(Santiam News.) Last Saturday evening was a red letter occasion for Dierdorf Lodge No. 54, I. O. O. F. of this city. The evening was devoted to the commemoration of the 50th anniversary of L. W. Pomeroy's membership of the order. And right royally did the members of Dierdorf entertain their hall full of guests. Fifty years ago L. W. Pomeroy was initiated into the mysteries of Oddfellowship by Chemeketa Lodge of Salem. He retained his membership with Chemeketa and helped to organize Dierdorf lodge No. 54, of this city.

It was but natural that Mr. Pomeroy should wish some of the members of his parent lodge to be present upon an occasion that is so dearly vouchsafed to a member of that or any other order. In accord with this wish a special invitation was extended to Chemeketa, and Judge Geo. H. Burnett and Al Johnson came to represent the parent lodge. Jefferson lodge was represented by Uncle Frank Doveney, Lee Blyden of Lebanon, O. E. Pomeroy, of LaComb, Thomas Small, temporarily of Detroit, but members of Dierdorf, were present.

Saylor Case Goes to Jury. Watsota, Ill., April 9.—The closing arguments in the sensational trial of Mrs. J. B. Saylor, her father, John Grunden; and Dr. William A. Miller, for the alleged murder of the woman's husband, probably will be concluded today.

It was expected that Judge Dibell would deliver his charge to the jury this morning but the delay of counsel for both sides in finishing their summing up caused the case to be delayed in going to the jury.

It is probable that the evidence will be placed before the jury late this afternoon. The biggest crowd yet in attendance at the trial was present today to hear the concluding argument of the defense, the charge of the court and to await the jury's verdict.

Object to Strong Medicines.

Many people object to taking the strong medicines usually prescribed by physicians for rheumatism. There is no need of internal treatment in any case of muscular or chronic rheumatism, and more than nine out of every ten cases of the disease are of one or the other of these varieties. When there is no fever and little (if any) swelling, you may know that it is only necessary to apply Chamberlain's Liniment freely to get quick relief. Try it. For sale by all good druggists.

DRUMMERS BEAT POOR UNCLE SAM

TRAVELED BACK AND FORTH OVER MEXICAN LINE BRINGING FREE EACH TIME $100 WORTH OF DUTIABLE GOODS.

Washington, April 9.—The treasury department today made a ruling to the effect that only $10 worth of dutiable goods may be brought into the United States by persons who make frequent trips into foreign countries. Heretofore the government allowed each person to bring $100 worth into the country without payment of duty.

The ruling was made following a report by custom officials that persons living along the borders of Mexico and Canada have been engaged in a profitable business of bringing in woolsens and other high tariff goods, under the "exception clause."

Federal officials expect that the new ruling will break up several large coteries of traders who have been working out of Seattle, Bellingham, San Diego, El Paso, Detroit and other border cities.

It is said that a number of importing houses have a regular staff employed whose business it is to travel to and from across the line, and bring in goods. This gave such business houses an immense advantage in competition with other firms who did not employ "traders."

The Sound Sleep of Good Health.

The restorative power of sound sleep can not be over estimated and ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. J. L. Southern, Eau Claire, Wis., says:—"For a long time I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains across my back and soreness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was very much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock. I eat and enjoy my meals, and my general condition is greatly improved. I can honestly recommend Foley's Kidney Pills as I know they have cured me." J. C. Perry.

Portland Notes

By Fred C. Denton.

One of the most popular men in Oregon that holds down a state house job has gotten on the wrong side of the fence on the Constitutional Convention question before the people. He should climb back before he is tossed over. The convention scheme is nothing but an attempt to slip up on the blind side of the people and slip a knife seven feet long into the Initiative and Referendum. Within recent years several states have had constitutions forced on them by conventions. Oregon is not going to be forced that way.

The Japanese are not hunting for trouble in the United States. The Japanese consul in Portland is not allowing his country to be involved in labor disputes if he can help it. Every intelligent Jap knows that his country will have trouble enough without hunting up Uncle Sam for a fight.

A large amount of sentiment that was worked up for the Assembly has simmered down. Some of the workers are looking for a place to light.

The carving up of China has been delayed too long. The people are waking up, and the carving will be too precarious an undertaking for the European nations heretofore.

Recent events in several widely separated localities seem to indicate that a good way for a revivalist preacher to be sent to other fields is a hurry is for him to say in general effect that a woman who attends a dance is of bad moral character. Several have seen fit to change locations on short notice for this casting reflections on some good women.

Union men in Portland say that the greatest cry against the fair or union shop that is being put up by certain employers, is by men who are not paying any better wages now than they did five years ago when living was cheaper.

When the Progressive Government League comes on with another edition of about 120,000 copies of a pamphlet that hits the assembly the whack the last one did, the assembly will be laid on a cold marble slab in the Portland morgue.
