MANY ARE DUMPED IN THE LAKE

STAIRWAY COLLAPSES AT THE PAVILION AND HUNDREDS OF SPECTATORS AT BOXING MATCH ARE DUCKED.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Salt Lake City, Utah, May 13.—Searching parties who today dragged Salt Lake around the Salt Air pavilion, the outer stairs of which collapsed and threw a hundred persons into eight feet of water, report today that no bodies are in the lake. Twenty persons were injured in the accident, but physicians today declare that none are fatally hurt.

The accident came at the close of a boxing contest between Thompson and Sullivan. Five thousand persons attended the exhibition. The stairway collapsed as the crowd was leaving the pavilion.

Because of the darkness it could not be learned definitely last night whether any persons lost their lives and a careful search was made today.

The pavilion is built over the great Salt Lake and those thrown off the stairway were pitched into the water.

CHICAGO WILL AIR SCANDAL

DISTRICT ATTORNEY WEYMAN ANNOUNCES THAT HE WILL PLACE LEE O'NEIL BROWN ON TRIAL ON BRIBERY CHARGE.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Chicago, May 13.—District Attorney Weyman created a sensation here this afternoon when he announced that he would call the case of Lee O'Neill Brown, indicted for bribery in connection with the election of U. S. Senator William Lorimer, for trial Monday.

Brown was democratic leader of the lower house of the Illinois legislature. He was indicted following an investigation of a confession by Charles A. White, who said Brown had paid him $900 to vote for Lorimer.

The grand jury investigation of the case is not yet completed and an investigation of the alleged bribery is under way at Springfield, the state capital. The sudden decision to bring Brown to trial came as a surprise.

It is believed that the defense will fight for a continuance. Weyman declares that he intends to push the case to trial as soon as possible.

It is believed that the district attorney's determination to push the case is caused by his belief that he has convincing evidence. The trial, it is further expected, will bring to light evidence that will assist in the investigations.

[UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE.] Portland, Ore., May 13.—After starving for 21 days, to cure himself of stomach trouble, A. S. Houghton, a photographer, today began to break his fast by sipping the juice of oranges. Houghton started his starvation cure with the intention of abstaining from food until his appetite returned.

Yesterday, however, he decided that he was getting too weak, and needed nourishment, despite the fact that he did not feel hungry. "I suppose when I start taking solid food into my stomach I will have an appetite," said Houghton, "and it will be necessary to exercise will power not to overeat."

"It is no fun to fast for three weeks. Eating is delightful." Houghton has lost 21 pounds in three weeks. He said he expects to gain flesh at the rate he lost it. The only effect he noticed since he first began was that he slept only six hours nightly instead of nine.
