THE AWAKENING OF AURORA.

A few live business men are awakening the old town of Aurora into a live progressive modern community. The movement has begun for cutting up the old farms and turning in a new tide of population.

The modern cottage and the pretty bungalow are invading the southern addition to the city.

A few outsiders have come in and declare Aurora is a lovely place for their summer homes.

The Capital Journal gives the City of Aurora a page today that will be well worth looking over.

When you read that Dr. Martin Gleason has considered the cutting up of his old ranch, think.

Think what it means to get 10 to 20 families living on where formerly a single renter worked.

Think of the movement at Hubbard which is resulting in putting 20 to 40 families on the old John B. Dimick farm.

The Hubbard Investment Company is reported by one of its officials to have already sold off $24,000 worth of tracts this year.

These are movements for which The Capital Journal is giving pages of space to promote the development of the Willamette valley.

The men of Aurora who are helping to do these things without a commercial organization back of them are accomplishing wonders.

The movement has only begun out inside of a year there will be more progress at Aurora than for 10 years past.

A GREAT SEASON AHEAD OF SALEM.

This spring presents a remarkable succession of advantages for the Capital City and all western Oregon.

The season has advanced gradually and carefully and all the crop conditions for fruits, grains and grasses are the very best.

As far as the Capital City is concerned this is vital to its success—25 miles of solid agricultural prosperity in every direction.

Public buildings and improvements, city improvements and business buildings, residences and private improvements are all going ahead more rapidly than ever before.

This week the business men of Salem are to determine whether they will go upon a first-class excursion of four days to the Klamath Falls country.

Four days of sight-seeing among the bright progressive communities that are doing things would certainly do the average Salem business man a great deal of good.

They would realize what other cities are doing compared to their own and they would come home proud of their own record.

They would return with more faith in the Capital City for which Nature has done so much and which the whole state has helped to build up and make the beautiful city it is.

There is not a business man or professional man or capitalist in Sulem who should not try to make this trip to Klamath Falls and try to realize that we are living in a friendly relation to the whole state.

The future growth of this city depends in a large measure on how the business men of this city go out and treat the rest of the state and the time has come for Salem to go out and meet the rest of the state in a friendly and cordial manner.

INDIANS ARE ON THE WAR PATH

Santa Fe, N. M., May 14.—Two companies of New Mexico national guardsmen are being rushed today to Beranica, where they will take horses to the ancient Taos Indian pueblo, to quell an uprising among the Indians. Sheriff Ellsandro Quintana notified Governor Mills from Beranica that the situation had gone beyond his control and requested that militia be sent.

The Indians are said to be primed with liquor, and already have committed many acts of depredation, cutting telegraph and telephone wires, and driving away the stock of settlers and terrifying white women and children.

Reports from the scene of the uprising state that a band of the Redskins assaulted Mrs. L. S. Meyers, wife of a rancher, and her two small children. The stock on the Meyers ranch was driven into the mountains, and the ranch property devastated.

The trouble is said to have had its origin when Meyers fenced in land claimed by the Indians. Additional trouble arose when the government census enumerators appeared among the Pueblo dwellers.

Governor Mills is holding additional militia in readiness to dispatch to Beranica if necessary.

Shall Women Vote?

If they did, millions would vote Dr. King's New Life Pills the true remedy for women. For backache, dull, fagged feelings, headache and dizziness, constipation, dispelling colds, imparting appetite and toning up the system, they're unequalled. Easy, safe, sure. 45c at J. C. Perry.

X-RAYS AND SMILES.

The fur seals in Alaskan waters have broken into society and hereafter will have a select "500" of their own, but they will all be mates.

An utter imbecile, judged by his statement, had a long-winded rambling asinine statement in the S. F. Daily News this morning about the draft of the president's letter dismissing Glavin. He apparently doesn't know anything and certainly says nothing and yet the decent respectable telegraph wires are insulted with it.

One of the peculiarities of the Panama Canal is that to get from the Atlantic to the Pacific, one going through the canal would travel nearly southeast. That is one way to get west.

The telephone has one advantage over a talkative person. You can hang up the receiver. While if you are the receiver, you naturally do not feel like being "hung up."

If the census man overlooked you turn in your name anyhow. Stand up and be counted.

Friday the 13th, surely was an unlucky day for Quinn, who was hanged at Walla Walla yesterday. That event should forever do away with hanging, for it certainly was cruel and unusual punishment. But Quinn, unfortunately for him, cannot take advantage of his constitutional rights.

Sadie Put Him on the Mat.

Chicago, May 14.—Frank Gotch has lost his first purse since he became champion wrestler of the world. The purse was for $5,000 and it went to Mrs. Sadie Currie, who has just settled her breach of promise suit against the wrestler out of court.

It took Mrs. Currie just six months, four days, two hours, five minutes and a few odd seconds to pin the champion's shoulder to the mats.

WILL NOT STAND FOR DECISION

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION LOCKS HORNS WITH JUDGE GROSSCUP OVER HIS "13-HOUR LABOR" RULING.

(UNITED PRESS LEASING WIRE.)

Chicago, May 14.—The interstate commerce commission, through its secretary, Edward A. Moseley, has notified various railroad companies that the commission will not recognize the decision of Judge Grosscup of the circuit court of appeals in the sixteen-hour labor law case.

The railroads' lawyers were served with a notice that the commission will prosecute all railroads that follow the decision.

Judge Grosscup's decision was to the effect that the railroads had a legal right to work telegraph operators more than 13 hours in day-offices when the work is performed on "split tricks."

The commission insisted that 12 hours of work per day continuous or "split" was too much and that such hours made the operator liable to mistakes, which might endanger the lives of railroad passengers.

Loss Too Much for Him.

Weaverville, Calif., May 14.—George Lee Carr, proprietor of a hotel at Carville, died early today as a result of excitement incident to the burning of his hotel last night. As the flames consumed the building Carr became frantic and finally fainted and fell. He never regained consciousness.
